The recipient of the notice shall within five (5) days inform the other party of the name of its appointee to the arbitration board. The arbitration board shall hear and determine the difference or allegation, and shall issue a decision. The written decision of the arbitration board is final and binding upon the parties and upon any Employee affected by it. The decision of a majority of the arbitration board is the decision of the board. Failing a majority decision, the decision of the chairperson governs.

11.02 The Board of Arbitration shall have no authority to add to, subtract from, modify, change, alter or ignore in any way the provisions of this Agreement or any expressly written amendment or supplement thereto or to extend its duration, or to make an award which has such effect unless the parties have expressly agreed, in writing, to give it specific authority to do so.

11.03 In the event that a Board of Arbitration deals with a matter relating to discharge, suspension or disciplinary action, then the board has the authority to reinstate an employee with or without compensation for wages and any other benefits lost, or to make any other award it may deem just and reasonable which would be consistent with the terms of the Agreement.

11.04 Each party shall bear the expenses of its representatives, participants and witnesses and for the preparation and presentation of its own case. The fees and expenses of the Chairperson, the hearing room and any other expenses incidental to the Arbitration Hearing shall be borne equally by the parties. The parties agree to use University facilities whenever possible.

11.05 Time limits set out in this article may be extended by agreement in writing between the parties.

ARTICLE 12: DISCIPLINE, SUSPENSION & DISCHARGE

12.01 The Employer shall not discipline, suspend or discharge an employee except for just cause.

12.02 Any discipline against a union member must be made to the employee in person, where practicable. The Employer agrees to inform the employee concerned that a representative of the union, if readily available, may attend any meeting between the Employer and the employee at which a disciplinary action is taken.

When an employee is suspended or discharged, such suspension or discharge shall be confirmed in writing to the employee, with a copy to the Union as soon as possible, but no later than three (3) working days. A copy of any written reprimand will also be provided to the Union as soon as possible, but no later than three (3) working days.

12.03 An employee who has been suspended or discharged may, with the support of the Union, present a grievance directly to Step Two of the grievance procedure within ten (10) working days of receipt of the written notice.

12.04 An employee shall not be disciplined or given a negative performance evaluation for introducing supplementary materials, theoretical concepts or methods of presentation, the use of which is not inconsistent with any reasonable instructions of the Supervisor.

12.05 The University’s discipline policy with respect to members of the bargaining unit shall be included in the Personnel Manual; a copy of the manual shall be provided to the Union, and copies shall be available in departmental offices.

ARTICLE 13: APPOINTMENTS

13.01 a) An application form for employment shall be distributed with each application form for admission to the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Affairs at Carleton University. Further, each Department shall post notices informing current students of the availability of application forms for employment. The notices shall be posted by January 15 of each year. The Employer will make reasonable efforts to send a copy of the notice by February 1 to the University address of each full time graduate student holding a regular position. The notices shall also specify the date upon which the initial employment decisions shall be made.

b) Deadline for applications for positions during the Spring Term, and the Fall and Winter Terms, shall be March 1. Appointments shall not be made prior to this date.

c) The Employer shall post in each department by February 1 a list of all courses in that department for which teaching assistants were employed in that academic year.
d) An employee with priority for reappointment pursuant to Article 13.04 will be deemed to have applied for reappointment to the extent of their priority for the next academic year.

13.02 Each Department's application form shall specify/contain:

a) that application does not ensure employment;

b) the date(s) upon which employment decisions will be made;

c) the classes of employment available (such as, but not limited to teaching assistantships, research assistantships, contract instructorships, marking, demonstrating, and service assistantships);

d) a description of the duties of jobs in each class;

e) the particular areas, subjects, and/or levels within each class;

f) sufficient space for applicants to indicate a preference as to c) and;

g) sufficient space for applicants to cite reasons for their preference and factors which may bear on the decision including academic qualifications and relevant work experience;

h) where applicable, other departments which have traditionally hired students from the applicant's department.

13.03 A Department or Supervisor may establish reasonable prerequisites which an employee must meet in order to work in a particular course or job and determine whether those prerequisites have been met before the employee becomes eligible to work in the course.

13.04 Priority

a) An employee who is registered as a full-time student in a graduate degree program and who has held a regular position in the bargaining unit for at least one term shall have, subject to satisfactory performance of the duties of the position(s) s/he has held, priority for appointment to available regular positions for which the employee is qualified. This priority shall apply for the following periods, or until completion of the program of study, whichever occurs first, including the period of first appointment:

- Ph.D. Student – ten (10) terms over five (5) consecutive calendar years;

- Ph.D. Student entering that program directly from a Bachelor's degree program – twelve (12) terms over six (6) consecutive calendar years;
- Master’s Student, eight (8) and above credit programs – six (6) terms over three (3) consecutive calendar years;

- Master’s Student – four (4) terms over five (5) consecutive terms.

A PhD. student shall neither be credited nor charged with any period of service accumulated while registered in a Master’s degree program.

b) Where an employee who is a full-time graduate student cannot accept an assistantship pursuant to Article 13.04 a) because:

i) the student is off campus performing academic research or on an academic exchange; or

ii) the student is on an approved medical leave from duties without pay in accordance with Article 22.11;

With the approval of the Dean of Graduate and Postdoctoral Affairs, the number of consecutive terms or calendar years as set out in Article 13.04 a) shall be extended by the number of terms the student is off-campus, up to a maximum of three (3) consecutive terms.

c) The employee may waive the extension of priority under this Article, subject to the approval of the J.C.C.

d) Subject to Article 22.11, where an employee who is a full-time graduate student declines an appointment to an assistantship during a fall or winter term pursuant to Article 13.04 a) and has not been granted a leave from duties without pay by the Dean of Graduate and Postdoctoral Affairs, the priority for reappointment as set out in Article 13.04 a) shall be forfeit and the employee shall be deemed to have resigned his/her employment.

e) For the Fall and Winter terms, where there are insufficient regular positions available for all eligible employees in the priority pool (Article 13.04 a), and where two (2) or more competing applicants with priority are qualified to perform the duties of the available regular position(s), seniority shall be the determining factor.

f) For the purposes of paragraph e) above, seniority within the priority pool shall mean the number of terms in which the employee held a regular position with the Employer.

g) Where a qualified international student with priority for reappointment applies for a summer position, s/he shall be appointed if his/her qualities are equal to the best available other candidate with priority for reappointment.

h) Effective May 1, 1998, where an international student is appointed pursuant to g) above, the appointments shall not count towards the total number of positions for which the employee has priority for reappointment, and the employee shall have priority, subject to the total limits in Article 13.04 a), for available positions in the subsequent Fall and Winter terms.

i) An applicant for an initial appointment who is in the second or subsequent year of his/her degree program may waive priority for reappointment under Article 13.04 a) for a period of up to and including the period s/he was registered in the degree program prior to the commencement of the appointment.

j) Subject to 13.04 a) above, Ph.D. students shall be credited and charged on a pro-rata basis with any period of service accumulated while registered in a Ph.D. program, determined by the number of credits transferred to the new program of study, rounded up to the nearest term.

k) Subject to 13.04 a) above, Masters students shall be credited and charged on a pro-rata basis with any period of service accumulated while registered in a Masters program, determined by the number of credits transferred to the new program of study, rounded up to the nearest term.

l) Article 13.04 a) shall not apply to an employee hired on a temporary basis to replace an employee on leave or an employee who cannot fulfill their duties by providing teaching assistance in accordance with Article 22.11. Any employee hired on a temporary basis for replacement purposes shall not have priority for appointment unless they have been requested to work as a temporary replacement for more than 130 hours. Employees hired as temporary replacements for more than 130 hours shall have priority on a pro-rated basis subject to the overall limits set in Article 13.04 a). For the purposes of this Article, prorated priority shall mean that such employees shall not have priority for the period s/he was registered in the degree program prior to the commencement of the appointment. Hours worked as a temporary replacement employee shall be included in the calculation of priority eligibility.

m) Where an employee is appointed to a third position as a teaching assistant in one academic year, the third appointment shall count towards the total number of positions for which the employee has priority for reappointment. The third appointment will be deducted from the total number of positions for which the employee has priority at the end of their priority period eligibility and the employee shall have priority, subject to the total limits in Article 13.04 a), for available positions in the subsequent terms.

13.05 Whereas unpredictable fluctuations in enrolment preclude the establishment in advance of the precise number of positions to be filled, successful applicants will be advised in writing on their initial appointments as early as possible.

13.06 a) The Employer shall endeavour to accommodate preferences of applicants with respect to the type of position and, for teaching assistants, the type of courses to be assigned. At any time prior to the making of specific assignments, the Employer, at the request of an employee, shall meet with the employee to discuss the employee's preferences. After the initial assignment has been made, if the employee is not satisfied with the assignment, s/he may within one week of notification of the assignment request a meeting with the department head or his/her delegate to discuss the matter. An employee may be accompanied by a union representative, if readily available, at each meeting with the department head or his/her delegate.

b) Subject to operational requirements, the Employer will endeavour to accommodate a request from an Employee not to be assigned to a work Supervisor who is also the student's principal thesis or honours research paper Supervisor. 13.07 Departments which normally establish positions having an average of five (5) hours or less of work per week shall continue their practice of equitably distributing such positions among available qualified applicants.

13.08 a) Where a position becomes redundant during the course of the academic session, the Employer may assign other duties to the employees. It is understood that such duties may be unrelated to the duties of the redundant position. The employer shall endeavour to ensure that the duties are consistent with the employee's previous service with the Employer.

b) If the employee refuses to accept such assignment, s/he shall be deemed to have resigned his/her position.

c) If the employer is unable to assign other duties, the employee may be laid off. A laid off employee may elect to displace an employee with less seniority, provided that the employee is qualified to perform the duties of the position.
d) Employees laid off in accordance with this Article shall have their priority for reappointment extended by the number of terms for which they are laid off.

e) For the purposes of this article, seniority shall be defined as the number of terms for which the employee has held a regular position with the Employer.

13.09 Academic standing shall not be used as the sole criterion for selection of candidates for positions. The candidates' competence, experience and ability to perform the duties of the position shall also be taken into consideration.

13.10 Where a department has at least two (2) weeks advance notice of an impending job vacancy, the department shall post such vacancy for two (2) weeks, and send a copy to the Union.

13.11 a) Qualified applicants who are full-time Carleton students will be given preference over non-student applicants for teaching assistant, research assistant, and marking positions.

b) Student consultants hired pursuant to paragraph a) above are subject to all other terms of the Collective Agreement as provided in Appendix A.

13.14 The Employer shall not refuse to reappoint an applicant on the grounds of unsatisfactory performance of the duties of the position s/he has held, unless the basis for the finding of unsatisfactory performance has been communicated to the employee in accordance with Article 18.03.

ARTICLE 14: HOURS OF WORK

14.01 A regular graduate position is one that requires two hundred sixty (260) hours for the full academic session. Workloads equivalent to those of a regular position may be compressed into a shorter time period, or expanded into a longer time period not to exceed twelve (12) months, according to the needs of individual departments, provided that the resulting workload does not average more than ten (10) hours per week over the term of the appointment. Where the workload for the full academic session is compressed into one term, it shall decrement the priority period of the employee by the equivalent of two (2) terms. The balance of the priority period, if any, available to the employee shall apply in the next academic session.

An employee holding a regular position will be assigned an additional five (5) hours of work for the academic session, paid at the regular hourly rate, as described in Article 23.01.

The additional five (5) hours of work referred to throughout Article 14 shall be conditional upon the employee attending training provided by the employer, at no cost to the employee. No employee shall suffer a loss of pay if the training is not provided by the employer.

14.02 a) Workloads less than those of regular positions may be arranged, in accordance with departmental requirements, and will be paid for on a pro-rata basis. An employee holding a fractional appointment (i.e. a regular appointment for the academic session for less than then (10) hours per week) who works sixty-five (65) hours or more in a term, will be assigned an additional five (5) hours of work for the academic session. The additional five (5) hours of work shall be conditional upon the employee attending training provided by the employer in accordance with Article 14.01.

All new employees holding a fractional appointment (i.e., a regular appointment for the academic session for less than ten (10) hours per week) will be assigned one (1) hour of mandatory TA Orientation training as part of their duties. New employees hired in September shall attend the TA Orientation in September. New employees hired in the Winter or Summer terms shall be required to watch the TA Orientation training video. Further, any employee holding a fractional appointment who wishes to attend additional training sessions can have the time spent attending training count towards their weekly job duties with the prior approval of their supervisor and only when the integrity of their assigned duties will not be compromised.

b) A graduate student employed in a position other than a regular position who works sixty-five (65) hours or more in a term shall be deemed to have held a regular position for the purposes of Article 13.04.

14.03 a) The hours of work and length of appointment for each position shall be specified at the time of appointment. No Supervisor shall request that an employee work, and no employee shall work, hours in excess of those specified without the express written authorization of the department head. The employee shall be paid at the appropriate hourly rate for any excess hours worked in accordance with this article.

b) In accordance with Article 14.04, prior to the beginning of the specific assignment, the Supervisor shall discuss the assigned duties with the employee(s), in as much detail as possible, indicating where possible the allocations of time for the various duties assigned. The duties, and their allocated times where possible, shall be confirmed in writing to the employee(s), with a copy to the department head and the union.

The J.C.C. shall review the assignment of duties form and its distribution. If the form is modified, the revised form shall be appended to the Collective Agreement.

A signed form produced pursuant to this article does not constitute an individual contract of employment.

c) At or about the mid-point of the term, or period of work, whichever occurs first, the employee(s) and Supervisor shall meet again to discuss the progress of the course, and to assess whether the remaining duties can be completed within the hours allocated.

d) If, during the term of the appointment, the Supervisor changes the duties or the allocation of hours for any duties, such changes shall be discussed with the employee and confirmed in writing, with a copy to the department head and the union. The Supervisor shall provide written notice of any changes as far in advance as possible to provide adequate time for preparation. Notice of changes shall normally be provided at least two (2) weeks prior to the effective date of the change. Every effort shall be made to avoid changes to duties within two weeks of the last day of classes.

e) Should an employee have any concerns about the allocations of time for any of the duties assigned, s/he shall fill out a form requesting a meeting with his/her Supervisor. The employee and Supervisor shall meet within five working days of the notice. The form is attached as Appendix B of the Collective Agreement, and may be copied from the Agreement or printed from the Agreement on the Human Resources web site. If the employee gives written notice to the Supervisor that s/he has any concerns about the allocations of time for any of the duties assigned, the employee and Supervisor shall meet within five (5) working days of the notice. If the employee gives written notice to the department head that s/he is not satisfied with the result of the meeting, the employee and the department head or his/her delegate shall meet within five (5) working days of the notice. The department head or his/her delegate shall have five (5) working days from the meeting to resolve the matter. If the employee gives written notice that s/he is not satisfied with the result of the meeting, the employee and the dean of the appropriate faculty or his/her delegate shall meet within ten (10) working days of the notice. The dean shall have five (5) working days to resolve the matter.

f) Nothing in this Article shall be construed to restrict the exclusive right of the Employer to assign duties or otherwise direct the workforce in accordance with Article 2 of this Agreement.

g) Where an employee is found to have been assigned duties that, if continued to the end of the term of the appointment, would exceed the hours provided for in the appointment, the Employer shall resolve the problem in consultation with the employee, by either reducing the remaining assigned duties or extending the term of the appointment (or a combination of the two (2) options), at its discretion, so as to account for all duties assigned to the employee. An employee may be accompanied by a union representative, if readily available, at any meeting held pursuant to this article.
14.04 All assigned duties of an employee shall be included in the calculation of required hours. Such duties may include, but are not limited to: teaching, demonstrating, conducting seminars, leading discussions, supervising laboratories, preparing classes, attending lectures, training on new technology; WHMIS training, marking students’ work, consulting with students, holding of assigned office hours, setting tests, examinations and lab sets, setting up of experiments, preparing written or audio-visual materials, conducting field trips, proctoring of examinations, conferring with the Supervisor as required, providing research assistance, providing other academic support assistance, monitoring and animating class discussion on WebCT, Blackboard, other computer newsgroups, the internet, or on email and other related duties.

14.05 Subject to operational requirements, the Employer shall endeavour to minimize excessive fluctuations in the hours of work of a position. Normally an employee shall not be required to work in excess of fifteen (15) hours in any calendar week, except in the case of a position compressed into a shorter time period in accordance with Article 14.01. Anticipated excessive fluctuations shall be clearly identified at the time of appointment.

14.06 Employees shall not be required to grade and correct papers or examinations during a period of five (5) calendar days immediately prior to an examination, thesis defense or honours research paper defense (or equivalent), or during a period of three (3) calendar days immediately prior to any other course requirement, in their own degree program.

APPENDIX B

To be completed by the employee:

Name
Department of Work
To: (Immediate Supervisor)

Based on my job description and my experience to date with the job, I have concerns about the following aspects of my assignment as outlined below (please be as specific as possible):

I therefore request a meeting with you within five (5) working days.

Yours sincerely,

Signature________________________ Date________________

Rationale:

The Union proposes a means by which our members may address conditions of overwork through a formal request that outlines the steps to take in the event of concerns about such conditions. This is a more efficient process than the current recourses which are described in Article 14.03 and this will benefit all parties involved, as it reduces the potential for conflict, avoids grievance procedures and contributes to a healthy working relationship between the Employer and the Union.
