COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The Law Program at the Department of Law and Legal Studies at Carleton University is firmly grounded in a “legal studies” approach which situates law in its social, economic, political and historical contexts. As such, courses focus not just on ‘what the law is’ in a particular area but also on a range of academic and practical considerations: How does the law ‘as it is’ reflect particular (normative) visions of society and distributions of power within it? How and why does law change? How is the law ‘on the books’ operationalized (e.g., by the police or business-people) and experienced by ordinary people in everyday life? How do the narratives of law (e.g., judicial decisions) communicate cultural meanings in our society? How do law and legal processes interact with other institutions in our society? Who creates law – and is all ‘law’ (in the sense of regulation of conduct) formally prescribed law?

Engaging with questions such as these requires that students are able to deploy a range of effective research skills and strategies. The Department offers two research courses to assist students to master their law discipline. This course, Laws 2908, introduces students to legal materials in legal studies research. By this we mean judicial decisions (cases), legislative instruments (statutes and regulations), government documents (including Parliamentary materials and policy), and secondary sources published in academic journals. It also addresses 'legal method' in comprehending and working with these materials. This course is compulsory for all students majoring in a Law or Law Honours programs. A second course, Laws 3908, offered at the 3000 level, introduces students to a variety of interdisciplinary approaches, including the use of social science research sources and methods in legal studies and more advanced consideration of theory in legal research.

COURSE FORMAT

LECTURES

This course engages a blended learning model. It will include pre-recorded lectures that you will review outside of class. The lectures in this course are designed to introduce students to the important role of research and the approaches to research that may be engaged in the field of legal studies. Lectures will also provide foundations for effective analysis of different types of primary and secondary sources in law.

TUTORIALS

Attendance at tutorials is MANDATORY. Tutorials are used to provide hands-on introduction to research skills and training with electronic resources. Some tutorials will be 'labs' and other will be workshops addressing writing skills and assignments. All tutorials will be held in our classroom and will be led by your Instructor.

COURSE MATERIALS:

A. RECOMMENDED TEXT:

Text:

1. McGill Law Journal, Canadian Guide to Uniform Legal Citation, 9th ed (Toronto, Ontario: Thomson Reuters, 2018) [The McGill Guide]. This text explains the basic rules of legal citation. It is an essential reference text for anyone conducting research concerning legal issues. You will use it as a resource in other courses as you progress in the law program. Several copies will be available in the University Bookstore.
 - Note: You can also purchase the 8th ed (2014) of the McGill Guide (some used copies might be available at the the University Bookstore). However, it is highly recommended that those students that plan to continue to Law School should consider purchasing the new 9th edition.

B. REQUIRED READINGS:Articles and Cases :

Other required readings will include articles and cases. These will be available through a link on the CULearn home page and through the library ARES system.

EVALUATION:

This course is DEMANDING AND INTENSIVE. It will require considerable ongoing attention every week. These components are explained in detail below. Please review carefully and note all requirements and due dates.

We know that this is a lot of work for you (and for us) and that the course may seem much heavier than your other courses. However, this course is foundational in your Law Program. It is designed to provide you with the opportunity to develop research skills and understanding that will serve you well in your other law courses. The course is also designed to encourage you to stay engaged with the material being covered each week. Notably, the evaluation of the course is weighted to reward those students who stay engaged, submit the exercises on time, attend and participate in tutorial.

Evaluation Component	Value	Due Dates
ASSIGNMENTS There are THREE Assignments in the course. Each is submitted through the cuLearn Assignment Tab. Full instructions will be provided with the Assignment Sheets which will be posted on the Assignment Tab on cuLearn.
Assignment 1 Summary and Analysis of Secondary Sources This assignment is designed to provide students with the opportunity to locate and analyze several journal articles assigned by the instructor.	30%	October 16, 2019
Assignment 2 Statutes and Government Documents Assignment This assignment will require students to locate statutes, bills and government documents and perform a critical analysis.	16%	November 13, 2019

Evaluation Component	Value	Due Dates
Assignment 3 Case Brief and Analysis This assignment will require students to summarize and analyze a judicial decision in a case to be assigned by the instructor.	30%	December 6, 2019
ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION Lecture & Tutorial attendance is mandatory. Tutorials take two different formats (labs and workshops): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Labs: the 6 labs cover nuts and bolts of legal research and databases. Students will complete worksheets in these labs. • Workshops: the 5 workshops cover specialized themes such as analyzing legal material and writing. 	10%	Ongoing
LECTURE QUIZZES There are 9 Lecture Quizzes that are based on the content discussed in the lectures and a designated reading for each lecture. They are posted on CUOL. Each Quiz gets activated the day the lecture for that week is scheduled in the course schedule below. All Quizzes stay open for only one week. Students will have one hour to complete each Quiz. Important Note: Each Quiz is worth 2 marks out of your final grade. Only your marks from your best 7 Quizzes will be counted towards your final grade. This means that students may choose to only complete 7 of the Quizzes if they are satisfied with their marks from these 7 Quizzes.	14%	Week 1 Quiz – open from Sep 13 until Sep 19. Week 2 Quiz – open Sep 20 until Sep 26. Week 3 Quiz – open from Sep 27 until Oct 3. Week 4 Quiz – open Oct 4 until Oct 10. Week 5 Quiz – open Oct 11 Oct 17. Week 6 Quiz – open Oct 18 until Oct 31. Week 7 Quiz – open Nov 1 until Nov 7. Week 8 Quiz – open from Nov 8 until Nov 14. Week 9 Quiz – open from Nov 15 until Nov 21.
Important Notes on Evaluation:
You must complete all components of the Evaluation to receive a passing mark in the course. Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Department and of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Department and the Dean.

You must provide meticulously correct citations compliant with the Canadian Guide to Uniform Legal Citation, 9th edition (the McGill Guide) in Assignments. Marks will be deducted in each assignment if citation is not fully correct. Marks will also be allocated for effective writing.

Submission: Due dates for assignments are on Wednesday and Friday. Due time for all work is NOON.

- This is set during University working hours so you can contact CCS if you have a problem with submission.
- There is a 'grace period' or leeway of a few minutes in case you have technical issues (this means 30 minutes maximum and it is at our discretion).
- You will be subject to heavy late penalties if you do not submit on time (see later information on this).

Feedback: You will receive a marking feedback and evaluation sheet with your marks and some comments when your marks are posted. You should wait 48 hours before emailing your TA if you have questions on your marks. Please make your queries specific and detailed so that the TA can review your points and get back to you. If necessary, your TA will set up an appointment to meet with you.

Timelines:

- It will take about 14 days to mark and return Assignment 1 & 2 to you through the Assignments Tab.
- Assignment 3 will be marked within the timeframe for finalizing the Final Grade Report. You will receive your mark around the same time as the FGR is submitted to the Dean's Office.
- Marks for other submissions will be input by your TA using Grade Book. These are likely to be posted 'en bloc' near the end of the semester. You will know if you have obtained the associated marks in any case, by submitting on time.

Grade Book: Initially, you will obtain your mark through the Assignments Tab on CULearn. After a short time, we will also release the marks onto grade book. Please check from time to time so we can catch any errors or omissions early and make corrections.

Keep a copy: Keep a copy of all assignments and other submissions until your final grade is confirmed.

Individual work only! See later discussion of Academic Integrity.

LATE PENALTIES

We have every commitment to your success in the course and we also know that 'life' (and other coursework) can intervene. We also realise that it is common for students (and even professors) to work towards the 'last minute deadline.' As the seconds tick towards the deadline however, there seems to be a correlated 'disaster clock' – a computer crash, lost file etc. We urge you to set earlier 'self-deadlines' and to allow time for revision for major Assignments.

This is a very large class. Late assignments create a significant administrative burden across the (large) team of people who work with us on the course. There is a significantly higher risk of assignments going astray. There are many deliverables. Accordingly, we expect and require students to get their assignments in ON TIME. We are remorseless about lateness and impose extremely heavy penalties without exception as follows:

ASSIGNMENTS

Late Assignments will be penalized as follows:

- Deduction of 5% marks if the assignment is handed in on the due date after the deadline of NOON but before midnight.
- A further 5% if the assignment is handed-in anytime the 'next day' - from 12:01am to 11:59 pm.
- A further 10% is deducted at beginning of each following day (at 12:01am) including weekend days.
 - In other words, if a paper is due at NOON on Monday and you submit it anytime on Wednesday, the penalty is -20% - So don't be late!!!
- If an Assignment is handed in more than seven days late, it will be accepted towards course completion but will receive zero marks.

EXTENSIONS FOR THE ASSIGNMENTS

Students can request an extension on Assignments for serious illness or family and personal emergencies. They will be required to provide official supporting documentation. Students requesting an extension MUST contact the Course Instructor prior to the assignment deadline.

Extensions will not granted for computer problems of any kind. We URGE you to back up your work as you go along: email a draft to yourself whenever you finish a segment of work on it or copy it to a USB thumb-drive or an external hard drive.

A cold or the flu is not a sufficient reason for an extension.

Competing workloads in other courses is not a sufficient reason for an extension.

Work schedule or family schedule conflicts are not sufficient reasons for an extension.

COURSE SCHEDULE: LECTURES, TUTORIALS, DUE DATES FOR EVALUATION

Subject to revision. Please review carefully and mark down due dates in particular.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: Please contact me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: <https://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/academic/students/>

Religious obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: <https://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/academic/students/>

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: If you have a documented disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact The Paul Menton Centre (PMC) at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me as soon as possible to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC Website for their deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one's own. Plagiarism includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else's published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one's own without proper citation or reference to the original source. Examples of sources from which the ideas, expressions of ideas or works of others may be drawn from include but are not limited to: books, articles, papers, literary compositions and phrases, performance compositions, chemical compounds, art works, laboratory reports, research results, calculations and the results of calculations, diagrams, constructions, computer reports, computer code/software, and material on the Internet. Plagiarism is a serious offence.

More information on the University's Academic Integrity Policy can be found at:

Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit:

<https://carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support/>

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist.
