This term we will examine the state of Athens from the Late Bronze Age through the Roman period. We will discuss both archaeological and written evidence in order to reconstruct a picture of the politics, culture and ideology of the people over time. I am especially interested in addressing the question of how material remains augment our written record for Athenian history. The “state of Athens” is construed broadly to include the city of Athens, its entire territory of Attica, and the areas into which the state projected its power. Students should expect to do a large amount of reading and research, present topics in seminar, and to participate actively in class discussions.

Prerequisite: fourth-year standing in the Greek and Roman Studies B.A. program, or permission of the department. 0.5 credit

Text: John Camp, The Archaeology of Athens (Yale University Press, 2001).

Requirements:

Midterm Test (entire class Feb. 13, 2013).....	20%
Student Seminar	25%
Student Presentation	15%
Class Participation and Response (10+10).....	20%
Take-home exam (due April 17, 2013).....	20%

The final date for voluntary withdrawal without academic penalty is April 10, 2013.

Seminar, Presentation, and Response: All students will be expected to do extra research and preparation that leads to presentations on two topics during term. Furthermore, they will be required to respond formally to one other student seminar.

For the seminar, students must do extensive reading about the topic, present the basic and most important points to the class, and defend their arguments before the rest of the class, including answering questions from a formal respondent. At least one week prior to their seminar, the student must provide the entire class with one or two reading suggestions (articles or chapters) to prepare for the seminar. For the seminar itself, the student must create a handout which includes the major points and sources for the topic. Students are encouraged to include visual material for the presentation, either in the handout, or using Powerpoint. A written version of the presentation (including references) will be submitted within one week of the seminar. A list of seminar topics and detailed instructions for this portion of the course will be posted on cuLearn. Students may suggest alternate topics, but these must be approved by the professor.

Academic offences: All students are expected to know what constitutes an academic offence, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for their academic actions. When the commission of an offence (such as plagiarism, cheating, improper research, obstructing academic activity, double submission, unauthorized cooperation / collaboration, impersonation, falsification etc.) is established, disciplinary penalties will be imposed in accordance with the regulations of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences.

The minimum penalty assigned to any requirement that is affected by an academic offence will be a mark of zero for the relevant work.

Information about academic offences and student discipline can be found in the university calendar under Student Conduct (Section 14.0 Academic Integrity). If you need help in learning how to avoid academic offences or clarification of aspects of the discipline policy, ask me!

All work submitted for a mark in this class must be completed by the individual student alone. No group work or collaboration is allowed on any requirement.

REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED

Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course

Letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100 (12)	B = 73-76 (8)	C - = 60-62 (4)

B+ = 77-79 (9)	C = 63-66 (5)	D - = 50-52 (1)

DEF	Official deferral (see “Petitions to Defer”)
FND	Failure with no deferred exam allowed -- assigned only when the student has failed the course on the basis of inadequate term work as specified in the course outline.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly and write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

PETITIONS TO DEFER

If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment. If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery.

If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept.

Deferrals of assignments must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor.
