

Industrial Design Internship

DVI Lighting is seeking an Industrial Designer Intern. You will be working under the supervision and guidance of your Design Manager. The ideal candidate is self-motivated, willing to learn, and is a good team-player. He/she must be able to multitask, adapt to situations and problem solve, and also have strong verbal, written, and technical communication skills.

Applicants must currently be eligible to work in Canada.

Starting salary will be $20/h. Full time.

Qualifications

- Completed 3rd year of an Industrial Design program.

Software:

- Solidworks 2014+
- Keyshot a plus
- Adobe Creative Suite (Illustrator and Photoshop)
- Microsoft Office

Skills required:

- Concept development
- 3D Modelling
- Development of instruction drawings
- Ability to iterate and learn based on feedback, from management, suppliers and customers

A candidate will benefit from knowledge of manufacturing processes including:

- Die Casting
- Welding
- Electroplating
- Tubing and Sheet Metal work (Punching/Stamping/Spinning/Bending)
- Glass making
- Electronics & LEDs

About Us

DVI Lighting is one of the major players in residential lighting across North America.

How to Apply

Please apply by email at design@dvi.lighting with "Industrial Designer Intern" in the subject line and include a PDF portfolio as an attachment or download link. Application deadline May 15th.