CALENDAR COURSE DESCRIPTION

Introduction to interdisciplinary research and analysis in law and legal studies; finding and analyzing primary and secondary legal sources. Students are strongly encouraged to take this course in the second year of their program.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will focus on practical and theoretical aspects of legal research. As a participant of this course, you will learn about different methodological approaches in legal studies, explore different sources of law, and develop analytical skills. We will discuss citations, noting up cases, and different aspects of legal writing.

What to Expect?

This course will run online in an asynchronous format. It includes 12 modules. Each module includes approximately 1,5 - 2 hours of recorded materials. Some lectures can be shorter than others. This is intentional to ensure that you are not overwhelmed by the amount of content.

As a participant of this course, you are expected to review the recorded materials and mandatory readings, participate in the discussions on Brightspace, and complete quizzes, and other assignments in compliance with the deadlines specified in the Syllabus. For further particulars, please consult the section "Evaluation" and Brightspace.

My recommendation is to stick with the schedule as closely as possible to ensure a timely completion of all course elements.

Time Zone

We follow local time in Ottawa. It is your responsibility to make sure you submit your assignments in a timely manner.

Technical Aspects of the Course

Please note that this course requires access to the high-speed Internet and a working computer. Please note that a phone and/or a tablet will not be sufficient to complete this course. In case of technical difficulties, please contact Carleton Technical Support. Your TAs and your instructor cannot provide any technical assistance.

Communications

Emails. I respond to emails within 48 hours during regular working hours 8:30 am to 5 pm EST, Monday to Friday. I will not respond to your queries outside of the regular working hours even on the deadline days. If you send your email on the weekend, please wait until Monday to get a reply. I do not respond to emails during scheduled breaks and statutory holidays. The same policy applies to communications with the TAs. Please plan your communications accordingly.

Emails requesting extensions

Please send your extension requests at least two days in advance of the deadline specified in the Syllabus. Please send your request directly to me by email at ksenia.polonskaya@carleton.ca and to the TA, Huinie Pan, huiniepan@cmail.carleton.ca

You must also fill out the Academic Consideration for Coursework Form where you should state the reasons for an extension. The extensions are not guaranteed and will be granted only on the basis of equitable circumstances. Please note that your requests will be processed only during normal working hours (8:30 am to 5 pm, Monday to Friday EST).

Brightspace Announcement Board. Please note that I will use the Announcement Board to communicate with the course participants. Please keep an eye on the announcement.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Develop skills in legal research and writing
2. Analyze and synthesize cases
3. Critically analyze different methodological approaches in legal studies

REQUIRED TEXTS

Canadian Guide to Uniform Legal Citation, 10th ed [The McGill Guide].

Please make sure that you are using the 10th edition. You must purchase a copy of the McGill Guide. The Guide is available at Carleton Bookstore and via Amazon.

Please consult the section “Schedule” to find other mandatory readings. Other mandatory readings will be available via ARES and Carleton Library.

EVALUATION

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor, subject to the approval of the Department and of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Department and the Dean.

All components must be successfully completed in order to get a passing grade.

LATE PENALTIES AND REQUESTS FOR EXTENSIONS

Deferred final exams, which must be applied for at the RO, are available ONLY if the student is in good standing in the course. To write a deferred final exam, the student must obtain at least C+.

For more information regarding academic consideration for short-term incapacitation (illness, injury, or extraordinary circumstances beyond a student's control), please visit the following link: <https://students.carleton.ca/course-outline/#academic-consideration-for-short-term-incapacitation>

Quizzes, Participation Marks, and Introductory Forum. Please note that this extension policy does not apply to quizzes, participation marks, and introductory forum. No extensions are possible for the quizzes.

Penalties If you submit the tutorials and/or the midterm assignment late without securing an extension, you will lose 2% of the mark PER DAY. It does not matter if you are late by 1 second, 30 minutes or 12 hours. The standard is objective i.e., if you are late, you will lose 2%. I will accept the late submissions only within 3 days after the deadline specified in the Syllabus. The same policy applies to the forum posts with the due consideration of the relevant deadlines as applicable.

DEPARTMENT POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

Policy on Artificial Intelligence

The use of AI in this class is prohibited.

Please note that you cannot reuse your previous work done for other courses in this course. All assignments must be completed individually.

PLAGIARISM

The University Academic Integrity Policy defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source. Examples of sources from which the ideas, expressions of ideas or works of others may be drawn from include but are not limited to: books, articles, papers, literary compositions and phrases, performance compositions, chemical compounds, artworks, laboratory reports, research results, calculations and the results of calculations, diagrams, constructions, computer reports, computer code/software, material on the internet and/or conversations.

Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

- any submission prepared in whole or in part, by someone else, including the unauthorized use of generative AI tools (e.g., ChatGPT);
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, paraphrased material, algorithms, formulae, scientific or mathematical concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings without appropriate acknowledgement;
- submitting a computer program developed in whole or in part by someone else, with or without modifications, as one’s own; and
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s work and/or failing to use quotations marks.

Plagiarism is a serious offence that cannot be resolved directly by the course’s instructor. The Associate Dean of the Faculty conducts a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

STATEMENT ON STUDENT MENTAL HEALTH

As a University student you may experience a range of mental health challenges that significantly impact your academic success and overall well-being. If you need help, please speak to someone. ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

Carleton is committed to providing academic accessibility for all individuals. You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. The accommodation request processes, including information about the Academic Consideration Policy for Students in Medical and Other Extenuating Circumstances, are outlined on the Academic Accommodations website (students.carleton.ca/course-outline).

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows.

Pregnancy Obligation and Family-Status Related Accommodations

Write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details about the accommodation policy, visit the Equity and Inclusive Communities \(EIC\) website.

Religious Obligation

Write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, please go to: <https://carleton.ca/equity/focus/discrimination-harassment/religious-spiritual-observances/>.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. You can find the Paul Menton Centre online at: <https://carleton.ca/pmc/>

If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and where survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: <https://carleton.ca/equity/sexual-assault-support-services>

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. Read more here: <https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf>.

For more information on academic accommodation, please visit: <https://students.carleton.ca/services/accommodation/>.

Academic Consideration for Medical and Other Extenuating Circumstances

Due to medical and other extenuating circumstances, students may occasionally be unable to fulfill the academic requirements of their course(s) in a timely manner. The University supports the academic development of students and aims to provide a fair environment for students to succeed academically. Medical and/or other extenuating circumstances are circumstances that are beyond a student's control, have a significant impact on the student's capacity to meet their academic obligations, and could not have reasonably been prevented.

Students must contact the instructor(s) as soon as possible, and normally no later than 24 hours after the submission deadline for course deliverables. If not satisfied with the instructor's decision, students can conduct an "informal appeal" to the Chair of the department within three (3) working days of an instructor's decision. We have created a webform specifically for appeals to the Chair, which can be found here: <https://carleton.ca/law/application-for-review-of-refusal-to-provide-academic-consideration/>. Note: This form only applies to LAWS courses and is not the same as a formal appeal of grade. More information about the academic consideration can be found here.
