OBJECTIVES

Course Description: This course provides an introduction for beginners in Latin. It will introduce students to the grammatical structure of Latin, which is very different from that of English. Students will practice reading Latin and translating Latin to English. We plan to cover the first twelve chapters in Wheelock's Latin. See Tentative Course Calendar for specifics.

By learning Latin you will gain access in the original to the rich Latin literature of the Classical period, as well as that of the Middle Ages and Renaissance. You will also gain a greater understanding of English grammar and vocabulary. Latin remained the main language of international communication until the nineteenth century. It is also the mother language of the Romance languages (Italian, French, Spanish, Portuguese, Romanian, etc.) and is the source of about 60-70% of English vocabulary.

Learning Latin requires a readiness to learn not only vocabulary but also many grammatical forms. Latin is an inflected language, one in which changes in word endings are used to make the words' functions clear. The vocabulary and forms must be memorized daily in order to make good progress. Come to class on time and prepared. Steady work throughout the term is essential.

N.B. - This course is the prerequisite for LATN 1006A in which students continue their learning of Latin with the same book and approach.

NOTES

1. Regular class attendance is essential.
2. Be sure to read the attached sheet headed Regulations Common to All Humanities Courses. This contains much important information, including a detailed definition of plagiarism, which is of course a serious offence.
3. Detailed information on the format of the Mid-term Test & the Final Examination will be provided at least two weeks in advance.
4. There will be oral exercises and practice in every class. If you have a good reason for not participating in this oral work, let me know and alternative assignments will be arranged.
5. Medical certificates or the like are required to enable you to write a missed Mid-term Test without penalty.
6. All assignments will be marked and returned within a week, normally at the next class.
7. Requests for Deferred Final Exams must be directed to the Registrar's Office. In order for your request to be considered, you must have at least 50% of the maximum marks for the other course assignments.

EVALUATION

Homework:	15 %
Quizzes:	20 %
Midterm:	30%
Final examination:	35 %

PARTICIPATION

Learning Latin, like learning any language, requires constant practice and a willingness to learn both vocabulary and grammatical structures. Latin is an inflected language (it changes its word endings depending on tense for verbs, or case and gender for nouns and adjectives). This means it will require some amount of effort on your part to master it. It is better to do 15 minutes of Latin every day than to do one hour twice a week.

Attendance in every class is mandatory. You are unlikely to pass this course if you do not come to class.

Students are expected to check their university email regularly and also to visit the course website on CuLearn often. This is how I will communicate with you.

COURSE STRUCTURE

During this semester we will cover the first 12 chapters of the textbook. We will cover approximately one chapter per week.

HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENTS

Homework will be due each Wednesday at the beginning of class. There will be homework every week. You need to practice translating and you also need constant feedback so that you can excel.

QUIZZES

There will be a quiz every Monday, beginning on September 14th.

MIDTERM TEST

There will be one midterm test worth 30% of the final mark. This will take place in class for the entire period. There will be a review in the class before the test. There are no make-up tests or assignments. Students missing tests must produce proper documentation in order to be allowed to write.

FINAL EXAMINATION

The final exam will be cumulative, covering material from the entire course. There will be a review during the last day of classes.

STUDENT SUPPORT

I will use CuLearn for the administration of this course. You will find supplemental material, as well as homework assignments posted there. You will need to have a Carleton University email account and will need to make sure you can access CuLearn. You can also send me an email anytime and I will do my best to answer within 24 hours. Please make sure you put the course code LATN 1005C in the subject line of your email so that I will not think it is spam and delete it.

REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED

Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course

GRADING SYSTEM

Letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100 (12)	B = 73-76 (8)	C - = 60-62 (4)
A = 85-89 (11)	B- = 70-72 (7)	D+ = 57-59 (3)
A- = 80-84 (10)	C+ = 67-69 (6)	D = 53-56 (2)
B+ = 77-79 (9)	C = 63-66 (5)	D - = 50-52 (1)

F	Failure. Assigned 0.0 grade points
ABS	Absent from final examination, equivalent to F
DEF	Official deferral (see “Petitions to Defer”)
FND	Failure with no deferred exam allowed -- assigned only when the student has failed the course on the basis of inadequate term work as specified in the course outline.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean.

WITHDRAWAL WITHOUT ACADEMIC PENALTY

The last date to withdraw from FALL TERM courses is DEC. 7, 2015. The last day to withdraw from FALL/WINTER (Full Term) and WINTER term courses is APRIL 8, 2016.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly and write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course must register with the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) for a formal evaluation of disability-related needs. Documented disabilities could include but not limited to mobility/physical impairments, specific Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/psychological disabilities, sensory disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), and chronic medical conditions. Registered PMC students are required to contact the PMC, 613-520-6608, every term to ensure that your Instructor receives your Letter of Accommodation, no later than two weeks before the first assignment is due or the first in-class test/midterm requiring accommodations. If you only require accommodations for your formally scheduled exam(s) in this course, please submit your request for accommodations to PMC by Nov. 6, 2015 for the Fall term and March 6, 2016 for the Winter term. For more details visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

PETITIONS TO DEFER

If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment. If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery.

If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept.

Deferrals of a final assignment or take home, in courses without a final examination, must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor.

Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.
