Please be sure you are purchasing the correct books - checking the ISBN number is the best way to be certain.

EVALUATION

There are four formal evaluation components in this course: two assignments, attendance and participation in discussion groups, and a single multiple choice examination held in the regular examination period in December 2020; assignments must be completed and submitted electronically to the appropriate Teaching Assistant via CULearn by 4:30 p.m. on the due date. Papers submitted in any other fashion will not be accepted; late papers will not be accepted save in the case of a documented medical excuse or similarly serious and unforeseen circumstance. Details of the late submission policy are outlined below.

- Assignment 1 (20%), due October 11, by 4:30 p.m. (full details of the assignment will be posted on CULearn).
- Assignment 2 (20%), due November 15, by 4:30 p.m. (full details of the assignment will be posted on CULearn).
- Final Examination (35%), multiple choice format covering all topics/materials covered during the Fall Term, written during the formal examination period.
- Discussion Group attendance and participation (25%), students will be expected to attend and participate in weekly discussion groups. TAs will be assigned to groups in the first week of term and assignments will be posted on CULearn; discussion groups will start in the second week of classes.

Failure to complete all assignments and exams in the course will result in the student receiving a failing grade for the course. Deferrals will not be granted unless all other course requirements have been met.

Late Submission Policy: Deadlines for submission of assignments are set prior to the start of term and clearly communicated in class and in this course outline. Students encountering unforeseen and unforeseeable difficulties meeting a deadline should communicate their request for an extension to their Teaching Assistant via email and within 24 hours or as soon as possible of becoming aware of the need for an extension. Please note:

- Teaching Assistants have the authority to grant or deny the extension and to determine appropriate penalties in consultation with the professor and, where appropriate, the student. Students who are unhappy with the TA's determination on a request for an extension or the penalties applied may appeal in writing to the professor within two days of receiving the TA's response to their request for an extension.
- The penalty for late papers is two marks for each day elapsing between the due date and the submission of an assignment (including weekend days), subject to the discretion of the TA and/or the professor.
- As a general rule, extensions will be granted only in extreme circumstances, such as unforeseen illness, accidents leading to injuries, or the death of a family member or close associate; in all cases the extension must be supported by appropriate, official documentation such as a medical note (which must indicate the course name and number, the precise dates covered by the document, as well as the specific accommodation requested), police or medical records confirming the accident and/or the injury, and death certificates, respectively.

- Extensions which are not supported with relevant documentation will not, as a rule, be granted.
- Computer failure, conflicts with work schedule or similar problems do not constitute valid excuses for accommodations of course requirements, deadlines or examination schedules.
- Students are reminded that all course requirements must be met in order to pass the course; thus where an assignment is submitted so late that a grade of '0' is inevitable, the assignment must be submitted or the student will be unable to pass the course.

Grade Appeals: Students who have questions about the grade they receive on an assignment or who wish to challenge the grade must contact their TA via email to request a review/appeal of their grade within one week of the posting of the disputed mark on CULearn. Requests for grade reviews must be in writing and must clearly outline the grounds upon which the student is seeking the review. Appeals submitted in any other fashion will not be accepted or considered.

- Consideration of requests for reviews/appeals that fall outside the one week timeline are solely at the discretion of the TA.
- Students who are not satisfied with the outcome of a grade review/appeal, or who are denied a review/appeal, may appeal that outcome or denial to the Instructor within one week of receiving the TA's determination or denial of their review/appeal. The instructor will not generally entertain reviews/appeals of grades outside this timeline, nor consider any grade review/appeal that has not first been discussed with the T.A.

Carleton University assumes all students will conform to the University's Academic Integrity Policy. Please be mindful of that policy, especially as regards plagiarism.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Department and of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Department and the Dean.

A FEW ADDITIONAL GUIDELINES AND SUGGESTIONS:

- Try to stay on top of the reading assignments in this course. As with most first year survey courses, there is a great deal of reading, and it can pile up very quickly and become overwhelming. Organize your time by spending as much time preparing for class as you spend in class – for example, you have three hours of lecture and discussion group weekly; you should be spending at least that amount of time preparing for class, and allocate more time when assignment deadlines or exams are looming.
- Attend discussion groups. Students who attend discussion groups regularly and participate fully and effectively in group debates and discussions consistently do better in the course than those who do not attend, or who attend but do not engage with the group. Your TAs are here to assist you to succeed.
- If you are having trouble understanding the material in the course, speak to your T.A. or the instructor sooner rather than later. We are here to help you learn.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

The instructor recognizes that students may on occasion require accommodations to meet course requirements. In this course, requests for course accommodations must be made to the instructor by email within the first two weeks of the term, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. Email requests must be clear about the accommodation sought and must contain relevant documentation supporting the request. Please note that the determination of requests for accommodation are at the discretion of the instructor, subject to formal university policies regarding accommodations. Barring exceptional circumstances (i.e., an unanticipated or unforeseeable accident or injury), requests for accommodations that are not submitted in a timely manner will not be considered. Please consult the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation: <https://carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf>

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one's own. Plagiarism includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else's published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one's own without proper citation or reference to the original source. Examples of sources from which the ideas, expressions of ideas or works of others may be drawn from include but are not limited to: books, articles, papers, literary compositions and phrases, performance compositions, chemical compounds, art works, laboratory reports, research results, calculations and the results of calculations, diagrams, constructions, computer reports, computer code/software, and material on the Internet. Plagiarism is a serious offence.
