COURSE DESCRIPTION

Introduction to the study of Greek antiquity and the discipline of Classics and its methodologies. Greek culture and society are set in their historical contexts and studied through readings from representative ancient authors (in English translation) and through the art and architecture of the period.

Precludes additional credit for CLCV 1000, and CLCV 1109.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this course students will be able to:

- recognize and describe the major monuments and works of art in Ancient Greece.
- summarize significant political, social, and cultural events in the history of Greece from its beginnings to the death of Alexander the Great.
- Propose reasons why the major civilizations of Greece and the eastern Mediterranean collapsed at the end of the Bronze Age
- Discuss the development of the Greek city-states in the Archaic Period
- Summarize the strategies and tactics used in the Persian Wars and the Peloponnesian wars
- Summarize the strategies and tactics used by Philip II and Alexander the Great

TEXTBOOK

- Sansone, David. Ancient Greek Civilization, Third Edition. Chichester: Wiley-Blackwell. ISBN 978-1-119-09815-7 (paperback); 978-1-119-09812-6 (e-book).

The textbook is available through the University Bookstore. <https://www.bkstr.com/carletonstore/home>. They can ship it to most places in Canada. The book is also available through the library as an e-book.

You might also be able to find a better price on Amazon. The second edition is also acceptable, but the page numbers will be different for the readings.

Supplemental readings from ancient authors in translation will be available on the course webpage. There will also be chapters from other textbooks that cover the material better than Sansone does. These readings are mandatory and familiarity with their content will be expected on the tests. The list below is the bibliography from which the readings have been taken for the PDFs.

Workshops (CSAS):	10%
Discussions:	10%
Quizzes:	10%
Midterm:	30%
Final Exam:	30 %

COURSE FORMAT

This course is being delivered online asynchronously. This means that you are free to work through the lessons and tests at time that suits your own schedule. However, we do have to cover the material in a timely fashion. You will see that there are dates and deadlines for the completion of discussions and tests. Make sure you do not miss these deadlines. You will not be able to see the material of week one or to do any of the assessments in the course until you first complete the Academic Integrity and Course Outline quiz. Please be aware that the CSAS workshop on Academic Integrity is not the same as this quiz. You must do the class quiz to be able to earn any grades for the course.

COURSE STRUCTURE

This lecture-based course is usually delivered over a 12-week period but will be only 6 weeks for the summer session. This means that there will be the equivalent of 4 lectures per week, totalling roughly 6 hours of material. Because summer courses are half as long as fall and winter courses, this means that we will be moving quite quickly through the material. It is essential that you stay on top of things if you wish to succeed in this course.

TECHNOLOGICAL REQUIREMENTS

You will require a device that can access the internet and a stable internet connection in order to complete the requirements of this course. Carleton's system is optimized for use with a Windows-based platform using Google

Chrome as a web browser. The use of other browsers can cause technical failure during quizzes and tests. You will also need to be able to type essays for the tests. You will find this much easier to do if you have a keyboard rather than using your phone. Please contact IT support if you have questions about technology.

CSAS INCENTIVE PROGRAM

This course has been registered in the Incentive Program offered through the Centre for Student Academic Support (CSAS). The Incentive Program is now fully online! CSAS Learning and Writing Support Workshops are designed to help students cultivate and refine their academic skills for a university environment. To earn 10% marks towards workshop participation, students are expected to complete 2 workshops of their choice throughout the term. The workshops must be completed by June 18th to receive credit for the Incentive Program.

For your attendance to be captured, you must complete all workshop components and achieve 100% on the final assessment. Once you achieve 100% on the final assessment, you will receive a Record of Completion award from Brightspace. You will need to download the Record of Completion PDF for each applicable workshop and submit them to the assignment submission box in the course: one certificate per “assignment”. For more information about workshop attendance and submitting the Records of Completion, please visit the Incentive Program Policies on their website: <https://carleton.ca/csas/learning-support/incentive-program/>.

To view the complete list of the workshops and their descriptions, please visit the Learning and Writing Support Workshops page on the CSAS website. Please note that CSAS webinars and in-person workshops are not eligible for the Incentive Program. To access the online workshops, please self-enrol on the CSAS Online Resources page: <https://carleton.ca/csas/learning-support/learning-support-workshops/>. For further information on the Incentive Program, please visit the Incentive Program FAQs page. For additional questions, please contact the Centre for Student Academic Support at csas@carleton.ca.

All information and links are available in the CSAS Workshops module on Brightspace.

LESSONS

The course is divided into 21 Lessons over 6 weeks, but these are further divided into short videos about various topics within the lesson. Each of these short videos has a multiple-choice question embedded in it. You watch the video, and when the question pops up (you will see a button with the title of the question pop up on the screen), click the button, answer the question, and click on the blue button that says “check”. This will tell you if you got the question right or not. You can try again if you got it wrong. At the end of the video, you should see a summary page that tells you how many questions you answered. You need to click the green “submit answers” button to send your score to the gradebook. If you do not see the summary screen when the video ends, you can click on the green star at the end of the progress bar at the bottom of the screen.

There is a video in the Getting Started module on Brightspace that explains how to score points for the lessons.

QUIZZES

There will be 3 online quizzes through Brightspace during the semester. These will be short quizzes with a mixture of multiple choice, True/False, and matching questions chosen at random from a question bank. You will have 15 minutes to answer 10 questions. It is my hope that these quizzes will keep you engaged in the material as we go along, which will make the exams easier for you.

It is highly recommended that you study for the quizzes because you will not have time to look the answers up. It is your responsibility to be aware of when the quizzes are open. I cannot reopen a closed quiz because the answers will be available when the quiz closes.

If you have technical difficulties, you must notify me immediately, so I can reset the quiz for you. Be aware that I can see your attempt and will know what has happened. If there is a major technical problem involving the university, you will be compensated with a second attempt.

There will be an in-person midterm which will take place outside of regular class time (Friday night, Saturday, or Sunday). A specific date, time, and place will be communicated by announcement on Brightspace since this will be arranged by the registrar's office. It will be during the weekend of May 31st June 2nd.

Deferral of the midterm will only be granted on the grounds of serious illness or the death of a family member. Students must contact the instructor no later than 3 days after the date of the midterm and must provide supporting documentation (e.g., valid doctor's note, death certificate) in order to write a deferred test.

Students studying remotely, or varsity athletes with in-person tests or exams have the flexibility of applying to write off-campus if they will be at least 160 km away from Carleton on exam day with the approval from the course instructor.

The "Distance Exam Request Form" can be found at this webpage:
<https://carleton.ca/ses/distance-exams/>.

D I S C U S S I O N S

There will be two online discussions during the course. You are required to post a thread to the forum in answer to a prompt before you will see the responses of other students. You must then reply to the threads made by two of your classmates. This is an opportunity for you to engage in an academic discussion. You are not evaluating the posts made by others but having an intellectual conversation with them. Ask them questions and/or give them something new to think about. Pretend you are at a conference talking to your peers about the subject given in the prompt. This is meant to foster a spirit of community in the class. Students are expected to follow the protocols of Carleton's online netiquette: <https://carleton.ca/online/online-learning-resources/netiquette/>

There will be an in-person proctored final exam to be scheduled during the regular exam period (June 21-27). Students should not make travel plans until they know the date of their exams. These dates are usually posted around the time of the midterm. Students who require a deferral of the exam due to serious illness or death in their family must make arrangements through the registrar's office. Supporting documentation will be required as for the midterm.

STUDENT SUPPORT

I will use Brightspace for the administration of this course. You will find supplemental material, as well as quizzes and tests posted there. You will need to have a Carleton University email account and will need to make sure you can access Brightspace. There is an "Ask the professor" forum with a link in each module where you can ask me general questions about the course, assessments, or other things that other students might benefit from knowing the answer to. You should check this forum frequently to see what other people are asking and whether the answer to your question is already there. You can also send me an email anytime and I will do my best to answer within 2 business days. Please make sure you put the course code CLCV 1002 in the subject line of your email so that I will not think it is spam and delete it. I am teaching more than one course, so you need to identify which course you are referring to if you want a meaningful answer from me.

Student or professor materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s).

University Regulations for All College of the Humanities Courses (Updated April 26 2024)

Academic Dates and Deadlines

This schedule contains the dates prescribed by the University Senate for academic activities. Dates relating to fee payment, cancellation of course selections, late charges, and other fees or charges will be published in the Important Dates and Deadlines section of the Registration Website.

Copies of Written Work Submitted

Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

Online Learning Resources

On this page, you will find resources collected by Carleton Online to help you succeed in your online courses; Learning Strategies and Best Practices, Study Skills, Technology and Online Interaction and Engagement.

Academic Integrity Policy

Plagiarism

The University Academic Integrity Policy defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source. Examples of sources from which the ideas, expressions of ideas or works of others may be drawn from include but are not limited to: books, articles, papers, literary compositions and phrases, performance compositions, chemical compounds, artworks, laboratory reports, research results, calculations and the results of calculations, diagrams, constructions, computer reports, computer code/software, material on the internet and/or conversations.

Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

- any submission prepared in whole or in part, by someone else, including the unauthorized use of generative AI tools (e.g., ChatGPT);
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, paraphrased material, algorithms, formulae, scientific or mathematical concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings without appropriate acknowledgement;
- submitting a computer program developed in whole or in part by someone else, with or without modifications, as one’s own; and
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s work and/or failing to use quotations marks.

Plagiarism is a serious offence that cannot be resolved directly by the course's instructor. The Associate Dean of the Faculty conducts a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of "F" for the course.

Co-operation or Collaboration

An important and valuable component of the learning process is the progress a student can make as a result of interacting with other students. In struggling together to master similar concepts and problems and in being exposed to each other's views and approaches, a group of students can enhance and speed up the learning process. Carleton University encourages students to benefit from these activities which will not generally be viewed as a violation of the Policy. With the exception of tests and examinations, instructors will not normally limit these interactions.

Students shall not co-operate or collaborate on academic work when the instructor has indicated that the work is to be completed on an individual basis. Failure to follow the instructor's directions in this regard is a violation of the standards of academic integrity. Unless otherwise indicated, students shall not co-operate or collaborate in the completion of a test or examination.

Group Work: There are many cases where students are expected or required to work in groups to complete a course requirement. Normally, students are not responsible for violations of this policy committed by other members of a group in which they participate.

The full Academic Integrity Policy can be found here. More information on the process here.

Academic Accommodation Policy

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Academic consideration for medical or other extenuating circumstances: Students must contact the instructor(s) as soon as possible, and normally no later than 24 hours after the submission deadline for course deliverables. Provide any additional information on your requirements for short-term informal accommodations. If you require supporting documentation for short-term considerations, you may only request the [Academic Consideration for Coursework form. You may not request medical notes or documentation.]

Students should also consult the Course Outline Information on Academic Accommodations for more information. Detailed information about the procedure for requesting academic consideration can be found here.

Pregnancy and Family-Status Related Accommodation: Please write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first few weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details about the accommodation policy, visit the Equity and Inclusive Communities (EIC) website.

Religious obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details click here.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, please request your accommodations for this course through the Ventus Student Portal at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). Requests made within two weeks will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. For final exams, the deadlines to request accommodations are published in the University Academic Calendars. After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and where survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: <https://carleton.ca/equity/sexual-assault-support-services>

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation will be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. <https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf>

Grading System at Carleton University

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor, subject to the approval of the faculty Dean. Standing in courses will be shown by alphabetical grades. The system of grades used, with corresponding grade points and the percentage conversion can be found here. Grade points indicated are for courses with 1.0 credit value. Where the course credit is greater or less than one credit, the grade points are adjusted proportionately.

Course Sharing Websites and Copyright

Classroom teaching and learning activities, including lectures, discussions, presentations, etc., by both instructors and students, are copy protected and remain the intellectual property of their respective author(s). All course materials, including PowerPoint presentations, outlines, and other materials, are also protected by copyright and remain the intellectual property of their respective author(s).

Students registered in the course may take notes and make copies of course materials for their own educational use only. Students are not permitted to reproduce or distribute lecture notes and course materials publicly for commercial or non-commercial purposes without express written consent from the copyright holder(s). More information

Student Rights and Responsibilities at Carleton

Carleton University strives to provide a safe environment conducive to personal and intellectual growth, free of injustice and characterized by understanding respect, peace, trust, and fairness.

The Student Rights and Responsibilities Policy governs the non-academic behaviour of students. Carleton University is committed to building a campus that promotes personal growth through the establishment and promotion of transparent and fair academic and non-academic responsibilities.

Deferred Term Work

In some situations, students are unable to complete term work because of extenuating circumstances beyond their control, which forces them to delay submission of the work. Requests for academic consideration are made in accordance with the Academic Consideration Policy for Students in Medical or Other Extenuating Circumstances.

- 1) Students who claim short-term extenuating circumstances (normally lasting up to five days) as a reason for missed term work are held responsible for immediately informing the instructor concerned and for making alternate arrangements with the instructor. If the instructor requires supporting documentation, the instructor may only request submission of the University's self-declaration form, which is available on the Registrar's Office website. The alternate arrangement must be made before the last day of classes in the term as published in the academic schedule.
  - a) Normally, any deferred term work will be completed by the last day of term. In all cases, formative evaluations providing feedback to the student should be replaced with formative evaluations. In the event the altered due date must extend beyond the last day of classes in the term, the instructor will assign a grade of zero for the work not submitted and submit the student's earned grade accordingly; the instructor may submit a change of grade at a later date. Term work cannot be deferred by the Registrar.
- 2) In cases where a student is not able to complete term work due to extenuating circumstances lasting for a significant period of time/ long-term (normally more than five days), the instructor and/or student may elect to consult with the Registrar's Office (undergraduate courses) or Graduate Registrar (graduate courses) to determine appropriate action.
- 3) If a student is concerned the instructor did not respond to the request for academic consideration or did not provide reasonable accommodation, the student should follow the appeals process described in the Academic Consideration Policy.
- 4) If academic consideration is granted, but the student is unable to complete the accommodation according to the terms set out by the instructor as a result of further illness, injury, or extraordinary circumstances beyond their control, the student may submit a petition to the Registrar's Office (undergraduate courses)/Graduate Registrar (graduate courses). Please note, however, that the course instructor will be required to submit an earned final grade and further consideration will only be reviewed according to established precedents and deadlines. (More information: Undergraduate | Graduate).

Deferred Final Exams

Students who are unable to write a final examination because of extenuating circumstances, as defined in the Academic Consideration Policy, may apply for accommodation. Normally, the accommodation for a missed final examination will be granting the student the opportunity to write a deferred examination. In specific cases when it is not possible to offer a deferred examination, and with the approval of the Dean, an alternate accommodation may be made.

The application for a deferral must:

1. be made in writing to the Registrar's Office no later than three (3) working days after the original final examination or the due date of the take-home examination; and,
2. be fully supported by appropriate documentation. In cases of short-term extenuating circumstances normally lasting no more than five (5) days, students must include the University's self-declaration form, which can be found on the Registrar's Office website. Additional documentation is required in cases of extenuating circumstances lasting longer than five (5) days and must be supported by a medical note specifying the date of onset of the illness, the (expected) date of recovery, and the extent to which the student was/is incapacitated during the time of the examination. The University's preferred medical form can be found at the Registrar's Office here.

Financial vs. Academic Withdrawal

Make sure that you are aware of the separate deadlines for Financial and Academic withdrawal!

Making registration decisions in Carleton Central involves making a financial and academic commitment for the courses you choose, regardless of attendance. If you do not attend, you must withdraw in Carleton Central within the published deadlines to cancel your registration. A fee adjustment is dependent on registration being canceled within the published fee deadlines and dependent on your course load. A course dropped after the deadline for financial withdrawal will receive a grade of Withdrawn (WDN), which appears on your official transcript.

Even if you miss the deadline for financial withdrawal, you might decide to drop a course to avoid a failure or a poor grade showing up on your student record and bringing down your CGPA. It is your responsibility to drop the course via Carleton Central within the published deadlines (see Academic Withdrawal).

If you are considering withdrawing from a course, you may want to talk to an advisor first. Course withdrawal may affect your student status, as well as your eligibility for student funding, immigration status, residence accommodation and participation in varsity sports, etc. Additionally, remember that once you choose your courses, you must use the "Calculate amount to pay" button to determine the correct amount of fees to pay.

Carleton Central is your one-stop shop for registration activities. If you are interested in taking a course, make sure to complete your registration. Simply attending a course does not mean you are registered in it, nor is it grounds for petition or appeal.
