Welcome to Strathclyde Business School, a world class business school within a leading international technological university.

Founded in 1948, Strathclyde Business School is a pioneering, internationally-renowned institution that shapes and develops the business minds of tomorrow.

Strathclyde Business School is a triple-accredited business school holding accreditation from the international bodies AACSB, EQUIS and AMBA, and is proud to be among only 1% of business schools in the world to have achieved this recognition. We are the largest business school in Scotland and were the first Scottish business school to gain full international accreditation.

SBS is one of four Faculties at the University of Strathclyde alongside Engineering, Science, and Humanities and Social Sciences. In recent years the University has won awards for UK University of the Year, Scottish University of the Year, and European Entrepreneurial University of the Year, and is the proud recipient of the Queen's Anniversary Prize in recognition of world-class excellence and achievement. In addition, SBS has held the award for UK Business School of the Year, and was the first in Scotland to be awarded the prestigious Small Business Gold Charter Award.

Currently we have around 3,000 students and 150 academic staff in 6 departments:

- Accounting and Finance
- Economics
- Hunter Centre for Entrepreneurship
- Management Science
- Marketing
- Work, Employment and Organisation

The University has one of the largest Student Unions in the UK, and with over 130 clubs and societies and a full and varied programme of activities throughout the year, it is the beating heart of the University's campus.

THE PLACE OF USEFUL LEARNING

The University of Strathclyde is a leading international technological university based in the centre of Glasgow. Inspired by our founding principal as ‘the place of useful learning’, Strathclyde is a socially progressive institution committed to bringing people of all backgrounds together to make an impact on our students, our city and our global community.

At the University of Strathclyde, sustainability is at the heart of our strategy. Strathclyde Business School is a signatory of the UN’s Principles for Responsible Management Education (PRME) which commits us to supporting the transformation of management education, research and thought leadership globally by providing the PRM framework, developing learning communities, and promoting awareness about the United Nation’s Sustainable Development Goals.

Join us in the heart of Glasgow – Scotland’s largest city – and be part of our vibrant international family of over 30,000 students from over 140 countries. By studying with us you will become part of a community that celebrates more than 200 years of delivering academic excellence, world class research and innovative impact through our strong reputation for effective working with business and industry.

We have invested significantly to improve our student experience and connect the University with the surrounding community. We are transforming our campus into an accessible and innovative first-class working and learning environment for our students. Our state-of-the-art sports centre was opened in 2019 and offers extensive sporting facilities to students right in the heart of the campus. Our most recent addition to campus, the Learning & Teaching Building, was developed with a sharp focus on sustainability and brings many of our student support services, Strath Union, and first-class teaching and learning facilities under one roof.

GLASGOW

We are located in the centre of Glasgow, one of the UK's largest and most vibrant cities. Glasgow is world renowned for the warmth, friendliness and humour of its people; we love welcoming people to our city and are proud of our city's slogan "People Make Glasgow". The world's top travel guides have consistently ranked Glasgow as a must-visit destination – and we couldn't agree more!

Our students tell us that Glasgow is a brilliant city to live in, with something for everyone within easy reach of the campus. The city offers outstanding shopping, diverse restaurants and bars, fantastic nightlife, a world class music scene (Glasgow is a UNESCO City of Music), extensive sports venues and events, and unique and accessible museums and art galleries. Known as the Dear Green Place, Glasgow boasts more than 90 parks and recreation spaces, and there really is something for everyone.

SCOTLAND

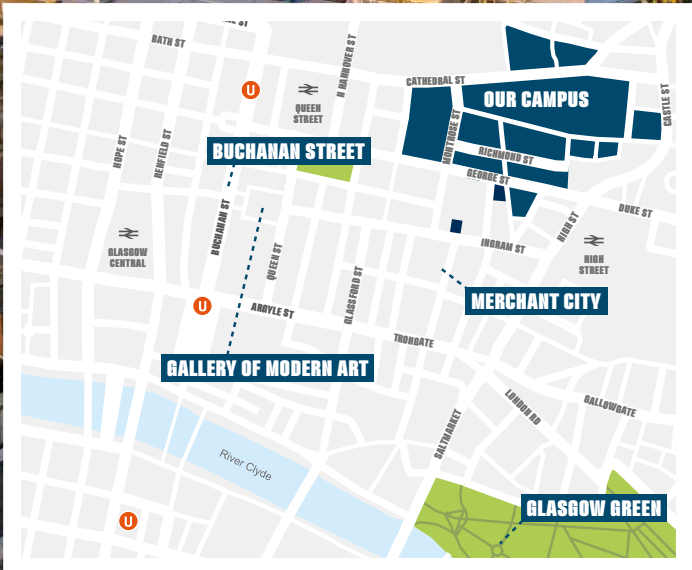

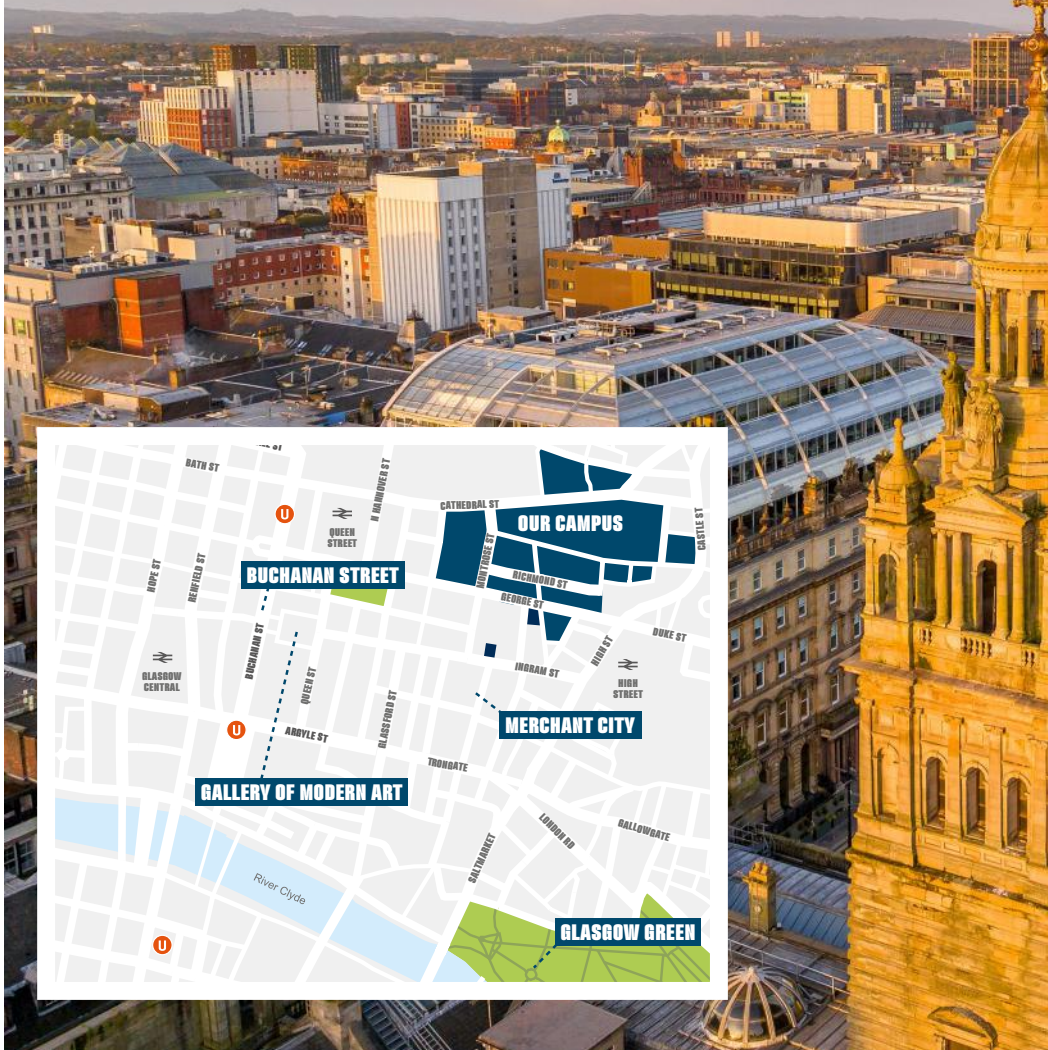

Home to some of the most magnificent landscapes in the UK, and with Glasgow as a base, you are only a short journey from exploring everything Scotland has to offer.

An array of exciting activities will be available on your door-step - from hill walking and hiking, golf, and mountain biking to snow and water sports. For those looking to discover Scotland's heritage there are also plenty of historic castles and monuments to explore, not to mention our diverse and thriving arts and culture scene across the country.

THE HEART OF THE CITY

Our campus is right in the centre of the city, just a short walk from two mainline railway stations, the bus station and the subway to help you get around the city and to visit the rest of the UK.

“PEOPLE MAKE GLASGOW” is the motto of the city and it’s totally right. People in Glasgow are extremely friendly and welcoming. It felt like my second home right away. Strathclyde was exactly the same.”

INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE AND STUDY ABROAD

Strathclyde Business School has over 100 exchange and study abroad partner institutions worldwide. Every year, we welcome hundreds of students to the Business School for their international experience, making it a dynamic and cosmopolitan place to study.

Exchange students can study for one semester or for a full year at Strathclyde Business School and must be nominated by their home institution. Modules in all academic disciplines in the Business School are open to exchange students.

If your home university does not currently have an exchange agreement with us, you can still join us for one semester or a full year as a Study Abroad student. There is typically a fee attached to the programme, and you will have access to a wide range of classes across the Business School. For further information about coming to SBS as a Study Abroad student, contact us at sbs-exchange@strath.ac.uk.

Whether you are joining us as an exchange or a study abroad student, our dedicated SBS Exchange Team will guide and support you throughout your studies at Strathclyde.

MODULES

Modules at Levels 1, 2 and 3 are open to exchange and study abroad students. Modules at Level 4 (Honours Undergraduate level) may be available if students can demonstrate significant previous study in the subject, but restrictions will apply.

Modules at Level 1 are generally at an introductory level. At Level 2, students are likely to require some previous background in the subject, and Level 3 typically will require intermediate knowledge of the subject. Students and partners are encouraged to check module descriptors for details of prerequisite knowledge.

WORKLOAD

A regular full-time workload at Strathclyde University is 60 credits (30 ECTS) per semester, and in the Business School this typically equates to 3 modules per semester. Students attending for a full academic year normally register for 120 credits (60 ECTS). Most students take a full workload, but the recommended minimum workload for exchange and study abroad students is 40 credits (20 ECTS).
