Copies of the Course Reader and the Ruddell-Pavlich text have also been placed on reserve at the MacOdrum Library, and are available for 2-hour periods on a first come, first served, basis.

EVALUATION(All components must be completed in order to get a passing grade)

There are four formal evaluation components in this course: two assignments, attendance and participation in discussion groups, and a single multiple choice examination held in the regular examination period in April 2019.

Assignment 1 (20%): Short essay, due February 1, 2019 by 4:30 p.m. (full details of the assignment will be posted on CULearn).

Assignment 2 (25%) Case Summary, due March 1, 2019 by 4:30 p.m. (full details of the assignment will be posted on CULearn).

Discussion Group (25%) Students will be expected to attend and participate in weekly discussion groups.

Final Examination (30%) A Multiple Choice Examination of all topics/materials covered during the Fall Term, written during the formal examination period.

Assignments must be completed and submitted electronically to the appropriate Teaching Assistant via CULearn by 4:30 p.m. on the due date. Papers submitted in any other fashion will not be accepted; late papers will not be accepted save in the case of a documented medical excuse or similarly serious and unforeseen circumstance. Details of the late submission policy are outlined below.

Failure to complete all assignments and exams in the course will result in the student receiving a failing grade for the course. Deferrals will not be granted unless all other course requirements have been met. Late assignments will be marked down two marks for each day submitted after the due date (including weekend days). Extensions will only be given out in extreme circumstances, such as severe illness of the student or death of a family member. Appropriate documentation will be required to accompany all requests for extensions.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Department and of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Department and the Dean.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

The instructor recognizes that students may on occasion require accommodations to meet course requirements. In this course, requests for course accommodations must be made to the instructor by email within the first two weeks of the term, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. Email requests must be clear about the accommodation sought and must contain relevant documentation supporting the request. Please note that the determination of requests for accommodation are at the discretion of the instructor, subject to formal university policies regarding accommodations. Barring exceptional circumstances (i.e., an unanticipated or unforeseeable accident or injury), requests for accommodations that are not submitted in a timely manner will not be considered. Please consult the Equity Services website at <http://carleton.ca/equity/> to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation.
