Lecture Series 4
Music, Sound and Silence in Film and Media

This lecture series, team-taught by six faculty members of Carleton University’s music program, explores music, sound, and silence in media and film.

Week 1: Associate Professor Alexis Luko
Classical Music in Film: Kubrick, Bergman, Tarkovsky, Coppola

Week 2: Associate Professor Carolyn Ramzy
Music and Media in the Middle East and North Africa

Week 3: Professor Paul Théberge
The Role of Silence in Music and Cinema

Week 4: Associate Professor Jesse Stewart
Music and Memory in Hip Hop Film

Week 5: Professor James Deaville
Why Zombies Can’t Talk (or Sing)

Week 6: Professor James Wright
Composer Eldon Rathburn and the NFB’s Heyday as a Leading Global Laboratory for Innovation in Documentary and Animated Film