CALENDAR COURSE DESCRIPTION
Structure and procedure of Canadian administrative authorities; policy, statutory and judicial environments in which they operate. Topics include techniques for implementing public policy and structuring public authorities; statutory interpretation; procedural safeguards; exercise of statutory discretion; reconciling efficiency and fairness.

COURSE DESCRIPTION
Administrative law is a branch of public law. It places legal limitations on a wide range of government actions, and provides for remedies available through appeals before administrative tribunals and judicial review before the courts. The course will provide an overview of this area of the law.

At the end of this course, students should be able to (1) identify and think critically about the fundamental principles underlying the field of administrative law; (2) understand the legal frameworks the courts have applied to various issues arising in this area; and (3) apply these legal principles to relevant, practical examples.
REQUIRED TEXTS

Students may find all other readings on CULearn.

COURSE FORMAT

We will be adapting the course to provide an accessible online experience including both live and pre-recorded components. This is meant to provide flexibility to each student’s current circumstances while maintaining the interactive nature of the class.

There are two components to each week’s course content:

1) Pre-recorded lecture: A pre-recorded lecture will be posted on CULearn. It will present the substantive course material for the week. The lecture will be posted at least a week ahead of the corresponding “live” component of the class.

2) Live Discussion and Q&A (via Zoom): The content of the live session will vary from week to week but may include discussion of the class content, practical exercises and group discussions. Students are strongly encouraged to watch the pre-recorded lecture and complete all corresponding reading prior to the live session and to bring any and all questions to the live discussion, so the entire class can benefit. Live sessions will be recorded and posted to CULearn for those who cannot attend.

Students are encouraged to use audio and/or video to engage with the instructor during the live sessions, as they feel comfortable.

COURSE EVALUATION WILL INCLUDE CONTENT COVERED IN EACH OF THE TWO CLASS COMPONENTS.

EVALUATION

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Department and of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Department and the Dean.

To have their participation counted for a given week, students may either 1) attend a given week’s live discussion OR, if unable to attend, 2) submit a short entry responding to a discussion question and/or an application exercise relevant to the week’s lecture/readings. Students may combine these two participation methods as necessary.

* Reflective journal entries due on date of corresponding live discussion.
