2. Rick Ruddell, George Pavlich, Exploring Criminal Justice in Canada - Law and Society Redefined, (second edition) Carleton University Custom Edition (Oxford University Press, 2016); ISBN: 9780190169145.

The Tasson et al text is available from the Carleton University Bookstore for $67.75 (New) and $51 (used). The Ruddell and Pavlich text is available only as an e-book for $20 - $31. It is purchasable via links provided on the Brightspace Page for this course.

EVALUATION

There are four formal evaluation components in this course, as outlined below.

- Short Essay (20%); students will be required to critically analyze an academic article. Full details of the assignment will be posted on Brightspace (hereinafter referred to as 'BS').
- Case Brief (20%), students will be required to locate, read and brief a judgement. Full details of the assignment will be posted on BS.
- Discussion Group attendance and participation (25%), students will be expected to attend and participate in weekly discussion groups.
  - Discussion groups will be run via Zoom; links and TA contact information will be provided on the 'General' tab in BS prior to the start of term. Groups will commence in the second week of term.
- Final Exam (35%), students will be required to complete a formally scheduled, multiple choice final examination.
  - Students will be writing their final exam online through BS. Please note that tests and examinations in this course will use a remote proctoring service provided by Scheduling and Examination Services. You can find more information at <https://carleton.ca/ses/e-proctoring>. The minimum computing requirements for this service are listed on the SES website (<https://carleton.ca/ses/online-exams/e-proctoring/e-proctoring-course-outline-template>)."

Failure to complete all assignments and exams in the course will result in the student receiving a failing grade for the course. Deferrals will not be granted unless all other course requirements have been met and the total grade on work to date indicates passing the course is possible.

Late Submission Policy: Deadlines for submission of assignments are set prior to the start of term and clearly communicated in class and in this course outline. It is expected that students will plan accordingly and endeavor to meet those deadlines. Where this is not possible, students may submit the paper late and their grade will be reduced by a late penalty that will accrue at a rate of 2 marks for each day elapsing between the deadline and their submission of the paper via Brightspace.

Students are reminded that all course requirements must be met in order to pass the course; thus, where an assignment is submitted so late that a grade of '0' is inevitable (e.g., each assignment is worth 20%, so submission 10 days after the due date will be zero), the assignment must be submitted or the student will be unable to pass the course.

Grade Appeals: Students who wish to challenge a grade must contact their TA via email to request a review/appeal of their grade within ONE WEEK of the posting of the disputed mark on BS. Requests for grade reviews must be in writing and must clearly outline the grounds upon which the student is seeking the review. Appeals submitted in any other fashion will not be accepted or considered.

- Consideration of requests for reviews/appeals that fall outside the one-week timeline are solely at the discretion of the TA.
- Students who are not satisfied with the outcome of a grade review/appeal, or who are denied a review/appeal, may appeal that outcome or denial to the Instructor within THREE DAYS of receiving the TA's determination or denial of their review/appeal. The instructor will not generally entertain reviews/appeals of grades outside this timeline, nor consider any grade review/appeal that has not first been discussed with the T.A.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Department and of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Department and the Dean.

Department Policies and Regulations

The Department of Law and Legal Studies operates in association with certain policies and procedures. Please review these documents to ensure that your practices meet our Department's expectations: <https://carleton.ca/law/current-students/>.

PLAGIARISM

The University Academic Integrity Policy defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source. Examples of sources from which the ideas, expressions of ideas or works of others may be drawn from include but are not limited to: books, articles, papers, literary compositions and phrases, performance compositions, chemical compounds, artworks, laboratory reports, research results, calculations and the results of calculations, diagrams, constructions, computer reports, computer code/software, material on the internet and/or conversations.

Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

- any submission prepared in whole or in part, by someone else, including the unauthorized use of generative AI tools (e.g., ChatGPT);
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, paraphrased material, algorithms, formulae, scientific or mathematical concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings without appropriate acknowledgement;
- submitting a computer program developed in whole or in part by someone else, with or without modifications, as one’s own; and
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s work and/or failing to use quotations marks.

Plagiarism is a serious offence that cannot be resolved directly by the course’s instructor. The Associate Dean of the Faculty conducts a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. ### Academic Consideration for Medical and Other Extenuating Circumstances

Due to medical and other extenuating circumstances, students may occasionally be unable to fulfill the academic requirements of their course(s) in a timely manner. The University supports the academic development of students and aims to provide a fair environment for students to succeed academically. Medical and/or other extenuating circumstances are circumstances that are beyond a student's control, have a significant impact on the student's capacity to meet their academic obligations, and could not have reasonably been prevented.

Students must contact the instructor(s) as soon as possible, and normally no later than 24 hours after the submission deadline for course deliverables. If not satisfied with the instructor's decision, students can conduct an "informal appeal" to the Chair of the department within three (3) working days of an instructor's decision. We have created a webform specifically for appeals to the Chair, which can be found here: <https://carleton.ca/law/application-for-review-of-refusal-to-provide-academic-consideration/>. Note: This form only applies to LAWS courses and is not the same as a formal appeal of grade. More information about the academic consideration can be found here.
