Activate your LinkedIn Learning account

Initialize your LinkedIn Learning account using your MyCarletonOne username and password.

To log in, follow these steps:

1. Navigate to <https://www.linkedin.com/learning/login-ent>

You will see the LinkedIn Learning log in page.

2. Enter your full Carleton email address (e.g. janedoe@cmail.carleton.ca), and click Continue.
3. You will be redirected to the Carleton Single Sign-On Portal and prompted for your MyCarletonOne credentials.

4. The LinkedIn Learning page will display

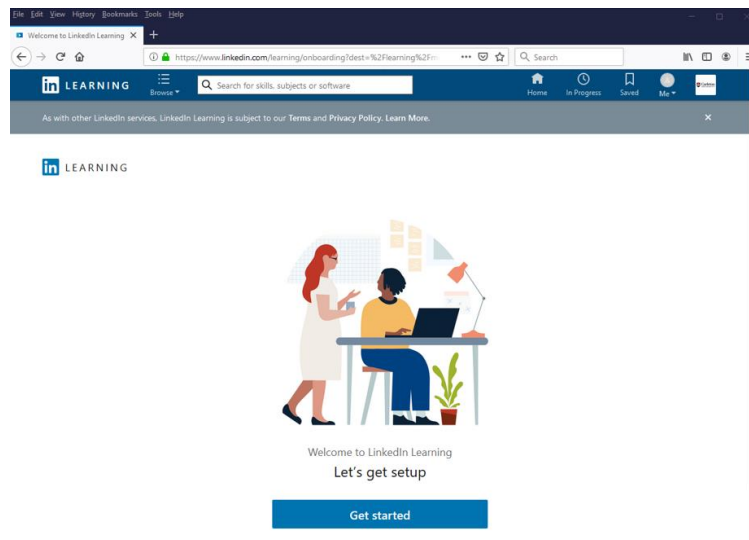

You have the option to connect an existing personal LinkedIn profile to your newly activated LinkedIn Learning account. This is an optional step, but you can do this later on, after you have familiarized yourself with this service (for more information on this feature <https://www.linkedin.com/help/learning/answer/85873>)

To proceed, click on Continue without LinkedIn. You may see an additional prompt for confirmation:

5. Click on Do not connect my account.

You will now see the Welcome to LinkedIn Learning setup page.

Once you click on Get started, you will be presented with a set of Skills categories to choose from.

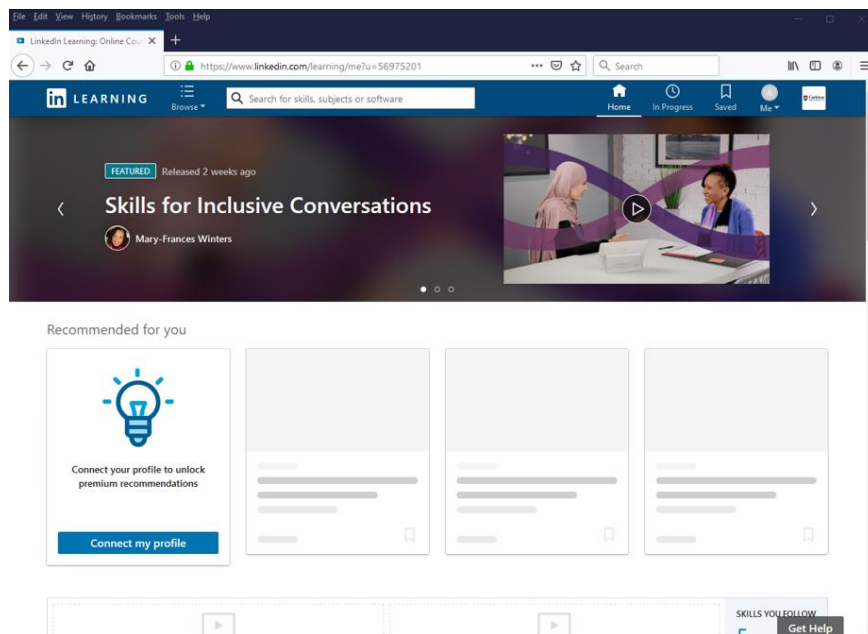

Select one of the three categories or click on Show me all.

Select one or more of the skills and click Continue.

You will now see the LinkedIn Learning interface page.

You can now access the training videos in the service.

To log off, click on the Me toolbar icon and select Sign out.

You now have access to LinkedIn Learning by going to the following address.

<https://www.linkedin.com/learning/login-ent>

Happy learning!
