

CARLETON UNIVERSITY ART GALLERY INVITES YOU TO

SKY CUBACUB

RADICAL VISIBILITY: A QUEERCRIP DRESS REFORM MOVEMENT MANIFESTO

Sky Cubacub and Kelly Fritsch will discuss Sky's manifesto. Members of the Carleton community will model Sky's Rebirth Garments.

Sky Cubacub is wearing their signature pink scalemaille headpiece, and pink chainmaille crop top with lavender metamaille filipinx butterfly sleeves and clear scalemaille on the chest along with a pink chainmaille merkin harness. They are sitting in front of a pink background with a black and white grid sculpture behind them.

FREE ADMISSION
EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

INFORMATION: CUAG.CA

TUESDAY, 2 APRIL 2019
7:00 – 9:00 P.M.
ALMA DUNCAN SALON, OTTAWA ART GALLERY

DISRUPTIONS: DIALOGUES ON DISABILITY ART | SERIES CURATED BY MICHAEL ORSINI

The Ottawa Art Gallery is a fully accessible space, with all-persons washrooms. ASL interpretation will be provided. Service animals are welcome. Please help us make this a scent-free environment.

Should you have any disability-related requirements, please contact Victoria by 22 March at victoria.mcglinchey@carleton.ca or (613) 520-2600, ext. 2929.

Photo by Ryan Burke for POSTURE X PAPER CELEBRATES THE GENDER-FLUID FUTURE by set designer Mo Pepin

BROUGHT TO YOU BY

cuag Carleton University
Art Gallery

Women's and Gender Studies
The Pauline Jewett Institute

Institute for Comparative Studies in Literature, Art, and Culture

School for Studies in Art and Culture

Canada Council
for the Arts
Conseil des arts
du Canada

ONTARIO ARTS COUNCIL
CONSEIL DES ARTS DE L'ONTARIO
an Ontario government agency
un organisme du gouvernement de l'Ontario

CDAC
Carleton Disability Awareness Centre

CUSA
CARLETON UNIVERSITY STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION