Lectures: (Early Summer- May-June) Tuesdays & Thursdays

Mackenzie 4499 – 1735 - 2025

Office Hours: One hour before class on Tuesdays (or by appointment)

CLCV 1002 A is an introduction to the study of Greek antiquity from the Mino-Mycenaean Age (c. 3000-1100 BC) down to the mid-second century BC, when Greece became a Roman protectorate (146 BC).¹ The culture and society of Greece will be set in historical context through lectures and studied through readings, through translations from representative ancient authors, and through art and architecture (largely from the classical period). After the Bronze Age our concentration will be on Athens in particular.

Course work will require the writing of a mid-term and final (identifications/definitions and paragraph/essay responses), each worth 50% of your grade in the course. The final will be scheduled by the Registrar's Office and written during the exam period following the end of classes; though it will be in part cumulative, the stress will be on the course material from after the mid-term test. For the date of the mid-term see below.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Amos, H.D. & Lang, A.G.P., These Were the Greeks [Chester Springs, Pennsylvania: Dufour, 2005 (last reprint)] [referred to below by A&L]²

Coursepack: Homer, Odyssey I-IV (the "Telemachia"); Euripides, Bacchae

¹ Alternatively BCE is used for BC by some writers, CE for AD. As for the whole business of dating: The chronology for Bronze Age Greece in particular is constantly being adjusted; therefore, I will follow the dates of Amos and Lang (below) at times but sometimes suggest other dates. This in no way is meant, however, to detract from the text as a whole.

² You will note (below) that not every chapter in this book has been assigned for reading over the term: Chapter 8, and 13-16 have been omitted largely because of the constraints of the summer timetable. Topics in these chapters will no doubt, however, have an appeal to some students, and so do have a look at them if you are interested. There are also interesting topics in the "Appendix" (p. 210 ff.) and a helpful "Date Chart" (p. 220) and index (p. 223).

REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED

Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They range from a mark of zero for the plagiarized work to a final grade of “F” for the course, and even suspension from all studies or expulsion from the University.

GRADING SYSTEM

Letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100 (12)	B = 73-76 (8)	C - = 60-62 (4)
A = 85-89 (11)	B- = 70-72 (7)	D+ = 57-59 (3)
A- = 80-84 (10)	C+ = 67-69 (6)	D = 53-56 (2)
B+ = 77-79 (9)	C = 63-66 (5)	D - = 50-52 (1)

F	Failure. No academic credit
WDN	Withdrawn from the course
ABS	Absent from the final examination
DEF	Official deferral (see “Petitions to Defer”)
FND	Failure with no deferred exam allowed -- assigned only when the student has failed the course on the basis of inadequate term work as specified in the course outline.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean.

WITHDRAWAL WITHOUT ACADEMIC PENALTY

The last date to withdraw from EARLY SUMMER courses is JUNE 11, 2010. The last day to withdraw from FULL SUMMER and LATE SUMMER courses is JULY 30, 2010.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of a disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: write to your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: http://www.carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/student_guide.htm

Religious obligation: write to your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: http://www.carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/student_guide.htm

Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course must register with the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) for a formal evaluation of disability-related needs. Documented disabilities could include but are not limited to mobility/physical impairments, specific Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/psychological disabilities, sensory disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), and chronic medical conditions. Registered PMC students are required to contact the PMC, 613-520-6608, every term to ensure that your instructor receives your Letter of Accommodation, no later than two weeks before the first assignment is due or the first in-class test/midterm requiring accommodations. If you only require accommodations for your formally scheduled exam(s) in this course, please submit your request for accommodations to PMC by the last official day to withdraw from classes in each term. For more details visit the PMC website: http://www.carleton.ca/pmc/students/acad_accom.html

You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at <http://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation>

PETITIONS TO DEFER

Students unable to complete a final term paper or write a final examination because of illness or other circumstances beyond their control or whose performance on an examination has been impaired by such circumstances may apply in writing within five working days to the Registrar’s Office for permission to extend a term paper deadline or to write a deferred examination. The request must be fully and specifically supported by a medical certificate or other relevant documentation. Only deferral petitions submitted to the Registrar’s Office will be considered.
