Lecture 1: 27 October

- Introduction to the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO)
- World Heritage Convention
- World Heritage Tourism

Lecture 2: 3 November

Canada’s World Heritage Sites #1

- L’Anse aux Meadows National Historic Site, Newfoundland and Labrador
- Nahanni National Park, Northwest Territories
- Dinosaur Provincial Park, Alberta
- Kluane / Wrangell-St. Elias / Glacier Bay / Tatshenshini-Alsek, Yukon Territory and Alaska, USA

Lecture 3: 10 November

Canada’s World Heritage Sites #2

- Head-Smashed-In Buffalo Jump, Alberta
- Sgang Gwaay, British Columbia,
- Wood Buffalo National Park, Alberta and Northwest Territories,
- Canadian Rocky Mountain Parks, Alberta and British Columbia

Lecture 4: 17 November

Canada’s World Heritage Sites #3

- Historic District of Old Quebec, Quebec
- Gros Morne National Park, Newfoundland and Labrador
- Waterton Glacier International Peace Park, Alberta and Montana, USA
- Miguasha National Park, Quebec
Lecture 5: 24 November

Canada’s World Heritage Sites #4

- Old Town of Lunenburg, Nova Scotia,
- Rideau Canal, Ontario
- Joggins Fossil Cliffs, Nova Scotia
- Landscape of Grand Pré, Nova Scotia,

Lecture 6: 1 December

i) Canada’s World Heritage Sites #5

- Red Bay Basque Whaling Station, Newfoundland and Labrador
- Future Sites in Canada

ii) World Heritage status: Blessing or Burden?

- Challenges Faced by World Heritage Sites
- The Future of the Convention

Select Annotated Bibliography

The following may be of interest to people who wish to read more about UNESCO and World Heritage Sites.

i) Books

ii) Web resources

