COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to address legal issues in E-Commerce from a legal, economic, political and regulatory perspective. The students will be exposed to contract law issues and how the implementation of this new approach has affected our way of life. The course will also address important privacy and sociological issues which impact modern society. This course will expose students to the issue of how e-commerce has affected our way of life.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Legal Issues in Electronic Commerce, R.L. Campbell, Fourth Edition, available in CU Bookstore.

Students can either opt for curbside pick-up or order from www.carletonshop.ca. The textbooks will be received within 2 business days anywhere within Canada.

EVALUATION

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Department and of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Department and the Dean.

1. Essay (45% - Due Tuesday, December 5, 2023)

Students will write an essay on a topic agreed upon by the instructor. The instructor will discuss in class a range of possible essay topics. The paper will be between 3000 and 3500 words (12-15 double spaced typed pages). Maximum length is 3500 words or approximately 15 double spaced typed pages. Penalty: The marking of the assignments will be in letter grades. Late assignments will be penalized at the rate of ½ full letter grade per day (e.g. original mark B: one day late B-, two days late C etc.). The paper should include a cover sheet, which should include the title of your paper, your name and student number. Please ensure that your paper is securely fastened. Do not use paper clips. Do not use plastic or other covers. Quality of expression is essential. Care must be taken to ensure proper spelling, grammar and style, as each will be taken into account in assigning a mark. Use headings for each section of your paper. Include a table of contents, with page numbers, for each section of your paper. The title should accurately reflect the subject matter of your paper. The introduction should include a position statement which is then explored in the paper. The introduction should define your topic and indicate the problem to be addressed. The body of the paper should include analysis, and demonstrate that you have done research and reading including course materials and other publications. Possible reform options should be explored. A conclusion which concisely and cogently summarizes your discussion is invaluable. Proper footnoting and bibliography are required. You may use any commonly accepted style.

Note that there are Instructional Offences: Assignments must be original. It is an instructional offence for any student to copy the work of another student or to submit work that is not his or her own. In relying on the ideas of others, it is important to acknowledge that you are doing so. This does not apply merely when you are paraphrasing or quoting the work of an author, but also when you are using your own words to describe the ideas of others. The onus is on each student to retain a copy of her or his assignment until the graded assignment is returned. This will avoid the risk of an assignment being lost.

2. Presentation (25%)

Each student is responsible for making a presentation of 15-20 minutes before the class based on the subject matter of the essay. The presentation will outline the main issues raised in the paper and the student must be prepared to address any questions posed as a result of the exercise.

3. Participation (10%)

Students will be graded for their participation in class.

4. Outline (20% - Due Monday, October 30, 2023)

Each student is required to submit an outline regarding the subject matter of their paper. The outline should describe in general the paper to be researched and submitted at the end of the term, and should not be more than 3 pages single spaced.

LATE PENALTIES AND REQUESTS FOR EXTENSIONS

Late assignments will be penalized at the rate of ½ full letter grade per day (e.g. original mark B: one day late B-, two days late C etc.).

The granting of extensions is determined by the instructor who will confirm whether an extension is granted and the length of the extension. For requests for extensions lasting less than 7 days, please complete the form at the following link and submit it to the instructor prior to the assignment due date. https://carleton.ca/registrar/wp-content/uploads/COVID-19_Self-declaration.pdf Extensions for longer than 7 days will normally not be granted. In those extraordinary cases where extensions lasting longer than 7 days are granted, the student will be required to provide additional information to justify the longer extension (up to a maximum of 14 days).

UNIVERSITY AND DEPARTMENTAL POLICIES

DEPARTMENT POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

Please review the following webpage to ensure that your practices meet our Department's expectations, particularly regarding standard departmental protocols and academic integrity requirements: <https://carleton.ca/law/student-experience-resources/>.

PLAGIARISM

The University Academic Integrity Policy defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source. Examples of sources from which the ideas, expressions of ideas or works of others may be drawn from include but are not limited to: books, articles, papers, literacy compositions and phrases, performance compositions, chemical compounds, artworks, laboratory reports, research results, calculations and the results of calculations, diagrams, constructions, computer reports, computer code/software, material on the internet and/or conversations.

Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

- any submission prepared in whole or in part, by someone else, including the unauthorized

- use of generative AI tools (e.g., ChatGPT);
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, paraphrased material, algorithms, formulae, scientific or mathematical concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignments;
 - using another's data or research findings without appropriate acknowledgement;
 - submitting a computer program developed in whole or in part by someone else, with or without modifications, as one's own; and
 - failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another's work and/or failing to use quotations marks.

Plagiarism is a serious offence that cannot be resolved directly by the course's instructor. The Associate Dean of the Faculty conducts a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when instructor suspects a pieces of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of "F" for the course.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows: <https://students.carleton.ca/course-outline/>.

Pregnancy Obligation

Please contact me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Department of Equity and Inclusive Communities (EIC):
