

Carleton University Heritage Conservation Symposium

Senses of Heritage: Accessibility, Experience and Memory

September 26, 2026 | 9:30-16:00

Dunton Tower, Room 2017 | Carleton University, Ottawa

SESSION 1

Emotion and Place in Imagining Collective Pasts

Olivia Holland (University of Toronto)
Rebecca Hartley (University of Toronto)
Amanda Skocic (University of Toronto)

SESSION 2

Giving Voice to Local Experience

Andrée-Ann Langevin (Carleton University)
Heather Thomson (National Capital Commission)
Carolyn Bouffard Lima (Public Services and Procurement Canada)
Walid Elgazzar (Public Services and Procurement Canada)

SESSION 3

Sonic Heritage Practices

Morghen Jael (University of Toronto)
Jesse Stewart (Carleton University)
Reza Yazdanpanah (Carleton University)
Amy Hetletvedt (Carleton University)

SESSION 4

Accessing Heritage through Embodied Knowledge

Chloe Maignan (Carleton University)
Patrick Moore (Professional School of Practical Stereotomy)
Keisha Cuffie (Carleton University)

Registration and Event Details

Use the QR code below or visit www.carleton.ca/heritage-conservation-symposium/ to learn more and register.

Registration is $15 for students and speakers, $45 for professionals. Includes light refreshments, coffee, and lunch. Registration closes September 22.

Carleton University

Canadian
Studies

