

A Voyage Through Classical Music

These six lectures explore different aspects of classical music, and what makes it so remarkable. The series is for die-hard classical music lovers, for people who just discovering music, and for everyone in between. Each lecture will be filled with musical examples.

1) Classical Music

- a. What makes classical music so unique and special, and how is it different from all other styles of music.
- b. How classical music has inspired all other styles of music.
- c. Connecting, moving and inspiring: The greatest musicians of all time.

2) The Many Periods of Music

- a. The earliest-known classical music
- b. The Middle Ages
- c. The Renaissance
- d. Baroque Music
- e. Pre-Classical Music
- f. The Classical Period
- g. Romanticism
- h. The 20th Century and Music of Today

3) The Forms of Music

- a. The classical and romantic styles: Demystifying and enjoying the great forms:
 - i. The Suite
 - ii. Sonata Form
 - iii. The Symphony
 - iv. Theme and Variations
 - v. The Overture
 - vi. Fugue
 - vii. Song Form

4) Folk Songs and Nationalism

5) Four Centuries of the Concerto

6) 20th Century Music and Beyond