

Toronto City Hall installation by Ibrahim Mahama. October 2018. Photograph by Jerzy Elżanowski. Poster designed by Ruchi Kumbhani.

TOWARDS REPARATIVE FUTURES

HERITAGE CONSERVATION PARADIGMS FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

April 27, 2024
10:00am - 5:00pm (Doors open at 9:30am)

Library and Archives Canada
Alfred Pellan Room
395 Wellington Street
Ottawa, ON

The 2024 Carleton University Heritage Conservation Symposium is a one-day event organized by graduate students, alumni, and faculty at the School of Canadian Studies and the Azrieli School of Architecture and Urbanism, in partnership with the Ottawa Research Collaborative.

Registration Required
General: $45
Student: $15
Lunch Provided

The event brings together students, academics, and professionals in critical discussion on issues related to heritage studies and heritage conservation theory and practice.

For more information
https://bit.ly/HCS2024_info

