

GUIDELINES for MENTION: FRANCAIS : LAW

First, review the requirements for Mention : francais : Law to ensure the below information is up to date.

The prerequisites for FREN courses are listed in the Undergraduate Calendar. Please ensure the below information matches what is in the current Calendar.

COURSE PREREQUISITES FOR 2000-level FREN COURSES

1. Complete FREN 1001
  - a. Must attain grade of C or higher
2. Complete FREN 1002
  - a. Must attain grade of C or higher
3. Complete FREN 1100 or FREN 1110
  - a. Must attain grade of C or higher

NOTE: If you are already a French speaker, you may be able to complete a Placement Test instead of the above courses. Please contact the School of Linguistics and Language Studies to request more information.

REQUIREMENTS FOR MENTION: FRANCAIS

1. Complete 1.0 credit in FREN 2100
2. Complete 1.0 credit in FREN 2202 and 2203, or FREN 2401
  - a. You can register in the above courses concurrently with FREN 2100
3. Complete 1.0 credit at the 2000 or 3000 level in law or legal studies taught in French at the university level, and approved by the Undergraduate Supervisor
  - a. This requirement generally requires completing courses at other universities, such as University of Ottawa, and may require an exchange or Letter of Permission
4. In addition, for B.A. (Honours) Law, Combined B.A. (Honours) Law, or B.G.In.S. (Honours) with a Specialization in Global Law and Social Justice, complete 1.0 credit at the 4000 level in law or legal studies taught in French at the university level, and approved by the Undergraduate Supervisor
  - a. This requirement generally requires completing courses at other universities, such as University of Ottawa, and may require an exchange or Letter of Permission

NOTE: You can contact Law@carleton.ca to have your course choices reviewed by the Undergraduate Supervisor.

NOTE: You should speak to your major advisor to ensure you understand how completing the requirements above will affect your program requirements. For Law majors, you can contact Law@carleton.ca.