Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: If you have a documented disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact The Paul Menton Centre (PMC) at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me as soon as possible to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC Website for their deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable) www.carleton.ca/pmc

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism is presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one's own. Plagiarism includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else's published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one's own without proper citation or reference to the original source. Examples of sources from which the ideas, expressions of ideas or works of others may be drawn from include but are not limited to: books, articles, papers, literary compositions and phrases, performance compositions, chemical compounds, art works, laboratory reports, research results, calculations and the results of calculations, diagrams, constructions, computer reports, computer code/software, and material on the Internet. Plagiarism is a serious offence.

Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. <https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf>

For more information on academic accommodation, please contact the departmental administrator or visit: students.carleton.ca/course-outline

You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at <http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/>

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course explores justifications and practices of punishment and social control from a socio-legal perspective. Why do we punish? Are prisons the best option? What are the purposes of punishment? Students are encouraged to explore these issues from a critical and theoretical perspective.

EVALUATION

(All components must be completed in order to get a passing grade)

Journal 1	10%
Journal 2	25%
Journal 3	35%
Final Exam	30%

LATE PENALTY of 5% per day will be applied to all assignments. NO EXTENSIONS will be granted except in the most extreme of circumstances.

Journals

Three times in throughout the term you are expected to turn in a journal that covers the preceding classes. This journal should be between 1 and 2 pages, focusing on ONE academic)look foir the asterix) reading and should consider the following:

How does this reading make me think differently about punishment?

Does this reading connect with other things I've been thinking about or other things going on in the world?

What further questions are raised as a result of the reading?

Is there anything that doesn't make sense about what the author is saying or that the author has missed?

Good journals will also relate to class discussions and teaching materials. You can also incorporate into your journal news items, artistic representations of punishment, other books you've read and so on.

An example journal will be placed on the CULearn site. Additionally tutorials will be held throughout the term to support students in writing the journals.

Materials

Where possible, I have opted for course materials available online (via web-sites or through online academic sources). Anything not online will be placed on reserve.
