Contract Instructor Opportunities FALL/WINTER 2020-21

CGSC 2001A: Theories in Cognitive Science
(0.5 credit – Fall 2020)

COURSE DESCRIPTION: An integrated background of the discipline of Cognitive Science, with an historical overview (1940's onward) and examination of the extent to which the discipline has assimilated the collective knowledge of contributing disciplines (e.g., psychology, philosophy, linguistics, artificial intelligence and neuroscience).

Prerequisite(s): second-year standing and FYSM 1607 or CGCS 1001, or permission of the Institute. Seminar three hours per week.

The University may require that all or part of this course be delivered remotely, including online.

Pursuant to Article 16.3(c) of the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, subject to Article 15.2, expressions of interest are invited from member of the CUPE 4600 bargaining unit and other interested persons to teach the aforementioned cognitive science course during the 2019-20 Fall/Winter terms. Offers of employment and replies to these offers are subject to Articles 15.4 and 15.5 respectively.

Applicants should be near completion in a Ph.D. program in Cognitive Science, or hold a Ph.D. in Cognitive Science or in a related discipline and have teaching experience in Cognitive Science at the university level. Qualified candidates must be able to demonstrate research expertise in the area of Cognitive Science.

Applicants are asked to submit a Curriculum Vita that includes a listing of all courses taught within the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 bargaining unit at Carleton University and a contract instructor application form (see link below). Applicants who are not incumbents should also submit a brief teaching dossier, highlighting information that is relevant to the course, and teaching evaluations, if available, from other courses taught. Please send the material by June 22, 2020 electronically to:
