

IST 2019 Travel Grants for Presenters from the Global South

Thanks to the generous support of the Sustainability Transitions Research Network, the IST 2019 organizing committee is inviting applications for a limited number of grants to partially offset the travel costs of selected presenters from the Global South who are in financial need.

Please see the application procedure, eligibility requirements, and criteria for assessment below.

Application Procedure

Please send the following information to IST2019@carleton.ca with the subject line “IST 2019 Travel Grants for Presenters from the Global South” by May 17, 2019.

- Candidate’s full name
- Institutional affiliation
- Career stage (e.g., PhD student)
- The title, abstract, and ID number of the accepted submission
- Registration confirmation (if already paid)
- A brief justification for applying (250 words maximum)

Eligibility

- The candidate is presenting a submission at IST 2019
- The candidate is affiliated with an academic institution / organization in the Global South or is a graduate student originating from the Global South
- The candidate has provided all of the information requested for evaluation

Criteria

- Abstract – assessed according to merit and quality
- Brief Justification – clear explanation regarding why funds are being requested
- Career stage – preference will be given to students