

Traditional Repair. Immaterial Injury. Kader Attia. 2014. Poster designed by Ruchi Kumbhani.

TOWARDS REPARATIVE FUTURES

The 2024 Carleton University Heritage Conservation Symposium is a one-day event organized by graduate students, alumni, and faculty at the School of Canadian Studies and the Azrieli School of Architecture and Urbanism, in partnership with the Ottawa Research Collaborative.

The event brings together students, academics, and professionals in critical discussion on issues related to heritage studies and heritage conservation theory and practice.

HERITAGE CONSERVATION PARADIGMS FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

April 27, 2024
10:00am - 5:00pm (Doors open at 9:30am)

Library and Archives Canada
Alfred Pellan Room
395 Wellington Street
Ottawa, ON

Registration Required
General: $45
Student: $15
Lunch Provided

For more information
https://bit.ly/HCS2024_info

