Calendar Description:

The history of the relationship between the criminal law system and society. Changing issues in the criminal law and the nature of institutional responses, covering medieval to early 19th century England and 19th to 20th century Canada.

Detailed Course Description:

This course surveys historical changes in the definition of crime and the administration of criminal law. While the adversarial criminal trial with jury is associated with the medieval origins of the common law, the basic elements of our current criminal justice system reflect relatively recent transformations in law enforcement, the criminal trial and punishment. These transformations are associated with the rise of the modern state and were responses to the effects of industrialization, urbanization, and colonization. The course focuses on 18th and 19th century England, and on the adoptions of the English criminal law and institutions in late 18th and 19th century Canada. Selected issues in criminal law history are also explored including Indigenous experiences, the experience of women, and political trials or national security resorts to the criminal law

Course Organization:

Due to the pandemic, the lectures are delivered asynchronously via CUOL/VOD, on a weekly basis from the scheduled class time. There will be optional TA led synchronous discussion groups via ZOOM held during the first

b) Final Assessment 50%

A two part final exam made available and submitted on CULearn during the formal examination period in April. Note that the second optional ZOOM discussion group 8 April reviews exam expectations. The final examination may use a remote proctoring service provided by Scheduling and Examination Services (for more information see https://carleton.ca/ses/e-proctoring)

IMPORTANT NOTES ABOUT ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION

All assessed components must be completed in order to receive a passing grade. Late essays will not be accepted after 8 April 2021. Any deferrals of the Essay or Final Assessment, following the same format, will be considered only upon application to and approval from the Registrar's Office.

Research Essays should be submitted as an electronic pdf or MSWord file through the essay submit link on CULearn by 4:00 pm on the due date. Corrupted files will not be accepted as valid submissions and essays will be deemed received only when they can be first accessed by me or the TA on CULearn. Please retain a secure, dated file copy of the submitted essay. Late essays will be marked down 2 marks out of 50 for each day late after the due date without authorized extension. Extension requests should be made in advance of the due date (emergencies excepted) and will require documented support. A completed marking template containing assessment of your essay will be returned to you on CULearn by 8 April. Both parts of the Final Assessment are to be submitted electronically on CULearn during the examination period, to be completed within the specified period of posting on CULearn. Your answers on the Final Assessment must reflect your own work and you may not collaborate with other students in completing it.

All students are expected to engage in respectful and courteous communication and contribute towards an engaging, inclusive, and safe learning environment. Please note regulations concerning academic integrity and related instructional offences noted in the Academic Regulations below and in the Undergraduate Calendar. Prior approval of the instructor must be obtained if it is intended to submit work that has previously or concurrently been submitted for credit in this or another course. Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Department Chair and of the Faculty Dean. Grades recorded on CULearn are provisional. Grades are not final until they have been approved by the Chair and the Dean and are posted on Carleton Central.
