

CANADIAN FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE HISTORY PROJECT
TORONTO WORKSHOP
12 JULY 2018

Location: University of Toronto – St. George Campus

Registration: As space will be limited, registration is required. Registration deadline is May 18, 2018. To register, please contact Tim Sayle (tim.sayle@utoronto.ca) and mention your institutional affiliation.

Cost: $25 to cover the cost of lunch that will be provided.

Papers: To facilitate active discussion, workshop papers will be provided to all registrants ahead of time. All participants are expected to have read the workshop papers.

Tentative program:

08:30-09:00	Registration / Coffee
09:00-09:15	Introduction to the workshop	Tim Sayle, Alan Barnes
09:15-10:15	Panel 1 - Paper 1 – Alan Barnes Evolution of Canadian Strategic Intelligence Assessment - Paper 2 – Matt Helfer Anglo-French policies and intelligence in the Middle East	Chair: TBD
10:15-10:45	Coffee
10:45-12:15	Panel 2 - Paper 3 – Matt Wiseman The Origins of Canada's Cold War Scientific Intelligence - Paper 4 – Tim Sayle Tripartite Intelligence Alert System - Paper 5 – Matt Trudgen Foreign Intelligence and Canadian Air Defence Policy	Chair: TBD
12:15-13:15	Buffet lunch
13:15-14:15	Intermezzo - Presentation – Elisabetta Kerr Joint US/UK/Canada Assessment ABCI 15, 1949 - Discussion – All Recent experiences with the ATI process	Tim Sayle, Alan Barnes
14:15-14:45	Coffee
14:45-15:45	Panel 3 - Paper 6 – Nancy Carvell Perceptions of Soviet Military Intentions and Capabilities Against Western Europe, 1960-1967 - Paper 7 – Daniel Rickenbacker PLO Presence in Canada	Chair: TBD
15:45-16:00	Next steps for CFIHP – All	Tim Sayle, Alan Barnes