EXPENSES NOT COVERED BY THE $3456 PAYMENT:

Passport: Your passport must expire not less than 90 days after your return date.

If you travel on a passport other than from the EU, Canada, or the United States, you may require a visa to enter Greece.

University Tuition and Textbook:

CU summer 2018 cost for 0.5 credit course was $824.43. Prices go up slightly each April. The course textbook will be available on Amazon.ca for roughly $50 used.

Transportation to and from Montréal Airport:

You are responsible for your own transportation to and from the airport in Montréal.

Travel medical insurance is required: cost varies with your age and health but for a 19-day trip is normally $50-80. The professor must know the details of this insurance.

Trip insurances (cancellation, baggage loss and damage etc.) are optional, but can normally be purchased when you pay for flights.

Meals: Lunches and dinners are not included (except one group dinner in Nauplio).

Breakfasts are included and normally consist of: bread, coffee or tea, cheese, fruit and sliced meat. Often there are boiled eggs, yoghurt, and cold cereal. Outside Athens, food is cheap in Greece and you will find small grocery stores in most places.

Optional Activities: Most are free or accessible with your site/museum pass.

You are encouraged to enjoy cultural and social activities in Greece, at your own expense outside mandatory academic activities.
