Heritage Conservation District Study

The Town of Mississippi Mills has initiated a study to assess the cultural heritage value of downtown Almonte. In order to recommend whether this historic town centre should be considered for designation as a Heritage Conservation District, we need your input to help us understand the unique character of this historic place. Please use this postcard or join us online or in person to tell us more about Almonte.

The petty battle against Bike Share in historic Cabbagetown: Micallef

By SHAWN MICALLEF Living Columnist

Fri., Feb. 3, 2017

Bikes, a form of transportation that predates the automobile, are continuing to cause concern in Cabbagetown.

In a Jan. 23 letter to City Councillor Pam McConnell, the Cabbagetown Heritage Conservation District Committee expressed disappointment that a Bike Share station was installed last summer within the Cabbagetown North Heritage Conservation District (HCD) without “any regard for the truly unique character” the area presents and asked it be removed.
