CALENDAR COURSE DESCRIPTION

Theories and practices of law and social justice. Issues examined may include: civil democracy and repression; global governance and the rule of law; democratic movements and social power; human rights instruments, regimes and remedies; armed conflict; and humanitarian intervention.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course explores how people in different times and places have enacted the ideals of social justice and human rights. Students will learn about the events and debates that have shaped current practices of human rights, international legal frameworks for human rights, limitations of rights discourses, and movements for social justice by examining varied historical and social contexts. This class will ask students to think through some of the problems related to rights and justice, such as whether law is the best mechanism to promote human rights, whether rights can be applied globally, and how individual rights support or impede justice for social groups.

A key learning outcome of this course is that students will be able to apply abstract concepts such as ‘rights’ and ‘justice’ using concrete examples. As such, classroom lecture and discussion will focus on specific instances and events that best exemplify how people tried to make sense of rights or justice in practice. Such examples will include discussions of the American and French Revolutions, Western colonialism and the rise of Western humanitarianism, settler colonialism in Canada and elsewhere, World War II and the Holocaust, the war on terror, the refugee crisis, movements to challenge gender-based violence, and systematic forms of racism such as housing discrimination and mass incarceration.

The course will also maintain a clear focus on experiential learning. The course assignments will ask students to explore the range of movements and organizations working for social justice and human rights. Students will be encouraged to look beyond the classroom to learn about how activists and professionals actually do the work of enacting social justice and human rights.

Final Exam	On lectures AND readings	TBD	30%

COURSE COMPONENTS

Reading Quizzes (10%)

Reading is extremely important in this course and as such, students are expected to do all of the weekly required readings BEFORE each class. To help encourage weekly reading, students are required to complete a short quiz on the week's assigned readings. Quizzes will close on Wednesdays at 8:30 am. There will be a quiz each week, excluding the first class for a total of 12 quizzes. However, students only have to complete 10 quizzes to receive full marks (10 quizzes, worth 1 point each = 10%). Quizzes will be composed of multiple choice, true/false or short answer questions and you must get at least 50% correct in order to get full credit. Missed quizzes cannot be made up. Please ensure that you have a secure and reliable internet connection when completing the quizzes as they will be timed.

Reading Commentary (10%)

Students are required to write a reading commentary meant to develop their critical reading skills.

Students may select any one of the weekly readings required for the course to use for this assignment. Commentaries should be 3-5 pages (12-point font, double-spaced with appropriate margins), and should follow the questions listed on the assignment sheet (instructions will be posted on Brightspace). Reading Commentaries will be due on October 5.

Book Analysis and Application (20%)

Students are required to read Hannah Arendt's classic book Eichmann in Jerusalem and write a critical reflection paper that analyses the author's argument and applies that argument to a contemporary problem. The paper should be 5-7 pages (12-point font, double-spaced with appropriate margins), and should follow the instructions outlined in the assignment sheet (instructions will be posted on Brightspace). Book analysis and application papers will be due on November 2.

Rights and Justice in Practice Report (30%)

To help students connect and apply what they learn about social justice and human rights to our contemporary world, they will be required to write a report on an organization, movement or group that is advocating for some form of social justice or human rights. The goal of the report is to show how the ideals of rights and justice are achieved (or not) in practice. The report should be 8-10 pages (12-point font, double-spaced with appropriate margins), and should follow the instructions outlined in the assignment sheet (instructions will be posted on Brightspace). The reports will be due on December 7.

Final Exam (30%)

There will be a final exam on the content covered in class and in the readings. The exam will be held during the final exam period and will be a proctored exam. The date, time and location of the exam will be provided by Scheduling and Exam Services sometime in October.

LATE PENALTIES AND REQUESTS FOR EXTENSIONS

The granting of extensions is determined by the instructor who will confirm whether an extension is granted and the length of the extension. For requests for extensions lasting less than 7 days, please complete the form at the following link and submit it to the instructor prior to the assignment due date: <https://carleton.ca/registrar/wp-content/uploads/self-declaration.pdf>. Extensions for longer than 7 days will normally not be granted. In those extraordinary cases where extensions lasting longer than 7 days are granted, the student will be required to provide additional information to justify the longer extension (up to a maximum of 14 days).

Late assignments will only be accepted in consultation with the TAs and instructor. As soon as you know that you will not be able to turn in an assignment on time, please contact me or your TA. All other late assignments will be assessed a standard late penalty of 5% per day.

Important: all assignments should be submitted via Brightspace. It is your responsibility to upload assignments BEFORE the deadline and in readable formats that are compatible with the Brightspace system (e.g. PDF, .docx, etc.).

University and Departmental Policies

DEPARTMENT POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

Please review the following webpage to ensure that your practices meet our Department's expectations, particularly regarding standard departmental protocols and academic integrity requirements: <https://carleton.ca/law/student-experience-resources/>.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one's own. Plagiarism includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else's published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one's own without proper citation or reference to the original source. Examples of sources from which the ideas, expressions of ideas or works of others may be drawn from include but are not limited to: books, articles, papers, literary compositions and phrases, performance compositions, chemical compounds, art works, laboratory reports, research results, calculations and the results of calculations, diagrams, constructions, computer reports, computer code/software, and material on the Internet. Plagiarism is a serious offence. More information on the University's Academic Integrity Policy can be found at: <https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/>.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy Obligation

Write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For accommodation regarding a formally-scheduled final exam, you must complete the Pregnancy Accommodation Form.

Religious Obligation

Write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details click here.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and where survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: <https://carleton.ca/equity/sexual-assault-support-services>

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. Read more here: <https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf>.

For more information on academic accommodation, please visit: <https://students.carleton.ca/services/accommodation/>.

COVID Update

It is important to remember that COVID is still present in Ottawa. The situation can change at any time and the risks of new variants and outbreaks are very real. There are a number of actions you can take to lower your risk and the risk you pose to those around you including being vaccinated, wearing a mask, staying home when you're sick, washing your hands and maintaining proper respiratory and cough etiquette.

Feeling sick? Remaining vigilant and not attending work or school when sick or with symptoms is critically important. If you feel ill or exhibit COVID-19 symptoms do not come to class or campus. If you feel ill or exhibit symptoms while on campus or in class, please leave campus immediately. In all situations, you must follow Carleton's symptom reporting protocols.

Masks: Carleton has paused the COVID-19 Mask Policy, but continues to strongly recommend masking when indoors, particularly if physical distancing cannot be maintained. It may become necessary to quickly reinstate the mask requirement if pandemic circumstances were to change.

Vaccines: Further, while proof of vaccination is no longer required as of May 1 to attend campus or in-person activity, it may become necessary for the University to bring back proof of vaccination requirements on short notice if the situation and public health advice changes. Students are strongly encouraged to get a full course of vaccination, including booster doses as soon as they are eligible, and submit their booster dose information in cuScreen as soon as possible. Please note that Carleton cannot guarantee that it will be able to offer virtual or hybrid learning options for those who are unable to attend the campus.

All members of the Carleton community are required to follow requirements and guidelines regarding health and safety which may change from time to time. For the most recent information about Carleton's COVID-19 response and health and safety requirements please see the University's COVID-19 website and review the Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQs\). Should you have additional questions after reviewing, please contact covidinfo@carleton.ca.
