CALENDAR COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is an introduction to private law relationships and examines the common law relating to contracts, torts (civil wrongs), trust law, and the interaction of private law relationships and public law (statute law passed by governments).

The course reviews concepts employed by the law for creating and enforcing legal obligations between persons within society, including contract, tort, fiduciary obligation and restitution. Consideration is given to the role of persons and the equitable and legal role of the state in ordering private legal obligations.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Obligations in Private Law – T. Brettel Dawson, Captus Press. Available from the Carleton University Book Store and the Carleton Book Store online portal:

EVALUATION

(All components must be completed in order to get a passing grade)

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Department and of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Department and the Dean.

20% - Class participation.

The mark out of 20 assesses participation in class-on line discussion, and a record will be kept to keep track of participation. However, NO-ONE will receive less out of 20 than they did out of the remaining 80 marks, even if they don't participate, but those who attend class on line and are prepared to discuss the material may receive MORE than their average out of the remaining 80 marks.

40% - Assignment

Mid term essay – to be posted on CuLearn October 05, 2019, due back November 09, 2020. Late penalty – 5% of your mark for each day late.

40% - Final exam

3 hour open book exam – to be scheduled during the final exam period – December 12-23, 2020;

LATE PENALTIES AND REQUESTS FOR EXTENSIONS

The granting of extensions is determined by the instructor who will confirm whether an extension is granted and the length of the extension. For requests for extensions lasting less than 7 days, please complete the form at the following link and submit it to the instructor prior to the assignment due date: <https://carleton.ca/registrar/wp-content/uploads/self-declaration.pdf>.

Extensions for longer than 7 days will normally not be granted. In those extraordinary cases where extensions lasting longer than 7 days are granted, the student will be required to provide additional information to justify the longer extension (up to a maximum of 14 days).

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: Please contact me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website:

<https://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/academic/students/>

Religious obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: <https://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/academic/students/>

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: If you have a documented disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact The Paul Menton Centre (PMC) at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me as soon as possible to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC Website for their deadline to request accommodations for the formally scheduled exam (if applicable).
