

The Ottawa Resource Room Collection

Visit us on the first floor of MacOdrum Library

Map: Library and Archives Canada, Insurance Plan of the City of Ottawa Volume II, 1902, Revised 1912. Sheet F.

About

Archives and Research Collections (ARC) houses research archives and rare book collections. We are dedicated to supporting research at Carleton University with active acquisition.

The Ottawa Resource Room showcases information about specific neighbourhoods in Ottawa, as well as maps, statistics and other topical information about our city.

Location

Floor 1, MacOdrum Library
Carleton University
1125 Colonel By Drive
Ottawa, ON K1S 5B6

Contact Us

Monica Ferguson
Coordinator, Ottawa Resource Room
Phone: 613-520-2600 ext. 8125
Email: monica.ferguson@carleton.ca

Patti Harper
Head of Archives and Research Collections
Phone: 613-520-2600 ext. 8066
Email: patti.harper@carleton.ca

Joel Rivard
Cartographic Specialist, MADGIC
Phone: 613-520-2600 ext. 1685
Email: joel.rivard@carleton.ca

THE OTTAWA
RESOURCE
ROOM

The Ottawa Resource Room

Mandate

To identify existing local Ottawa area resources and to provide enhanced use of local area materials and help to promote full utilization for academic research and teaching needs.

We wish to:

- Forge new research links supported by a digital component.
- Further high quality research.
- Encourage cross-disciplinary collaboration.

Collection Highlights

- Local area maps and cartographic information
- Municipal and federal government information
- Local area history
- Special library collections and resources
- Books on Ottawa architectural history
- Dedicated research space
- Online resources

Visit Our Online Resources:

<https://library.carleton.ca/research/collection/ottawa-resource-room>

