EVALUATION

(All components must be completed in order to get a passing grade)

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Department and of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Department and the Dean.

I. Essay (60% - Due Thursday , April 4th , 2019)

Students will write an essay on a topic agreed upon by the instructor. The instructor will discuss in class a range of possible essay topics. The paper will be between 3000 and 3500 words. (12-15 double spaced typed pages. Maximum length is 3500 words or approximately 15 double-spaced typed pages. Penalty for the marking of late assignments will be in letter grades. Late assignments will be penalized at the rate of 1/2 full letter grade per day (e.g. original mark B : one day late B- , two days late C Etc.) . The paper should include a cover sheet, which should include the title of your paper, your name and student number. Please ensure that your paper is securely fastened. Do not use paper clips. Do not use plastic or other covers. Quality of expression is essential. Care must be taken to ensure proper spelling, grammar and style as each will be taken into account in assigning a mark. Use heading for each section of the paper. The title should accurately reflect the subject matter of your paper. The introduction should include a position statement which is then explored in the paper. The introduction should define your topic and indicate the problem to be addressed. The body of the paper should include analysis and demonstrate that you have done research and reading including course materials and the publications. Possible reform options should be explored. Conclusion which concisely and cogently summarizes your discussion is invaluable. Proper footnoting and bibliography are required. You may use any commonly accepted style.

Note that there are Instructional Offences: Assignments must be original. It is an instructional offence for any student to copy the work of another student or to submit work that is not his or her own. In relying on the ideas of others, it is important to acknowledge that you are doing so. This does not merely apply when you are paraphrasing or quoting the work of an author, but also when you are using your own words to describe the ideas of others. The onus is on each student to retain a copy of her or his assignment until the graded assignment is returned. This will avoid the risk of an assignment being lost.

2. Presentation (25%) and Participation (10%)

Each student is required to make a presentation of 20 minutes before the class based on the subject matter of the essay. The presentation will outline the main issues discussed in the paper and the student must be prepared to address any questions posed as a result of this exercise. Students will in addition be graded for their participation in the presentations of the other students in the class.

3. Attendance (5%)

Attendance will be taken each week at the end of class.
