COURSE OBJECTIVES

The narrative of the “fall” of Rome in the early 5th century to hordes of “barbarian” invaders has long held sway in the popular imagination. Such a tale emphasizes the “decline” of Roman civilization from an enlightened classical ideal to a superstitious dark age. In recent decades most scholars have come to reject this story as a distortion and simplification of a more complex set of processes which led to a radical transformation of Roman society, particularly under the influence of Christianity. This course will examine the history of the later Roman Empire from the 4th to the 7th centuries CE in light of recent research highlighting continuity and change, religious controversies, tribal migration, and social upheaval.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS (available at Carleton Bookstore):

Stephen Mitchell, A History of the Later Roman Empire: AD 284-641 (Blackwell)
Ammianus Marcellinus, The Later Roman Empire (Penguin)

EMAIL COMMUNICATION

Carleton's Connect Mail is the official mode of email communication for all matters having to do with the university and with this course. All communications sent by Connect are official, and you are expected to get them. It is not an option to claim you did not get some announcement or request because you have another email address. You can configure your connect account to forward university emails to another address, but you must be reachable through your Connect account. Also, any communication between you and me involving your personal information (like grades) must originate from a Connect account (FIPPA).

NOTE ON ATTENDANCE

If you want to succeed in this course, then attending class and keeping up with readings is essential. Please note that this is not an independent reading course or self-directed study. You are ultimately responsible for all course material (readings and lectures).

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENT I: ENCYCLOPEDIA ENTRY

You've been asked by a major academic publisher to write a 1000-word encyclopedia entry on one of the following people for a new encyclopedia of the Later Roman Empire. Select one of the individuals from the list below and write a short biographical essay. Your entry should include the following elements:

- Title
- Introduction / Background
- Biography / Legacy
- Further Reading

List of Topics:

|----------------------|---------------------|
| Athanasius | Iamblichus |
| Ambrose of Milan | Jerome |
| Arius | Justinian |
| Augustine of Hippo | Lactantius |
| Ausonius | Libanius |
| Belsarius | Melania the Younger |
| Ephrem the Syrian | Nestorius |
| Eudoxia | Procopius |
| Eusebius of Caesarea | Stilicho |
| Helena | Theodosius I |
| Heraclius | Valens |
| Hypatia | Zosimus |

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENT II: PRIMARY SOURCE ANALYSIS

One of the most important sources for the later Roman Empire is what remains of the history written by Ammianus Marcellinus. You are asked to carefully read his history and analyse how Ammianus presents one of the following themes:

The Legacy of the Emperor Julian
Depictions of Sassanian Persia
The "Nature" of Late Roman Society
"Barbarians" as Other
Late Roman Warfare

Your analysis should be 8-10 pages (typed, 12-point font, standard margins) and be based primarily on your reading of Ammianus as well as five secondary sources (books and/or articles) relevant to the topic. These sources will help you interpret and contextualize your analysis of the theme. Below is a selected bibliography, although you may find other relevant works.

Selected Bibliography

Academic Accommodation Policy

Academic Accommodation

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: write to the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide

Religious obligation: write to the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

Grading System at Carleton University

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor, subject to the approval of the faculty Dean. Standing in courses will be shown by alphabetical grades. The system of grades used, with corresponding grade points and the percentage conversion is below. Grade points indicated are for courses with 1.0 credit value. Where the course credit is greater or less than one credit, the grade points are adjusted proportionately.

Course Sharing Websites and Copyright

Classroom teaching and learning activities, including lectures, discussions, presentations, etc., by both instructors and students, are copy protected and remain the intellectual property of their respective author(s). All course materials, including PowerPoint presentations, outlines, and other materials, are also protected by copyright and remain the intellectual property of their respective author(s).

Students registered in the course may take notes and make copies of course materials for their own educational use only. Students are not permitted to reproduce or distribute lecture notes and course materials publicly for commercial or non-commercial purposes without express written consent from the copyright holder(s).

Statement on Class Conduct

The Carleton University Human Rights Policies and Procedures affirm that all members of the University community share a responsibility to:

- promote equity and fairness,
- respect and value diversity,
- prevent discrimination and harassment, and

preserve the freedom of its members to carry out responsibly their scholarly work without threat of interference.

Deferred Term Work

In some situations, students are unable to complete term work because of illness or other circumstances beyond their control, which forces them to delay submission of the work.

Students who claim illness, injury or other extraordinary circumstances beyond their control as a reason for missed term work are held responsible for immediately informing the instructor concerned and for making alternate arrangements with the instructor and in all cases this must occur no later than three (3.0) working days after the term work was due.

The alternate arrangement must be made before the last day of classes in the term as published in the academic schedule. Normally, any deferred term work will be completed by the last day of term. More information is available in the calendar.

Deferred Exams

Students who do not write/attend a final examination because of illness or other circumstances beyond their control may apply to write a deferred examination.

1. be made in writing to the Registrar's Office no later than three working days after the original final examination or the due date of the take-home examination; and
2. be fully supported by appropriate documentation and in cases of illness by a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or by appropriate documents in other cases. Medical documents must specify the date of the onset of the illness, the (expected) date of recovery, and the extent to which the student was/is incapacitated during the time of the examination. The University's preferred medical form can be found at the Registrar's Office forms and fees page.

The granting of a deferral also requires that the student has performed satisfactorily in the course according to the evaluation scheme established in the Course Outline, excluding the final examination for which deferral privileges are requested. Reasons for denial of a deferral may include, among other conditions, a failure to (i) achieve a minimum score in the course before the final examination; (ii) attend a minimum number of classes; (iii) successfully complete a specific task (e.g. term paper, critical report, group project, computer or other assignment); (iv) complete laboratory work; (v) successfully complete one or more midterms; or (vi) meet other reasonable conditions of successful performance.

More information can be found in the calendar.

Any questions related to deferring a Final Exam or Final Assignment/Take Home Examination should be directed to: Registrar's Office

Withdrawal From Courses

Withdrawn. No academic credit, no impact on the CGPA.

NEW FALL 2017: WDN is a permanent notation that appears on the official transcript for students who withdraw after the full fee adjustment date in each term. Students may withdraw on or before the last day of classes.
