In addition to the criteria above, applicants for these courses who have the following qualifications shall be given preference. Candidates should have particular professional experience as mediators. Priority will be given to candidates with higher research degrees and teaching experience at the university level, and who are ADRIO members.

Every attempt has been made to ensure the accuracy of this list. Please note that there always remains the possibility of some late changes due to budgetary demands and/or enrolment numbers. Courses which have been advertised may not be available at the close of the competition as there could be changes to the faculty teaching loads. In addition, the hiring of the tenure-track faculty positions and term instructors is not yet complete, thus further impacting the final availability.

Multi-Term Agreement Opportunity:

As per the Letter of Understanding on the Trial of Multi-Term Agreements, and pursuant to Article 16 of the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, applications are invited from members of the CUPE 4600-2 bargaining unit and other interested persons to teach the following courses during the 2018/2019 and 2019/2020 academic years.

Candidates should hold at least an M.A. degree in a law field or an LL.B., and have particular research or employment experience in a relevant field. Priority will be given to candidates with higher research degrees and teaching experience at the university level. Only successful candidates will be contacted.
