ARTICLE 3 – RECOGNITION

- 3.1 Pursuant to the certificate issued by the Ontario Labour Relations Board dated the 10th of February 1995, the Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining agent of all employees of Carleton University in the City of Ottawa employed as

Contract Instructor(s), save and except retired academic staff and professional librarians who, prior to their retirement, had an academic position at Carleton University, and employees in bargaining units for whom any trade Union held bargaining rights as of November 24, 1994.

- 3.2 Employees shall not be required or permitted to make a written or oral agreement with the Employer which conflicts with the terms of this agreement.

 - (d) generally to manage and operate Carleton University.

ARTICLE 5 - TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

- 5.2 The Employer shall notify the Union and affected employees at least sixty (60) days prior to the implementation of significant change(s) to method(s) of course delivery arising out of technological change.

ARTICLE 6 - HEALTH & SAFETY

- 6.1
- (a) The Employer shall comply with the Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.O.1 as amended from time to time.
 - (b) The parties shall co-operate in establishing rules and practices which promote the safety and health of employees.
 - (c) No employee shall be required to act, nor shall any employee act in the course of their employment, in a manner which constitutes a health or safety hazard.

- (e) The Employer shall maintain a Joint Health and Safety Committee in accordance with the Occupational Health and Safety Act of Ontario. CUPE 4600 (Unit 2) shall appoint one (1) member of the bargaining unit to the Joint Health and Safety Committee.
- (f) All time spent by a CUPE 4600 (Unit 2) member of the Joint Health and Safety Committee as is necessary to carry out the member's duties under the Occupational Health and Safety Act shall be paid at the regular graduate student hourly rate of pay provided in Article 23.01 in the Teaching Assistant Collective Agreement between Carleton University and CUPE Local 4600 Unit 1.

6.2 The Employer recognizes a responsibility to provide an environment intended to protect the health, safety and security of employees as they carry out their responsibilities. The Employer shall establish and maintain reasonable measures and procedures for this purpose which shall include training for employees. In return, individual employees shall assume an appropriate responsibility to respect and assist in the implementation of rules adopted to protect the health, safety and security of employees and the Union will so encourage its members to do so.

6.3 Compliance Training

This includes all training (herein after referred to as compliance training) provided by the employer as mandated by legislation. Compliance training refers to any training mandated by federal or provincial legislation.

Such compliance training currently includes but is not limited to:

- Workplace Violence and Harassment training;

Where possible the University will endeavor to meaningfully consult with the union concerning matters related to the development and/or implementation of compliance training.

ARTICLE 7 - EMPLOYER/UNION RELATIONS

Union Dues

7.1 The Employer shall deduct from the monthly pay of all employees an amount equal to the monthly Union dues as established from time to time by the Union, the structure of which shall not require deductions that are not compatible with the University payroll system, and shall remit such amounts to the office designated by the Union by the 15th day of the following month. The remittance shall be accompanied by a statement listing the name, department and, the home address and telephone number of each employee and the amount deducted from each employee.

- 7.2 The Union shall indemnify and save harmless the Employer from any claims which may be made against it by an employee as a result of the deduction or non-deduction of Union dues.
- 7.3 The Employer shall indicate on each employee's income tax slip the amount of the deductions under this Article for the preceding calendar year.

Correspondence and Notice

- 7.4 All correspondence between the parties arising out of this Agreement shall be sent to the designated representative of the Employer and the office of the Union.
- 7.5 Where this agreement requires written notice to be delivered, delivery through the Employer's internal mail shall be deemed sufficient.

University Facilities

- 7.6 Upon request from the Union, the Employer will provide a furnished office to the Union at the standard rate and in accordance with relevant space guidelines and policies as established from time to time. The Union will be provided with a telephone and high-speed internet connections and will reimburse the University for all associated costs.
- 7.7 The Employer shall allow the Union to make use of the following facilities at the Internal fee which currently exists or which may be established from time to time:
 - (a) photocopying and graphic services,
 - (b) internal postal service,

 - (d) computer facilities, for internal use only, and
 - (e) 1 bulletin board and space on departmental boards for the posting of official Union notices.
- 7.8 The Employer shall permit the Union to book University rooms for Union meetings, subject to the prevailing internal regulations.
- 7.9 Members holding an executive position in the Union or any elected position on a university committee will be credited 0.5 seniority points per semester that they hold that position.

Information

- 7.10 The Employer shall provide to the Union such information as is agreed to be necessary for the purposes of collective bargaining or the administration of the agreement. The Employer shall not be required to compile information or statistics if such data are not already compiled in the form requested. The Employer shall also provide to the Union a copy of the University Budget.
- 7.11 The Employer shall provide the Union with a list of all courses taught by retired faculty, with their names.
- 7.12 When a written formal offer of employment is made, the Employer will advise each prospective employee that this Agreement exists, that it can be found on both the Employer and Union Web Sites, and will provide a brief description of the Union. It is understood that the Union shall supply the Employer with such description. The Employer will provide employees a link to a document entitled "Highlights of the Collective Agreement". The content of the Highlights document must be agreed by the Joint Committee for the Administration of the Agreement. Employees shall be provided with a hard copy of the Collective Agreement upon request.
- 7.13 Wherever possible, committee meetings shall be scheduled to accommodate the classroom commitments of committee members.
- 7.14 The Employer agrees to link to both the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement and the CUPE 4600 website on the human resources webpage.

- (b) The session shall be delivered once per year by representatives from Carleton University and CUPE 4600 (Unit 2). The session shall be delivered at a venue that would ensure maximum attendance by those directly involved in the hiring process.
- (c) Information and data gathered during such sessions shall be used to constructively work towards improvements in our understanding of the operation of the current Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 8 - JOINT COMMITTEE FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE AGREEMENT (JCAA)

- 8.1 A JCAA composed of 4 representatives of each party shall be established within 14 days of the signing of this agreement.

- 8.2 The purpose of the JCAA is to provide a forum for discussion of matters pertinent to the operation of the agreement or other matters of interest to both parties and to perform such other functions as may be assigned to it by this agreement or by the parties to this agreement.
- 8.3 The parties agree that any change contemplated by Carleton University that impacts either the working conditions of Contract Instructors, or the overall teaching environment at Carleton University, and which is brought to CUASA for discussion, will be brought to the JCAA for meaningful consultation with the Union prior to being implemented.
- 8.4 The JCAA shall meet as necessary, but normally at least once a month. Meetings may be called by either party on 5 days written notice or by mutual consent. A quorum shall consist of 2 representatives of each party.
- 8.5 Minutes of meetings shall be taken. The minutes so recorded shall be reviewed for approval at the next meeting of the JCAA.
- 8.6 The parties agree to refer the matter of participation by contract instructors in University governance at the level of the department, faculty, Senate, and Board of Governors to the JCAA.

ARTICLE 9 – DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

- 9.1 The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination, harassment, interference, restriction, or coercion exercised or practised with respect to any member of the bargaining unit in any matter concerning working conditions, or the application of the provisions of this Agreement by reason of any of the prohibited grounds listed in the Ontario Human Rights Code (age, race, creed, colour, ethnic origin, record of offences, citizenship, ancestry, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, family status or marital status, place of origin), political or religious affiliations or beliefs, or by reason of their non-membership or activity in the Union nor by the employee's exercise of any right or provision under this Agreement.

The Employer shall not restrict the employment of anyone on the basis of disability, provided that such disability does not interfere with their ability to meet the requirements of the job. Where practicable, attempts shall be made to adjust employment requirements to accommodate the person's disability.

- 9.2 The Employer and the Union recognize the rights of employees to work in an environment free from harassment and acknowledge their responsibilities to take all reasonable and appropriate actions to foster such an environment.

Harassment means engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker in a workplace that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome.

Harassment can be psychological, verbal or physical or it can be a combination of these. It is any behaviour, whether deliberate or negligent, which denies individuals their dignity and respect, is offensive, embarrassing or humiliating to the individual and adversely affects the working environment. It may take the form of excluding an employee from rights or privileges related to their employment and to which they are otherwise entitled.

9.3 Complaint Process

- (a) The Employer and the Union agree that all employees of the University are responsible to adhere to the University's policies on human rights as well as those on the prevention of workplace/sexual violence and workplace/sexual harassment.
- (b) Any complaint of harassment may also be grieved using the procedures set out in Article 13 of the agreement.
- (c) Where the respondent to the complaint is the person who would normally deal with any of the steps of the grievance, the grievance shall automatically be sent forward to the next step.
- (d) A copy of the following documents shall be retained on the University website; in Human Resources; and in the Union Office:
 - Carleton University's Human Rights Policies and Procedures (including such Discrimination and Harassment Policies as the Sexual Harassment Prevention Policy at Part IV s.4);
 - Carleton's Workplace Harassment Prevention Policy;
 - Carleton's Workplace Harassment Prevention Program;
 - Carleton's Workplace Violence Prevention Policy;
 - Carleton's Workplace Violence Prevention Program;
 - Carleton's Environmental Health and Safety Policy;
 - Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy

The Employer will ensure that the above documents are provided electronically to the Union Office.

- 9.4 (a) The parties formally recognize their obligations under the Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act and Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities Act, in particular with relation to the prevention of sexual violence and sexual harassment in the workplace.
- (b) Sexual harassment is defined as:
- (i) engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker in a workplace because of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression, where the course of comment or conduct is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome, or
 - (ii) making a sexual solicitation or advance where the person making the solicitation or advance is in a position to confer, grant or deny a benefit or advancement to the worker and the person knows or ought reasonably to know that the solicitation or advance is unwelcome;
- (c) Sexual violence means any sexual act or act targeting a person's sexuality, gender identity or gender expression, whether the act is physical or psychological in nature, that is committed, threatened or attempted against a person without the person's consent, and includes sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, indecent exposure, voyeurism and sexual exploitation.
- 9.5 (a) On receipt of a complaint of sexual and/or gender harassment, the Employer will advise any involved employee of their right to Union representation at any stage of the complaint. The Employer will follow university policies and procedures to address the complaint.
- (b) If an employee, supported by the Union, chooses not to pursue a complaint through Carleton University's Sexual Violence Policy and instead seeks an informal resolution with the respondent, the Employer (through Human Resources) will, where possible, facilitate this process in cooperation with the Union.

ARTICLE 10- ACADEMIC FREEDOM: RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

- 10.1 The parties agree neither to infringe nor abridge the academic freedom of the members. Academic freedom is the right of reasonable exercise of civil liberties and responsibilities in an academic setting. As such it protects each member's freedom to disseminate their opinion both inside and outside the classroom, to practice their profession as teacher and scholar, to carry out such scholarly and teaching activities as they believe will contribute to and disseminate knowledge, and to express and disseminate the results of their scholarly activities in a reasonable manner, to select, acquire, disseminate and use documents in the exercise of their professional responsibilities, without interference from the Employer, its agents, or any outside bodies. All the above mentioned activities are to be conducted with due and proper regard for the academic freedom of others and without contravening the provisions of this agreement. Academic freedom does not require neutrality on the part of the member, but rather makes commitment possible. However, academic freedom does not confer legal immunity, nor does it diminish the obligations of members to meet their duties and responsibilities.

- 10.2 If a bargaining unit member asks that some of their own books be placed on library reserve, the Employer cannot reject them based on moral, religious or political values.
- 10.3 Notwithstanding any other provisions of Article 10, the Employer reserves the right to specify what textbooks are to be used in order to conform to published course descriptions, to match parallel sections of a course, to meet prerequisites required for other courses or to meet academic objectives of the academic unit.
- 10.4 The parties recognize that the common good of society depends upon the free and open exchange of ideas. The prime role of employees shall be to disseminate knowledge and understanding through teaching. Employees are not required to engage in scholarly activities other than as necessary for the performance of their teaching duties.
- 10.5 All employees shall have the following rights and responsibilities:
 - (a) Subject to the provisions of this article, employees shall have the right and responsibility to organize and structure classroom and laboratory activities within the limits set by curriculum requirements and available facilities and to adopt reasonable means to maintain a learning environment which is both productive and orderly.
 - (b) Employees shall teach conscientiously and competently the course(s) assigned to them, in accordance with course outlines which may be provided by their department.
 - (c) Employees shall work in co-operation with course co-ordinators.
 - (d) Employees shall deal ethically and fairly with students, foster a free exchange of ideas, avoid discrimination and harassment, respect the principles of confidentiality in a manner consistent with their instructional role, and provide their students with information in the course outline regarding their instructional and evaluation methods.
 - (e) Employees shall be conscientious in the preparation and organization of subject matter and in the revision of that subject matter to reflect changes in the field, in accordance with appropriate departmental guidance.
 - (f) Employees shall not normally miss, cancel or terminate scheduled instruction except in the case of sudden illness or emergency and even in such cases shall make every effort to have their chairperson and students notified. In other circumstances, subject to the approval of the chairperson, arrangements for re-scheduling or for a substitute must be made in advance of missing scheduled instruction. Instruction missed shall be re-scheduled if possible with adequate notice to the students. When an unauthorized absence occurs, the Employer shall invite the employee to a meeting for the purpose of providing the employee an opportunity to explain the reason(s) for the absence. The Union shall be informed of the meeting prior to its being held and the employee shall be told of their right to have union representation at the meeting. If as a result of the meeting, the Employer determines that an unauthorized absence occurred without a sudden illness, emergency, reasonable cause, or other mitigating factors, the Employer may, in its reasonable discretion, impose disciplinary measures up to and including termination of the course contract. Where termination is imposed, the associated seniority points shall not be awarded.

- (g) Employees shall comply with established procedures and deadlines for providing course outlines and for reporting and reviewing the grades of their students, and with other reasonable procedures and deadlines as may be necessary for the well-ordered operation of the University. This may include responsibilities for academic counseling, assisting in supervision of their course examinations, and setting and grading deferred examinations as required. Apart from deferred examinations and minor administrative tasks, employees will not be required to perform teaching related duties outside the periods of employment specified in their contracts.
- (h) Employees shall inform the students and department of the times when and/or the methods by which they will normally be available for consultation. The times and/or methods shall be such as are likely to be convenient for the students and adequate for the numbers of students involved.

10.6 The Employer acknowledges a continuing responsibility to maintain a climate in which the teaching functions of employees may be effectively carried out, and undertakes to provide employees with reasonable opportunity to carry out their responsibilities effectively.

ARTICLE 11 - DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

- 11.1 The Employer shall not discipline, suspend or discharge an employee without just and proper cause. Disciplinary action shall be reasonable and shall be demonstrably proportionate to the seriousness of the specific violation. Where the Employer cancels a course at any time prior to the third scheduled class because of insufficient enrolment, the position is thereby terminated and such termination does not contravene this Article.
- 11.2 An employee shall have the right to have a Union representative present, at any meeting between the representative of the Employer and the employee called expressly to impose discipline or discharge. Where such a meeting is to be called, the department head shall notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the meeting and of the employee's right to Union representation.

Notwithstanding the above, where a Union representative is not available within two (2) working days of notification of the employee, the Employer shall be entitled to conduct the meeting in the absence of the Union representative.

- 11.3 When an employee is suspended or discharged, the suspension or discharge shall be confirmed in writing to the employee with a copy to the Union stating the reasons for the discipline, within 3 working days. A copy of any written reprimand shall set out the reasons for the reprimand and shall also be provided to the Union within 3 working days.
- 11.4 An employee who has been suspended or discharged may, with the support of the Union, present a grievance directly at Step 2 of the grievance procedure within ten (10) working days of receipt of written notice of suspension or discharge.

ARTICLE 12 - CONFIDENTIALITY & ACCESS TO PERSONNEL FILES

- 12.1 The parties agree that this Article is intended to be consistent with the University's Policy on Privacy and Freedom of Information.
- 12.2 (a) An employee shall have the right to examine the contents of the employee's personnel file(s) during normal business hours, with the exception of confidential letters of reference. The employee may request and the Employer shall provide the names of authors of such confidential letters.
- (b) Except for confidential letters of reference and student teaching evaluations, no material on the employee's file related to the employee's performance shall be used in a hiring decision unless the employee has been notified that it has been placed on the file.
- 12.3 An employee shall have the right to have the Employer prepare, at reasonable intervals and at the employee's expense, a copy of the non-confidential items in the employee's personnel file(s).

12.4 Letter of Reprimand

Subject to Article 12.5, where a letter of reprimand is being added to an employee's file, the employee must, where possible, be notified and required to read and initial the letter. In the event of alleged distortion or error, the employee may request the inclusion of material pertinent to the alleged distortion or error.

In the event of an error being established, the file shall be corrected and any erroneous material removed. Provided that there has been no subsequent disciplinary action taken against the employee, all documents relating to a disciplinary action shall be removed from an employee's file:

- (a) 18 months from the date the disciplinary action was recorded in the file; or
- (b) where the employee has taught the equivalent of one full credit: whichever occurs first.

12.5 Student Comment on Employee File

Where the Employer places a signed student comment on an employee's file,

- (a) the student's name shall only be disclosed with the student's consent,
- (b) the employee shall be notified in writing of the substance of the comment to the extent possible without disclosing the identity of the student,
- (c) the employee shall be given an opportunity to place a comment or rebuttal on the file,
- (d) the material may not be used in a disciplinary action unless the student's name is disclosed to the employee,
- (e) if the student's name is disclosed after final grade reports, the employee shall be given a further opportunity to place a comment or rebuttal on the file, and
- (f) if the student's name is not disclosed to the employee, the comment, along with the employee's comment or rebuttal, shall be removed from the employee's file, following completion of final grade reports.

ARTICLE 13 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

13.1 Definition

A grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement.

The Union has carriage of the grievance. In order to file a grievance, an employee must have the approval of and be represented by the Union.

13.2 Union Representation

The Employer acknowledges the rights and duties of the Union Stewards and representatives to assist employees in presenting their grievances in accordance with the procedure. The Employer will recognize stewards designated by the Union, provided that the Union has notified the Employer in writing of the name of each steward, including the Chief Steward. Stewards shall be employees of the Employer.

A Steward shall obtain the permission of their Department Head before leaving their work to investigate complaints or grievances of an urgent nature, or to meet with the Employer to deal with these matters. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

13.3 Complaint Stage

An employee who feels aggrieved shall attempt to resolve the matter informally with their department head. Subject to Article 9.4(b) an Employee Grievance shall not be considered at Step 1 or higher unless it includes evidence of an attempt to resolve the matter at the complaint stage.

13.4 Types of Grievance

Employee Grievances

An employee grievance is a claim by an employee, who is solely affected, that the terms and conditions of this agreement have been violated, misapplied or misinterpreted.

Group Grievances

Any dispute affecting a group of employees which is taken up on their behalf by the Union constitutes a group grievance. A group grievance may be presented directly at Step 1 within 20 working days of the date when the circumstances giving rise to the grievance could reasonably have become known by the employees.

Union Grievances

A grievance arising directly between the Union and the Employer, which could not form the subject of an individual or group grievance, may be presented as a Union grievance directly at Step 2 within 20 working days of the date when the circumstances giving rise to the grievance could reasonably have become known by the Union.

- 13.5 (a) The Employer acknowledges the right of a representative of the Union to be present at all complaint and grievance meetings.
- (b) In all cases, a written response at each step shall be delivered to the Union.

13.6 STEP 1

An employee and Union representative may present a grievance in writing to the department head or their designate within 20 working days of the date when the circumstances giving rise to the grievance could reasonably have become known to the employee. The department head or their designate shall sign and date the form, and shall return a copy to the grievor. A copy shall be forwarded to the Manager, Labour Relations (Academic).

A grievance resolution meeting shall take place within 20 working days of the Employer's receipt of the grievance.

The grievance shall be answered in writing within 10 working days of the grievance resolution meeting.

STEP 2

If the employee is not satisfied with the response at Step 1, they and the Union representative may, not later than 10 working days after receipt of the decision, or if no decision was received, not later than 10 working days after the last day on which they were entitled to receive a decision, transmit the grievance, along with the Step 1 decision, if any, to the appropriate Dean or their designate, with a copy to the Manager, Labour Relations (Academic).

A grievance resolution meeting shall take place within 20 working days of the Employer's receipt of the grievance.

The grievance shall be answered in writing within 10 working days of the grievance resolution meeting.

If the grievance is not resolved, the Union may refer the grievance to arbitration.

13.7 TIME LIMITS

The time limits stipulated in the procedure may be extended by agreement between the Employer representative, and the Union representative. In exceptional circumstances, the Union may apply to the Manager, Labour Relations (Academic) for expedited processing of a grievance. If the Employer consents, or if the employer does not respond in a reasonable amount of time at the other steps, the grievance may be presented directly at Step 2.

Where an employee pursues a remedy under a Carleton University policy and procedure concerning sexual harassment and/or sexual violence, the time limits in this Article shall be held in abeyance. Any member who has experienced workplace sexual harassment and/or sexual violence shall have one year from the date that the incident or situation occurred to initiate a grievance.

For purposes of greater clarity, any employee who proceeds first in accordance with University policies ("Policy") related to sexual harassment and/or sexual violence does so without prejudice to all grievance protections under this Collective Agreement.

An employee shall be free to present a grievance at any time during the policy process (save and except where the employee has agreed to a mediated binding settlement). Further, where the process has completed, an employee who is dissatisfied with the outcome of the Policy process shall have 20 working days from the date the employee is advised of the conclusion/results of the Policy process to initiate a grievance as per the regular grievance process.

13.8 Binding Decisions

The parties shall be bound by and shall promptly implement all decisions arrived at under the procedures described in this article.

13.9 Withdrawal of Grievances

The withdrawal of a grievance by the Union at any step prior to the Union's referral to arbitration shall be without prejudice to grievances on similar matters provided the Union notifies the Employer in writing of its decision to withdraw the grievance without prejudice.

ARTICLE 14 - ARBITRATION

- 14.1 Either of the parties may, within 10 working days after the grievance procedure under Article 13 has been exhausted, notify the other party in writing of its desire to submit the grievance to arbitration. The notice referring a grievance to arbitration shall confirm the name of the first party's appointee to an arbitration board. The recipient of the notice shall, within 5 working days, inform the other party of the name of its appointee to the arbitration board. The 2 appointees so selected shall, within 5 working days of the appointment of the second of them, appoint a third person who shall be the chairperson. If the recipient of the notice fails to appoint an arbitrator, or if the 2 appointees fail to agree upon a chairperson within the time limit, the appointment shall be made by the Minister of Labour for Ontario upon the request of either party. The arbitration board shall hear and determine the grievance and shall issue a decision and that decision is final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it. The decision of a majority is the decision of the arbitration board, but, if there is no majority, the decision of the chairperson is the decision of the arbitration board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may select 1 person as an arbitrator to whom any such grievance may be submitted for arbitration and such person shall have the same powers and be subject to the same restrictions as a board of arbitration appointed under this agreement.
- 14.2 The arbitration board shall have no authority to add to, subtract from, change, alter or ignore in any way the provisions of this agreement or any expressly written amendment or supplement thereto or to extend its duration, or to make an award which has such effect unless the parties have expressly agreed, in writing, to give it specific authority to do so.
- 14.3 Where the grievance concerns discharge, suspension or disciplinary action, the board has the authority to reinstate an employee with or without compensation for wages and any other benefits lost, or to make any other award it may deem just and reasonable which is consistent with the terms of this agreement.

- 14.4 Each party shall bear the expenses of its representatives, participants and witnesses and of the preparation and presentation of its own case. The fees and expenses of the chairperson, the hearing room and any other expenses incidental to the arbitration hearing shall be borne equally by the parties. The parties agree to use University facilities whenever possible.
- 14.5 Time limits set out in this article may be extended by agreement in writing between the parties.
- 14.6 No grievance shall be deemed to be lost due to minor technical irregularities.

- 15.4 The Employer shall endeavour to make offers of employment sufficiently in advance of the commencement of the course to provide adequate time for preparation. An offer of employment is not valid unless it is signed by the Academic Department Head and the Dean. It becomes a contract when it is then signed by the employee.
- 15.5 Applicants shall reply in writing by email, fax, or priority post to be received by the department within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of an offer of employment.

ARTICLE 16 - HIRING, INCUMBENCY & SENIORITY

Hiring Process

- 16.1 Except as provided in Article 17, all positions shall be filled in accordance with this article.

- 16.2 (a) Department heads wishing to offer teaching to doctoral students or postdoctoral fellows must first contact the Dean to ascertain their allocation of such positions within the Faculty's limit of 17% (see Article 17.2).
- (b) Hiring of doctoral students and post-doctoral fellows under the provisions of Article 17, and of Visiting Scholars under the provisions of Article 16.3 (f), will be undertaken before Article 16.3 (d).
- 16.3 (a) Where a vacancy is posted and an applicant meets the incumbency criterion in Article 16.4 (a), the course shall be offered to the incumbent.
- (b) Where two (2) or more applicants have incumbency rights under Article 16.4 (a) and (b), the more senior employee shall be offered the course.
- (c) Where there are no incumbents, the Employer shall consider qualified members with seniority as outlined in Article 16.5 provided they have applied to that course in accordance with Article 15.3, before non-members. For the purposes of this Article, qualifications shall mean a candidate's academic and professional qualifications and skills, teaching competence and other relevant experience. When there are two or more qualified members and the qualifications of the candidates are relatively equal, the candidate with the greatest seniority shall be appointed. In the event that two or more qualified members hold relatively equal qualifications and the members hold an equal number of seniority points, the Academic Department Head shall appoint a candidate.
- (d) Employees shall be contacted indicating all of the courses for which they are the most senior incumbent and/or qualified member with the most seniority. If the course has multiple sections, the most senior incumbent should be offered all sections. If the number of courses offered is over the allowed limit of 2 credits in the fall/winter terms or will put an employee over the 3 credit limit for the academic year, the employee shall be asked to choose which courses and sections they will teach.
- (e) Where there are no incumbents or qualified members with seniority rights, the hiring is open to outside applicants. The best available candidate shall be appointed, taking into account the candidates' academic and professional qualifications, skill, teaching competence and other relevant experience.
- (f) Where a person who has been appointed as a Visiting Scholar is available to teach a course, the Employer may offer the position to that person without a competition. Where a Visiting Scholar is assigned to a course for which at least one employee has incumbency and is displaced by such an appointment, the employee who is the most senior incumbent shall be offered another available position for which they are qualified and most senior. If no such position is available, the employee will be credited with the seniority point for that course.

Incumbency

- 16.4 (a) Where an applicant is a member of the bargaining unit and has previously taught the course for which they are applying or an equivalent course within the last sixty (60) months, provided their teaching score(s) in the course is/are satisfactory in accordance with Article 18 (Teaching Evaluations), the course must be offered to the employee in writing. An employee shall not be disqualified from such employment until all steps outlined in Article 18.3 are fulfilled. Unsatisfactory teaching evaluations which are more than four (4) years old shall not be considered. The Employer may refuse to offer the position to the employee where such refusal is part of a disciplinary action subject to the provisions of Article 11 (Discipline and Discharge).
- (b) Where a member's first teaching evaluation is still forthcoming, the Department Head shall treat a candidate as an incumbent.
- (c) Where two (2) or more incumbents have taught the course or an equivalent course within the last sixty (60) months, the employee with the greatest seniority shall be appointed.

Seniority

- 16.5 For the purposes of this article seniority means the number of full course equivalents that the candidate has taught as a Contract Instructor at the University since September 1, 1994. Seniority ceases if the employee has not worked as a Contract Instructor for 24 months. This period shall be extended by any period for which the employee was on approved leave under this agreement, served on the Executive Board of the Union or was employed as a full time Academic staff member at Carleton.
- 16.6 Where a current employee is applying for a position for a subsequent term, they shall, for the purposes of that application, be credited with seniority for the current term.
- 16.7 Seniority must be considered at the time of hiring, not at the time of course commencement. For example, where an employee applies for a course that starts on January 1, 2013 and the employee's seniority ceases on December 31, 2012, the employee's seniority points must be considered in the hiring decision.
- 16.8 The Employer shall provide the Union with a Seniority List of all bargaining unit members. The seniority list will be posted on the Human Resources Web Site, and shall be updated each term by the end of the second month of the following term. The Employer and the Union shall notify the members of the existence of the list on the Web Site. Ensuring the accuracy of individual seniority points as included in the posted seniority list is the purview and responsibility of each employee. Where seniority has ceased as per Article 16.5, and an employee has not worked as a Contract Instructor for 36 months or longer, their name shall be removed from the Seniority List.

NEED WITHIN TEN (10) WEEKS OF THE START OF CLASS

- 16.9 (a) Where the need for a Contract Instructor position arises within ten (10) weeks of the first day of classes, the Employer may fill the position without re-posting the course in accordance with Article 15.2. Notice of this practice shall be given to the Union within one (1) week of the decision to use the clause.
- (b) In such cases, the Employer shall offer the course to the most senior incumbent. If the most senior incumbent is unavailable, then the Employer shall offer the course to the next most senior incumbent pursuant to the Seniority List (see 16.8) until the pool of incumbents in the course is exhausted.
- (c) Where there are no incumbents, the Employer shall consider qualified members with seniority as outlined in 16.5 before non-members. For the purposes of this article, qualifications shall mean a candidate's academic and professional qualifications and skills, teaching competence and other relevant experience. Where there are two or more qualified members and the qualifications of the candidates are relatively equal, the candidate with the greatest seniority shall be appointed.
- (d) Where there are no incumbents or qualified members with seniority, the employer may fill the position without re-posting and without a competition.
- (e) If an applicant is offered a course under this Article, they shall reply in writing by email, fax, or priority post to be received by the department within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of an offer of employment.
- 16.10 Where a person has designed a new course not previously listed in the Calendar, the Employer shall offer the position to that person without a competition the first time the course is to be given. Where the course is not offered in the first year after it is designed, the department and the employee shall agree on suitable compensation for the design work. If they cannot agree, the matter shall be referred to JCAA. Any such agreements shall be without prejudice and shall not establish a precedent.
- 16.11 The Employer shall advise the Union of any positions filled without a competition pursuant to this Article.
- 16.12 Each department shall post a list of all Contract Instructors of record in the department.
- 16.13 Human Resources shall develop a list of all Contract Instructors per course, along with a list that indicates whether the Contract Instructor was hired due to incumbency, incumbency with the most seniority, seniority, an Article 17 appointment, a Visiting Scholar (Instructor) appointment or open competition. Any questions or concerns regarding the generation of this list will be dealt with at JCAA. These lists will be sent to CUPE 4600-2 on a monthly basis.

ARTICLE 17 - APPOINTMENTS OF DOCTORAL STUDENTS, AND POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWS

- 17.1 At its discretion, the Employer may offer Contract Instructor(s) duties to registered doctoral students, and postdoctoral fellows without competition, subject to the following provisions.
- 17.2 The total number of credits taught by doctoral students and postdoctoral fellows under this Article shall not exceed 17% of all credits taught by Contract Instructors in each Faculty in the preceding year.
- 17.3 An employee who has been assigned Contract Instructor(s) duties pursuant to this Article will accrue seniority in accordance with Article 16; however, such seniority cannot be used until after the employee has won a position pursuant to Article 16.
- 17.4 No doctoral student or postdoctoral fellow may be assigned more than a lifetime maximum of two (2) credits (or equivalent) under this article.
- 17.5 Once a position has been posted for open competition, no appointment shall be made pursuant to Article 17.
- 17.6 Where a doctoral student or postdoctoral fellow is assigned to a course for which at least one employee has incumbency, the employee who is the most senior incumbent shall be offered another available position for which they are qualified and most senior. If no such position is available, the employee will be credited with seniority for the course.
- 17.7 Displacement of employees who have incumbency shall not exceed 1.5 full courses (or equivalent) in any one department in any year.
- 17.8 The Employer shall report to the Union the name of the student contract instructor or postdoctoral fellow and the course taught for any course that is assigned to a doctoral student or postdoctoral fellow pursuant to this Article. The Employer shall maintain a record of the number of courses taught by each doctoral student, or postdoctoral fellow pursuant to this Article.
- 17.9 Where a person who has been appointed as a visiting scholar has previously been employed as a contract instructor under this agreement, their hiring will be governed by Article 16 unless there is demonstrable evidence of an employment change leading to the Visiting Scholar appointment.

- 17.10 In order to ensure that seniority points are awarded as outlined in Article 17.6, the courses being assigned under this Article must be posted under a separate heading on the course postings. The posting will contain a notice stating that the following courses have been assigned to doctoral students, post-doctoral fellows, or visiting scholars, and therefore are not open for applications. The department will contact the most senior incumbent to review their rights under Article 17.6 of the CUPE 4600-2 Collective Agreement.
- 17.11 Every doctoral student appointed under this Article shall be notified in writing that, should they wish a leave from duties from their existing teaching assistant assignment, they must fill out a leave from duties form, subject to the applicable terms of the agreement between the Employer and CUPE 4600-1.

ARTICLE 18 - TEACHING EVALUATIONS

The response rate in any course shall be determined by dividing the number reported in the "number of respondents" (# Resp) column by the number reported in the "enrolment" (Enrl.) column on the Retrospective Teaching Evaluation Report produced by the OIRP.

Where the response rate in any course falls below fifteen percent (15%), the teaching evaluation score for that course shall be deemed anomalous.

Where the teaching evaluation score in any course falls below 4.0, or below the department average as calculated by the Office of Institutional

Research and Planning (OIRP), whichever is lower, the Academic department head shall discuss the circumstances with the employee, in order to determine whether the evaluation was anomalous or whether an action plan is required.

Where the Academic department head determines that an action plan is required, such a plan shall be developed, in consultation with the employee, and the Academic departmental head may require that support be put in place to assist the employee that may include, among other things, advice and assistance from the Educational Development Centre or from peers.

The Academic department head may also require that a supplemental peer evaluation be undertaken as part of the action plan. If a member of the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 bargaining unit is requested to undertake this peer evaluation, and agrees to do so, an honorarium of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) will be paid to that person.

Where an employee receives a second teaching evaluation score below 4.0 or below the department average as calculated by the Office of Institutional Research and Planning (OIRP), whichever is lower, in a course for which an action plan has been developed for that employee not more than four years previously, the evaluation may be used as evidence of unsatisfactory teaching and the employee may be disqualified from that course at the discretion of the Dean in consultation with the Academic department head.

- (b) The action plan must be in writing and signed by the Chair or Director and the employee. This may be done electronically if appropriate.

18.3 The data from all courses shall be compiled to determine department, faculty and University norms as required.

CARLETON UNIVERSITY (the University)

And

CUPE Local 4600-2 Contract Instructors (the Union)

Re: Trial Multi-Term Agreements

THE PARTIES AGREE, without prejudice and precedent to any similar or other matter, as follows:

1. The University will undertake a trial of Multi-Term Agreements (MTAs), for Contract Instructors that is course-specific, commencing September 2017. For added clarity, each MTA will be for one particular course (e.g. ECON 1000).
2. The University commits to posting a minimum of 15 and up to a maximum of 20 MTAs for September 2017 and a minimum of 15 and up to a maximum of an additional 20 MTAs for September 2018. Each MTA shall be for a duration of not more than two (2) years.
3. The decision to make a specific course subject to an MTA is entirely at the discretion of the Dean, who must commit to the funding. Such decisions are not grievable.
4. As an MTA is course-specific, individual employees may hold more than one (1) MTA at a time, but under no circumstances may an employee exceed a teaching maximum of 2.0 credits in the fall/winter terms or 3.0 credits in any academic year.
5. MTAs will be posted as per Article 15 (Postings and Applications), and will identify:
 - i) in which terms the course will be offered as part of the MTA;
 - ii) the total number of sections being offered as part of the MTA.
6. The hiring process for MTAs shall be governed by Article 16 (Hiring, Incumbency and Seniority).
7. Course sections assigned through MTAs are subject to evaluation in accordance with Article 18 (Teaching Evaluation).
8. The University may not terminate an MTA except for cause, or for any of the following:

- i) because the course will not be offered;
 - ii) for reasons of academic restructuring;
 - iii) as a result of budgetary restraints (including course enrollment decisions);
 - iv) as a result of an employee's failure to maintain credentials, certifications or qualifications identified as a requirement in the job posting;
9. When a course subject to an MTA is replaced by a renamed, renumbered or revised version of what is substantially the same course, the MTA extends to this new course.
10. Where an employee is unavailable to teach an assigned course section in an MTA due to illness, maternity leave or parental leave, the remainder of the MTA is unaffected.
11. Course scheduling is done at the sole discretion of the University in accordance with Article 4 (Management Rights). Where an employee is unavailable to teach any assigned course section in an MTA due to scheduling or availability, they will be deemed to have forfeited that course section of the MTA.
12. Where an employee is unavailable to teach, or forfeits a course section in an MTA, they will not be eligible for:
- i) remuneration for that course section of the MTA;
 - ii) an alternate assignment to make up for that course section of the MTA;
 - iii) an extension of the duration of the MTA.

This letter constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the MTAs. There are no other representations or warranties except as incorporated in this letter.
