

Request to Change Streams - MA Legal Studies

MA Legal Studies students who would like to change streams must first meet with the Graduate Administrator to review their academic progress and plans. Students approved to switch into a thesis or research essay stream are responsible for following the guidelines on securing a supervisor, second reader (if applicable), and adhering to thesis or research essay guidelines as found in the Graduate Handbook. Students are responsible for reviewing and following the academic requirements of the stream they would like to switch into as outlined in the academic calendar for their year of admission.
