

CARLETON UNIVERSITY ART GALLERY AND THE PAULINE JEWETT INSTITUTE OF WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES PRESENT

KEVIN GOTKIN HOW TO DO THINGS WITH DISABILITY AESTHETICS

TUESDAY, 20 NOVEMBER 2018
7:00 – 9:00 P.M.
CARLETON UNIVERSITY ART GALLERY

ADMISSION IS FREE
EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

INFORMATION: CUAG.CA

DISRUPTIONS: DIALOGUES ON DISABILITY ART | SERIES CURATED BY MICHAEL ORSINI

In this talk, Kevin Gotkin charts some possibilities for disability aesthetics, and the protocols that emerge from artmaking that refuses to crystallize within imaginations of the typical.

ASL interpretation will be provided. Carleton University Art Gallery is an accessible building. Should you have any disability-related requirements, please contact Victoria by 10 November at victoria.mcglinchey@carleton.ca or (613) 520-2600, ext. 2929.

BROUGHT TO YOU BY

