1900 - ????
Reach for the sky. Art Deco.
Something of the future.

Invention of safe elevator - Elisha Otis – 1851. Birth of skyscraper.

Louis Sullivan architect – 1891 - Wainwright Building, red brick office building, Missouri. “Form Follows Function”.

Antoni Gaudí architect - Sagrada Família in Barcelona started in 1884. Design using models - the catenary arch. Casa Milà, 1912

3. Art Deco movement post WW1 – sleek, streamlined.

The Rockefeller Centre by Raymond Hood architect, New York City. Applied Art Deco design – mural by Diego Rivera.

Reinforced concrete.

Habitat 1967 – Montreal, Moshe Safdie. Industrialized construction.

The 3 great pioneers of modern architecture –

1st - Frank Lloyd Wright – Robie House, Chicago - Prairie style.

Norman Foster, British architect - “The Gherkin”, London –

Something of the Future

Algorithms in design – Biomedical buildings – Exotic new geometry.

Art Tower Mito arts complex in Mito, Japan. Arata Isozaki architect.

The Sky Mile Tower, one mile high Tokyo, Japan, 400 storeys. To be built 2040 - Kohn Pedersen Fox Associates of New York City.

Grow it where you eat it – the next agricultural revolution.

Antartica – the most prestigious location.

Futuristic home - “California Roll House”. Korean designer and architect, Christopher Daniel.

3D printed onsite construction production.

No more tower cranes.

Stonehenge and Sydney Opera House, joined at the hip.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

> Natalie Stern  > Raymond Stern can be contacted at > David Rostenne  rstern@quex.ca