

Contract Instructor Opportunities, 2024-25
Carleton University, Department of History

The Department of History is seeking a qualified Contract Instructor for the following course for the 2024-25 academic session. As a general rule, the minimum qualification is a Ph.D. in the appropriate field. Terms and conditions of employment are set out in the Collective Agreement between Carleton University and CUPE Local 4600, unit 2.

The modality of each course is determined by the University (in-person, online, or hybrid).

HIST 2311A [0.5 credit] - Environmental History of Canada

A survey of Canadian environmental history, considering nature, landscape, and geography. Topics include the history of energy regimes and climate change; Indigenous ecological knowledge; colonization and settlement; resource extraction; commodity production; environmental policies and movements.

Candidates are required to have experience in teaching Canadian environmental history. A record of relevant publications would be an asset.

Fall term.

Designated Modality: Online Asynchronous

Anticipated TA Support: yes

Anticipated Enrollment: 120

Please note that anticipated TA support is based on anticipated enrollment and may change based on actual enrollment in a course.

Application Procedures and Deadlines:

As per Article 15.3 of the current CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, applicants are required to submit a cover letter, an up to date CV that includes a listing of all courses taught within the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 bargaining unit at Carleton University.
