CALENDAR COURSE DESCRIPTION

Introduction to legal studies: concepts, sources, nature and functions of law; historical, cultural and constitutional foundations of Canadian legal system; common and civil law traditions; statutory interpretation; precedent; legal institutions; frameworks for analyzing formal and informal conceptions of law and its role in society.

Precludes additional credit for LAWS 1000 (no longer offered). Lectures and discussion three hours a week.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed as a basic introduction to the conceptual and relational foundations of law and legal studies. Students will be encouraged to engage with the social and cultural character of the law and legal system, and to turn a critical lens on the relationship between law and society.

REQUIRED TEXTS

1. Stephen Tasson, Rebecca Bromwich, Jane Dickson, Vincent Kazmierski, Bettina Appel Kuzmarov, Sébastien Malette, Umut Öszu (eds.), Introduction to Legal Studies: Foundations and Rights Protection (vol.1) Canadian Legal Studies Series (Concord: Captus Press, 2080); ISBN 978-1-55322-375-7. This text will be available as an ebook through Captus at: <http://www.captus.com/information/ebook.htm>
2. Rick Ruddell, George Pavlich, Exploring Criminal Justice in Canada - Law and Society Redefined, Carleton University Custom Edition (Oxford University Press, 2016 & 2011); ISBN: 9780199015658.

Both of these texts are available at the Carleton University Bookstore Online. You may be able to purchase second hand copies at (very) reduced prices the texts at Haven Books (43 Seneca Street, Ottawa (tel. 613-730-9888) or at the Carleton Bookstore, again via online ordering. Please be sure you are purchasing the correct books - checking the ISBN number is the best way to be certain.

EVALUATION

There are four formal evaluation components in this course: two assignments, attendance and participation in discussion groups, and a single multiple-choice examination held in the regular examination period in December 2022; assignments must be completed and submitted electronically to the appropriate Teaching Assistant via BS by 4:30 p.m. on the due date. Papers submitted in any other fashion will not be accepted; late papers will not be accepted save in the case of a documented medical excuse or similarly serious and unforeseen circumstance. Details of the late submission policy are outlined below.

- Assignment 1 (20%), (full details of the assignment will be posted on BS).
- Assignment 2 (20%), (full details of the assignment will be posted on BS).
- Final Examination (35%), multiple choice format covering all topics/materials covered during the Fall Term, written during the formal examination period.
- Discussion Group attendance and participation (25%), students will be expected to attend and participate in weekly discussion groups. TAs will be assigned to groups in the first week of term and assignments will be posted on BS; discussion groups will start in the second week of classes. As a general rule, discussion groups are graded at 2 marks per class – 1 mark for attendance; 1 mark for participation. The former cannot be determined if cameras are off, so please be advised that, save for the most exceptional circumstances, cameras must be on to receive marks for attendance. Participation marks can be secured by participating verbally in debates and discussions or posting in the chat. If you are concerned you are not participating adequately, please reach out to your TA sooner rather than later.

Failure to complete all assignments and exams in the course will result in the student receiving a failing grade for the course. Deferrals will not be granted unless all other course requirements have been met and the total grade on work to date indicates passing the course is possible.

Late Submission Policy: Deadlines for submission of assignments are set prior to the start of term and clearly communicated in class and in this course outline. Students encountering unforeseen and unforeseeable difficulties meeting a deadline should communicate their request for an extension to their Teaching Assistant via email and within 24 hours or as soon as possible of becoming aware of the need for an extension. Please note:

- Teaching Assistants have the authority to grant or deny the extension and to determine appropriate penalties in consultation with the professor and, where appropriate, the student. Students who are unhappy with the TA's determination on a request for an extension or the penalties applied may appeal in writing to the professor within two days of receiving the TA's response to their request for an extension.
- The penalty for late papers is two marks for each day elapsing between the due date and the submission of an assignment (including weekend days), subject to the discretion of the TA and/or the professor.
- As a general rule, extensions will be granted only in extreme circumstances, such as unforeseen illness, accidents leading to injuries, or the death of a family member or close associate; in all cases the extension must be supported by appropriate, official documentation such as a medical note (which must indicate the course name and number, the precise dates covered by the document, as well as the specific accommodation requested), police or medical records confirming the accident and/or the injury, and death certificates, respectively.
- Extensions which are not supported with relevant documentation will not, as a rule, be granted.
- Computer failure, conflicts with work schedule or similar problems do not constitute valid excuses for accommodations of course requirements, deadlines or examination schedules (but if you think you can make a case, go for it).
- Students are reminded that all course requirements must be met in order to pass the course; thus where an assignment is submitted so late that a grade of '0' is inevitable, the assignment must be submitted or the student will be unable to pass the course.

Grade Appeals: Students who have questions about the grade they receive on an assignment or who wish to challenge the grade must contact their TA via email to request a review/appeal of their grade within one week of the posting of the disputed mark on BS. Requests for grade reviews must be in writing and must clearly outline the grounds upon which the student is seeking the review. Appeals submitted in any other fashion will not be accepted or considered.

- Consideration of requests for reviews/appeals that fall outside the one week timeline are solely at the discretion of the TA and/or the Instructor.
- Students who are not satisfied with the outcome of a grade review/appeal, or who are denied a review/appeal, may appeal that outcome or denial to the Instructor within one week of receiving the TA's determination or denial of their review/appeal. The instructor will not generally entertain reviews/appeals of grades outside this timeline, nor consider any grade review/appeal that has not first been discussed with the T.A.

Carleton University assumes all students will conform to the University's Academic Integrity Policy. Please be mindful of that policy, especially as regards plagiarism.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Department and of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Department and the Dean.

A FEW ADDITIONAL GUIDELINES AND SUGGESTIONS:

- Try to stay on top of the reading assignments in this course. As with most first year survey courses, there is a great deal of reading, and it can pile up very quickly and become overwhelming. Organize your time by spending as much time preparing for class as you spend in class – for example, you have three hours of lecture and discussion group weekly; you should be spending at least that amount of time preparing for class, and allocate more time when assignment deadlines or exams are looming.
- Attend and participate in discussion groups. Students who attend discussion groups regularly and participate fully and effectively in group debates and discussions consistently do better in the course than those who do not attend, or who attend but do not engage with the group. Your TAs are here to assist you to succeed.
- If you are having trouble understanding the material in the course, speak to your T.A. or the instructor sooner rather than later. We are here to help you learn.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

The instructor recognizes that students may on occasion require accommodations to meet course requirements. In this course, requests for course accommodations must be made to the instructor by email within the first two weeks of the term, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. Email requests must be clear about the accommodation sought and must contain relevant documentation supporting the request. Please note that the determination of requests for accommodation are at the discretion of the instructor, subject to formal university policies regarding accommodations. Barring exceptional circumstances (i.e., an unanticipated or unforeseeable accident or injury), requests for accommodations that are not submitted in a timely manner will not be considered.

Please consult the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation:

COVID Update

It is important to remember that COVID is still present in Ottawa. The situation can change at any time and the risks of new variants and outbreaks are very real. There are a number of actions you can take to lower your risk and the risk you pose to those around you including being vaccinated, wearing a mask, staying home when you're sick, washing your hands and maintaining proper respiratory and cough etiquette.

Feeling sick? Remaining vigilant and not attending work or school when sick or with symptoms is critically important. If you feel ill or exhibit COVID-19 symptoms do not come to class or campus. If you feel ill or exhibit symptoms while on campus or in class, please leave campus immediately. In all situations, you must follow Carleton's symptom reporting protocols.

Masks: Carleton has paused the COVID-19 Mask Policy, but continues to strongly recommend masking when indoors, particularly if physical distancing cannot be maintained. It may become necessary to quickly reinstate the mask requirement if pandemic circumstances were to change.

Vaccines: Further, while proof of vaccination is no longer required as of May 1 to attend campus or in-person activity, it may become necessary for the University to bring back proof of vaccination requirements on short notice if the situation and public health advice changes. Students are strongly encouraged to get a full course of vaccination, including booster doses as soon as they are eligible, and submit their booster dose information in cuScreen as soon as possible. Please note that Carleton cannot guarantee that it will be able to offer virtual or hybrid learning options for those who are unable to attend the campus.

All members of the Carleton community are required to follow requirements and guidelines regarding health and safety which may change from time to time. For the most recent information about Carleton's COVID-19 response and health and safety requirements please see the University's COVID-19 website and review the Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQs\). Should you have additional questions after reviewing, please contact covidinfo@carleton.ca.
