

Politics & Space in Mexico City

International Field Course

April 27 – May 11, 2025

Undergraduate students are invited to explore Mexico City through this two-week urban learning experience. Students will gain understanding of the challenges and achievements of urban governance in a huge, diverse and exciting city.

HIGHLIGHTS

- 14 day international experience
- Site visits + in-class learning. Themes include: city history and politics, housing policy, labour & human rights, gender, water and sustainability issues.
- Students will earn 0.5 credits at the third-year level (GEOG 3030 or PSCI 3908).

QUESTIONS? ATTEND AN INFORMATION SESSION

- Wed Nov 6 at 4:30 pm (Loeb A410)
- Thurs Nov 26 at 4:00 pm (Loeb A602)

INSTRUCTORS

Laura Macdonald (Political Science) & Jill Wigle (Geography & Environmental Studies)

IMPORTANT DATES

- September 4, 2024 – Applications open
- December 2, 2024 – Applications close

Some university funding is available to offset travel costs. Details forthcoming.