“The Art of Jazz Singing”

WED. OCT 24TH
6:00 P.M. – 8:00 P.M.
$30.00 (HST INCLUDED)
LEEDS BUILDING, CARLETON UNIVERSITY

Join jazz singer and songwriter Diane Nalini for an entertaining and engaging exploration of the art of jazz singing. With examples from Bessie Smith, Ella Fitzgerald, Nat King Cole, Sarah Vaughan, Billie Holiday, and others, she will provide insights into what made these singers so unique. Diane will also do live demonstrations, so participants will come away with a better understanding of different approaches to phrasing, interpreting a song, and interacting with musicians.

To register, visit: carleton.ca/linr/online-registration/

Audience feedback:
- “Diane Nalini demonstrated particular aspects of various singers' jazz artistry and brought her points across with concrete and specific details. I heard nuances in various singers' styles that I had never heard before. Brava!”

- “Nalini’s engagement with the audience, and her superb vocals, aided her demonstrations of jazz singing. She’s a very good teacher.”

- “Diane’s enthusiasm for her subject was infectious. Her own vocal demonstrations were lovely to listen to, but also very instructive.”

Singer/songwriter Diane Nalini composes and sings in four languages. She has been a professional jazz singer for over 25 years and has recorded and produced four critically-acclaimed albums. She has sung at jazz festivals around the globe, and given gala performances for President Bill Clinton and Sir Paul McCartney.