

CHILD RIGHTS ACADEMIC NETWORK ANNUAL MEETING

Theme: Building the Skills of Advocacy

April 29-30, 2022

360 Tory Building, Carleton University

On Zoom: link to follow

Welcoming Remarks and Territorial Acknowledgement:

Hon. Landon Pearson 2:30-2:40

Awards Presentations:

Dr. Joy Calkin Awards
Francine and Gerison Lansdown Award 2:45-3:10

Shaking the Movers: Organizers Panel 3:15-4:15

Shaking the Movers East Coast
Shaking the Movers Iqaluit
Shaking the Movers King's College, London
Shaking the Movers MacEwan, Edmonton
Shaking the Movers Ottawa
Shaking the Movers Ryerson ("X"), Toronto

Closing Remarks and Landon Pearson Centre Update

New Award Announcement
"A World Fit For Us": Special Session +20 Event 4:15-4:30

Reception in Tory Foyer

Dinner on your own*

Saturday, April 30, 2022

Breakfast and Registration	8:30 -9:15
Welcome and Territorial Acknowledgement: Landon Pearson & Virginia Caputo	9:15- 9:30

Respondents are asked to consider the following question. Please time presentations to 5 minutes to allow for everyone to participate:

GUIDING QUESTION: Reflecting on the concerns and perspectives expressed by Shaking the Movers participants who attended the 2021 workshops on intervening, strategizing and advocacy in a time of pandemic, briefly respond to an issue the participants raised in one of the reports that you find compelling. How does what you have learned from hearing young peoples' concerns relate to the work you do with, or on behalf of, children and young people?

Panel 1: Young People's Interventions, Strategizing & Advocacy

Presenters TBA x 5 mins each	9:30-11:30
Discussion:	11:30-12:00
Discussion Facilitator:

Lunch: 12:00 - 1:00 (in Tory Foyer)

Panel 2: Moving to Action

Presenters TBA x 5 min. each	1:00-2:15
Discussion:
Discussion Facilitator:	2:15 -2:45

Concluding Remarks

Hon. Landon Pearson	2:45 – 3:00
----------------------------	-------------

Dinner on your own*