

Carleton
University

Institute of Interdisciplinary Studies

2024/25 Annual Madeleine Kētēskwew Dion Stout Lecture

Indigenous Artists & Education:
Reimagining Educational Practices Through Art

Wolf Babe in conversation with Dr. Carmen Robertson

Thursday, April 3, 2025

2:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Conference Room, Teraanga Commons

Join Wolf Babe, an Anishinaabe/Nehiyaw/Haudenosaunee artist collective of four powerful individuals as they discuss how their art practice furthers the possibilities of education in and outside of Institutions. Dr. Carmen Robertson (Scots-Lakota), Canada Research Chair in North American Indigenous Visual and Material Culture will moderate this discussion.

Light refreshments provided.

Co-sponsors:

Carleton
University

Office of the Associate Vice-President,
Indigenous Teaching,
Learning and Research

THE
JOYCE
FOUNDATION

For more information, please contact Institute of Interdisciplinary Studies at iis@carleton.ca
carleton.ca/iis