ROMAN ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY

Professor: Dr. L. Gagné
Office: Paterson Hall, 310A
E-mail: laura.gagne@carleton.ca
Classes: Tuesdays and Thursdays 1:05 – 2:25 pm
Office Hours: Wednesdays 11:30 am – 2:30 pm

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The art, architecture and archaeology of the ancient Romans, Vase painting, sculpture, architecture, town planning and analogous arts are studied.
Precludes additional credit for CLCV 2302 and ARTH 2100
Prerequisite(s): second-year standing or permission of the unit.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this courses students will be able to analyze and compare the major monuments and works of art in the ancient Roman world in their political, social, and cultural context. They will also critically assess the archaeological and historical evidence that guides modern interpretations of these monuments and works of art.

TEXTBOOK

Kleiner, Fred S. 2018. A History of Roman Art. Second Edition. Boston: Cengage Learning.
ISBN: 978-1-305-88512-7 ($170.85 with Mindtap)
Loose Leaf edition: 978-1-337-27950-5 ($122.70 with Mindtap)

The text book is available at Haven Books. <https://havenbooks.ca>. A copy is on course reserve at the library on a 24-hour loan basis.

Although this textbook is very good for art, it is not about archaeology. I will add the archaeological component to the course in the form of extra readings and information in the lectures. You will notice that the book also orders things in a way different from how I teach. For those chapters, you will notice the pages repeated for two lectures with the word “passim” (Latin for throughout) following because they intersperse the architecture and sculpture in the chapter.

EVALUATION

Quizzes (4 quizzes, 5% each):	20%
Midterm Test:	35%
Final examination:	45%

PARTICIPATION

Regular attendance is required in order to succeed in this course. Much of the material covered is available only in the lectures. The quizzes, midterm and final exams will be based mainly on the lectures, although the lectures are based on the textbook.

Students are expected to check their university email regularly and to visit the course website on CuLearn often. This is how I will communicate with you. Classes will only be cancelled in extreme circumstances. Notification will appear on CuLearn if this is the case. Please note that in case of bad weather, there is a small chance I may be late if traffic is unusually bad. If there is no notice on CuLearn to state that class is cancelled, this means I am driving and will teach during the time remaining after I arrive.

COURSE STRUCTURE

The course is divided into five modules. The format will be standard lectures. The course schedule below is a guide to the material to be covered in each lecture. Adjustments may be made to the schedule based on class needs. The date of the midterm is not subject to change, but quizzes may be later if necessary.

QUIZZES

There will be four quizzes, each worth 5% of the final grade. These quizzes can be accessed through a link on CuLearn which will become visible just before the quiz is to open. You will have one week to attempt each quiz, but the quiz has a time limit of 25 minutes. Once you begin, you must finish it in one sitting, so ensure you have adequate time to do so. You cannot stop and restart the quiz. You will be given 20 questions assigned randomly from a bank of questions. The questions will be a mixture of multiple choice, true/false, and matching questions. You may use your notes and textbook, but you need to study as well, since you will not have time to look everything up in your notes. Students are to take the quiz on their own. The dates for the quizzes may change depending on when we finish the module the quiz is based on. You will see your mark shortly after completion of the quiz, but the questions will remain hidden until the quiz closes. If you have a technological problem while taking the quiz, notify me immediately so that I can reset it for you. I can see whether a problem has occurred and will not reset a quiz only so that you can improve your score. Once the quiz has closed, I cannot reopen it for anyone because the answers will have been released. Try not to leave the quiz until the last minute.

MIDTERM AND FINAL EXAMINATIONS

The midterm examination will be held on Tuesday, February 11th. It will cover material from the beginning of the course to the end of the lectures on the Julio-Claudians (the lecture of February 4th). It will be worth 35% of the final grade for the course. This date will NOT change. Students may only write a missed midterm with proper documentation (sick note, death certificate) and must notify the professor within 24 hours of the date of the missed exam. There will be no chance to write a missed midterm after marked exams have been returned to the class (usually 2 weeks after the exam).

The final examination will be scheduled by the Registrar's Office. Students are advised not to make travel plans during the final examination period. The final examination will be worth 45% of the overall mark for the course. It will cover mainly material from after the midterm. This will be explained during the exam review in our final class.

STUDENT SUPPORT

I will use CuLearn for the administration of this course. You will need to have a Carleton University email account and will need to make sure you can access CuLearn. You can also send me an email anytime and I will do my best to answer within 48 hours. Please make sure you put the course code CLCV 2304A or ARTH 2105B in the subject line of your email so that I will not think it is spam and delete it. I do not open emails from strangers or emails without subjects.

Student or professor materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s).

Copies of Written Work Submitted

Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

Academic Integrity at Carleton

Plagiarism is presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas, or work of others as one's own. Plagiarism includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else's published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one's own without proper citation or reference to the original source. Examples of sources from which the ideas, expressions of ideas or works of others may be drawn from include but are not limited to: books, articles, papers, literary compositions and phrases, performance compositions, chemical compounds, art works, laboratory reports, research results, calculations and the results of calculations, diagrams, constructions, computer reports, computer code/software, and material on the internet. More information can be found here.

Academic Accommodation Policy

Academic Accommodation

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: write to the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide

Religious obligation: write to the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and is survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. <https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf>

Grading System at Carleton University

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor, subject to the approval of the faculty Dean. Standing in courses will be shown by alphabetical grades. The system of grades used, with corresponding grade points and the percentage conversion is below. Grade points indicated are for courses with 1.0 credit value. Where the course credit is greater or less than one credit, the grade points are adjusted proportionately.

Course Sharing Websites and Copyright

Classroom teaching and learning activities, including lectures, discussions, presentations, etc., by both instructors and students, are copy protected and remain the intellectual property of their respective author(s). All course materials, including PowerPoint presentations, outlines, and other materials, are also protected by copyright and remain the intellectual property of their respective author(s).

Students registered in the course may take notes and make copies of course materials for their own educational use only. Students are not permitted to reproduce or distribute lecture notes and course materials publicly for commercial or non-commercial purposes without express written consent from the copyright holder(s).

Statement on Class Conduct

The Carleton University Human Rights Policies and Procedures affirm that all members of the University community share a responsibility to:

- promote equity and fairness,
- respect and value diversity,
- prevent discrimination and harassment, and preserve the freedom of its members to carry out responsibly their scholarly work without threat of interference.

Deferred Term Work

In some situations, students are unable to complete term work because of illness or other circumstances beyond their control, which forces them to delay submission of the work.

Students who claim illness, injury or other extraordinary circumstances beyond their control as a reason for missed term work are held responsible for immediately informing the instructor concerned and for making alternate arrangements with the instructor and in all cases this must occur no later than three (3.0) working days after the term work was due.

The alternate arrangement must be made before the last day of classes in the term as published in the academic schedule. Normally, any deferred term work will be completed by the last day of term. More information is available in the calendar.

Deferred Final Exams

Students who are unable to write a final examination because of a serious illness/emergency or other circumstances beyond their control may apply for accommodation. Normally, the accommodation for a missed final examination will be granting the student the opportunity to write a deferred examination. In specific cases when it is not possible to offer a deferred examination, and with the approval of the Dean, an alternate accommodation may be made. More information.

The application for a deferral must:

1. be made in writing or online to the Registrar's Office no later than three working days after the original final examination or the due date of the take-home examination; and,
2. be fully supported by appropriate documentation and, in cases of illness, by a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination, or by appropriate documents in other cases. Medical documents must specify the date of the onset of the illness, the (expected) date of recovery, and the extent to which the student was/is incapacitated during the time of the examination. The University's preferred medical form can be found at the Registrar's Office forms and fees page.

Any questions related to deferring a Final Exam or Final Assignment/Take Home Examination should be directed to the Registrar's Office.

Withdrawal From Courses

Withdrawn. No academic credit, no impact on the CGPA. WDN is a permanent notation that appears on the official transcript for students who withdraw after the full fee adjustment date in each term (noted in the Academic Year section of the Calendar each term). Students may withdraw on or before the last day of classes.

Important dates can be found here.

Financial vs. Academic Withdrawal

Make sure that you are aware of the separate deadlines for Financial and Academic withdrawal!

Making registration decisions in Carleton Central involves making a financial and academic commitment for the courses you choose, regardless of attendance. If you do not attend – you must withdraw in Carleton Central within the published deadlines to cancel your registration. More information
