For lovers of biographies: illustrated lectures on the lives of 13 accomplished architects from USA, Europe, Turkey and India. Architects that come alive: Thomas Jefferson & Stanford White, Julia Morgan, Frank Lloyd Wright & Nari Gandhi, Louis Kahn & Fazlur Khan, Mimar Sinan & Antoni Gaudi, Francesco Borromini & Carlo Scarpa, Le Corbusier & Eileen Gray. Combining ‘academic insight, artistic creativity, and unique personal anecdote’, the talks, with wit and verve, seek not to dispel our existential loneliness, but face our finitude with fortitude and irrepressible creativity!

“It kills me sometimes, how people die.” — Markus Zusak, The Book Thief
