

Want to Take a Road Trip Without Breaking the Bank?

There's nothing like a road trip to stir up some fun, nostalgic memories – stopping for food and snacks, choosing the perfect driving music, and stopping for scenic photos. But before you start packing the station wagon, keep in mind that it's easy to lose track of the many small purchases and expenses you'll encounter along the way.

Visit the Credit Counselling Society for 6 tips to take a road trip without breaking the bank, such as:

- Stop more for picnics and less for drive throughs
- Avoid impulse purchases
- Plan ahead
- Budget your time and your money
