

Through a Global Lens Photography Competition 2023 Contest Rules

The contest is run by the International Student Services Office (ISSO) at Carleton University. The Contest will run online from October 18, 2023 until November 9, 2023 at 11:59 EST.

Eligibility

The person entering the Contest must be a currently enrolled Carleton student who has reached the age of majority in your province/territory of residence or they must obtain their parents' consent. Contestants cannot reside in Quebec. Contestants cannot be current employees of Carleton University.

How to Enter

The Contest may be entered online only. To complete the official contest entry, participants must complete the online submission form. Participants may enter only one photo across all categories.

Late entries will be disqualified. The contest participant is responsible for ensuring meaningful consent was obtained for entries containing photos of individuals other than the contest participant. There is no fee to enter this contest, and no purchase or other consideration is necessary.

Prizes

- 1st place: $50 on contestant's Campus Card
- 2nd place: Ravens Hoodies
- 3rd place: Ravens Hoodies

The prizes have no cash redemption value. Carleton University makes no express or implied warranties of any kind with respect to safety or performance of the contest prizes.

Selection and Awarding the Prizes

Contest entries must be submitted by November 9, 2023 at 11:59 pm. On November 10, a jury of Carleton students and staff will be provided with all submissions to review and select the top photos (between 10 and 20 submissions) based on the following selection criteria: relevancy, composition, creativity, technical quality, and overall impression. The top submissions will be placed on the International Student Services Office website and Carleton student and staff voting will take place from November 14 until November 17 at 11:59 pm. The top 3 photographs with the most votes will win the prizes.

The contest winner will be announced and notified on November 22, 2023.

Disqualification: If any one of the contest conditions is not met, the selected entrant will be disqualified and shall not be entitled to receive any prizes. The International Student Services Office has the sole and absolute discretion to verify the information provided in the student's entry form. If any information is deemed to be false, the ISSO reserves the right to disqualify that entrant in their absolute discretion and to select the second-place winner as a potential prize winner. The decision of the aforementioned parties is final and binding, without any right of appeal.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Verification of Entries: The validity of any student status regarding enrollment is subject to verification by the International Student Services Office. Any incomplete, double, or fraudulent entries will be rejected. Any entrant or other individual who enters or attempts to enter the Contest in a manner which is contrary to these official Contest Rules or which is otherwise disruptive to the proper operation of the Contest or by its nature is unjust to other entrants or potential entrants will be rejected and that entrant or purported entrant will be disqualified. All decisions of the Contest judges, who are employees of Carleton University, with respect to any and all aspects of the Contest, including without limitation the eligibility or disqualification of entrants or entries, are final and binding without right of appeal.

The Odds: The odds of winning depend upon the number of eligible entries received.

Acceptance of Prizes: The Prize must be accepted as described in these rules and cannot be transferred to another individual, substituted for another prize or exchanged in whole or in part for cash or credit. If for any reason a selected entrant cannot be reached through the contact information provided, or does not respond to the International Student Services Office within five (5) business days of being contacted, or if there is any reason a winner cannot accept the prize as awarded, their entry will be declared null and void, and the second-place winner will receive the prize if eligible.

Substitution of a Prize: The International Student Services Office reserves the right, in their sole and absolute discretion, and for any reason whatsoever, to substitute a Prize or any part thereof, with an alternate prize of equivalent value.

Termination of Contest: The International Student Services Office reserves the right, in their sole and absolute discretion, to modify, cancel, terminate or suspend the Contest at any time, in whole or in part, in the event of any cause or circumstance, including without limitation any virus, computer bug or unauthorized human intervention, unauthorized or automated voting, or any other cause that is beyond the control of the International Student Services Office, that could corrupt or affect the administration, security, impartiality or normal course of the Contest.

Release and Exclusion of Liability: By entering or attempting to enter the Contest, each individual agrees: (i) to release, discharge, and forever hold harmless Carleton University, and their respective officers, directors, employees, members, agents and other representatives (collectively, the “Releasees”) from any and all claims, actions, damages, injuries, demands, manner of actions, causes of action, suits, debts, duties, accounts, bonds, covenants, warranties, indemnities, claims over, contracts and liabilities of whatever nature or kind including without limitation arising out of, or in connection with the entrant’s participation or attempted participation in the Contest, compliance or non-compliance with these Contest rules and acceptance and use of the Prize, any other prize or any portion thereof.

Carleton University will not be responsible for lost, incomplete, late or misdirected Contest entries or for any failure of the Contest website during the Contest Period, or for any technical malfunction or other problems with, any telephone network or lines, computer online systems, servers, access providers, computer equipment or software or for any technical problems or traffic congestion on the Internet or at any website, or any combination of the foregoing, and will not be liable for any resulting injury or damage to any person or property arising from, or relating to, that person’s or any other person’s participation or attempted participation in the Contest, or attempted voting in the contest. Any attempt to deliberately damage any website or to undermine the legitimate operation of this Contest is a violation of criminal and civil laws and, should such an attempt be made, Carleton University reserves the right to seek remedies and damages to the fullest extent permitted by law, including criminal prosecution. (iii) Each winner must sign a release form, giving Carleton University the permission to publish in print, broadcast or online, the winner’s name without remuneration.

Communication with Entrants: No communication or correspondence will be entered into with any Contest entrants about their specific contest entries, other than:

- Confirming with entrants whether their photograph will be featured on the ISSO website for Carleton community voting
- With the winning entrant selected
